

HB 2748 - DIGEST

Requires the court to order a government party to pay costs and attorneys' fees to a nongovernment party in an action brought by the nongovernment party for judicial review of an administrative action or decision, when the nongovernment party proves beyond a reasonable doubt that a government party has knowingly acted contrary to law.