Brief Summary of Bill

- Creates an explicit exemption in state law, for an existing retail sales tax exemption for vehicles sales to an enrolled tribal member within Indian country.

Hearing Date: 1/29/16

Staff: Dominique Meyers (786-7150).

Background:

Retail Sales Tax.

Retail sales taxes are imposed on retail sales of most articles of tangible personal property, digital products, and some services. A retail sale is a sale to the final consumer or end user of the property, digital product, or service. If retail sales taxes were not collected when the user acquired the property, digital products, or services, then use taxes apply to the value of property, digital product, or service when used in this state. The state, most cities and all counties levy retail sales and use taxes. The state sales and use tax rate is 6.5 percent; local sales and use tax rates vary from 0.5 percent to 3.1 percent, depending on the location.

Retail Sales Tax on Sales Made to Indians or Indian Tribes.

Under federal law, sales tax is not imposed on sales to enrolled tribal members if the tangible personal property is delivered to a member or tribe in Indian country, or if the sale takes place in Indian country. There is no explicit exemption in state law. This includes the sale of motor vehicles, trailers, off-road vehicles, etc.

To make exempt sales to tribal members, auto dealers must obtain a retail sales tax certificate from the Department of Revenue (DOR) and obtain the required information included on the certificate. This includes a declaration of the buyer that requires the buyer's: (1) name; (2) signature; (3) address; (4) delivery address; (5) and proof of tribal membership, using one of four authorized tribal documents.

In addition to the declaration of buyer requirements, the dealer must provide information on the retail sales exemption certificate. This includes: (1) the seller's name; (2) the seller's address; (3) vehicle information; (4) the name of the Tribe that delivery was made; and (5) the signature of the seller. The DOR may require additional information to verify delivery from the seller, such as gas receipts, trip tickets, or a photograph of the vehicle next to landmark location in Tribal country.

The auto dealer is not required to submit the exemption certificate to the DOR; however, the dealer must maintain the certificate as proof the exemption was valid, as required under RCW 82.32. If the DOR finds that proper documentation was not obtained, the DOR may assess the auto dealer the retail sales tax that would have otherwise been due.

Summary of Bill:

A retail sales tax exemption is created, for sales of vehicles to enrolled tribal members provided the following information is obtained by the seller:

- Currently valid tribal membership or citizenship card;
- Currently valid certificate of tribal enrollment; or
- A letter signed by a tribal official confirming the buyer's current tribal membership status.

In addition the vehicle must be delivered to Indian country. The seller must document the delivery by doing the following:

- Entering the delivery location into an online system maintained by DOR; and
- Completing a declaration signed by the seller attesting that deliver was made to the location entered into the system.

The bill includes penalty provisions for both the seller and the buyer if it's determined that any documentation provided was fraudulent.
