1 a hearing, (b) appoint a guardian ad litem to investigate the issues
2 raised by the application or to take any emergency action the court
3 deems necessary to protect the incapacitated person until a hearing
4 can be held, or (c) deny the application without scheduling a 5 hearing, if it appears based on documents in the court file that the 6 application is frivolous. Any denial of an application without a 7 hearing shall be in writing with the reasons for the denial 8 explained. A copy of the order shall be mailed by the clerk to the 13 notice to the guardian, the incapacitated person, the applicant, all

24 complaint, as described in this section. The court may grant relief 25 under this section as it deems just and in the best interest of the 26 incapacitated person. For any hearing to modify or terminate a 27 guardianship, the incapacitated person shall be given reasonable 28 notice of the hearing and of the incapacitated person's right to be 29 represented at the hearing by counsel of his or her own choosing.

31 to the court. Complaints must be addressed to one of the following 32 designees of the court: The clerk of the court having jurisdiction in 33 the guardianship, the court administrator, or the guardianship

2 an incapacitated person are being held by any other person, the court 3 may order that person to deliver it in accordance with the court's 4 order. Disobedience of an order to deliver shall be punishable as
