WITHDRAWN 03/08/2016

1 On page 3 of the amendment, line 19, after "act" insert "that meet
2 the following requirements:

3 (a) The documents, materials, or information are identified by the 4 insurance company in the insurance company's submission to the 5 commissioner as proprietary and potentially damaging to the insurance 6 company's competitive position and that are not based upon, and not 7 referenced in, any filing with any governmental agency; and

8 (b) The commissioner concurs in the insurance company's 9 identification of documents, materials, or information as proprietary
10 and potentially damaging to the insurance company's competitive 11 position and that are not based upon, and not referenced in, any 12 filing with any governmental agency"

EFFECT: Restricts the exemption from the public records act to those documents, materials, or information obtained by the insurance commissioner pursuant to the act that are identified by the insurance company as proprietary and potentially damaging to the insurance company's competitive position and that are not based upon, and not referenced in, any filing with any governmental agency. Requires the commissioner to concur in this determination.
