

HB 2437 - DIGEST

Reduces the prohibition period on constituent communications to the day after the election to allow legislators to actively engage with the public on official legislative business in a timely and effective manner.