

HB 2751 - S AMD 771
By Senator Short

NOT ADOPTED 02/28/2018

1 On page 8, after line 3, insert the following:

2 "NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 41.58
3 RCW to read as follows:

4 (1) No exclusive bargaining representative may receive dues or 5 fees unless the exclusive bargaining representative submits a report
6 to the commission containing the following:

7 (a) The name of the employee organization, its mailing address,
8 and any other address at which it maintains its principal office or 9 at which it keeps records;

10 (b) The name and title of each of its officers; and

11 (c) Detailed statements regarding the provisions made and 12 procedures followed with respect to each of the following:

13 (i) Qualifications for, or restrictions on, membership;

14 (ii) Levying of assessments;

15 (iii) Participating in insurance or other benefit plans;

16 (iv) Authorization for disbursement of funds of the employee
17 organization;

18 (v) Audit of financial transactions of the employee organization;

19 (vi) The calling of regular and special meetings;

20 (vii) The selection of officers and agents;

21 (viii) Discipline or removal of officers or agents;

22 (ix) Fines, suspensions, and expulsions of members, including the 23 grounds for such actions and any provision made for notice, hearing, 24 judgment, and appeal;

25 (x) Authorization for bargaining demands; and

26 (xi) Ratification of contract terms.

27 (2) Any change in the information required by subsection (1) of 28 this section must be reported to the commission at the time the 29 employee organization files with the commission the annual financial 30 report required in subsection (3) of this section.

31 (3) No exclusive bargaining representative representing one
32 hundred or more employees may collect dues for fees unless it

1 annually files with the commission a financial report signed by its 2 president or treasurer or corresponding principal officers containing 3 the following information in such detail as may be necessary to 4 accurately disclose its financial condition and operations for its 5 preceding fiscal year:

6 (a) Assets and liabilities at the beginning and end of the fiscal 7 year;

8 (b) Receipts of any kind and the sources thereof;

9 (c) Salary, allowances, and other direct or indirect 10 disbursements including reimbursed expenses, to each officer and also 11 to each employee who, during such fiscal year, received more than ten 12 thousand dollars in the aggregate from such labor organization and 13 any other labor organization affiliated with it or with which it is 14 affiliated, or which is affiliated with the same national or 15 international labor organization;

16 (d) Direct and indirect loans made to any officer, employee, or 17 member, which aggregated more than two hundred fifty dollars during 18 the fiscal year, together with a statement of the purpose, security, 19 if any, and arrangements for repayment;

20 (e) Direct and indirect loans to any business enterprise, 21 together with a statement of the purpose, security, if any, and 22 arrangements for repayment; and

23 (f) Other disbursements made by it including the purposes
24 thereof, all in such categories as the commission may prescribe.

25 (4) The commission may adopt rules to ensure that the reports
26 required under subsections (1) and (3) of this section are consistent 27 with the reporting requirements established by the labor management
28 reporting and disclosure act of 1959 and the regulations adopted 29 under that act.

30 (5) The employee organization must make copies of reports or 31 other documents filed under subsections (1) and (3) of this section 32 available to every employee in the bargaining unit, and must annually 33 notify every employee in the bargaining unit that the reports are 34 available on the web site maintained by the commission.

35 (6) The commission shall preserve the statements or reports filed 36 under subsections (1) and (3) of this section for a minimum of ten 37 years. The contents of the reports and documents filed with the 38 commission under subsections (1) and (3) of this section are public
39 information and must be made available to the public in the following 40 manner: By ninety days after the effective date of this section, the

1 commission must operate a web site or contract for the operation of a 2 web site that allows public access to reports, copies of reports, or 3 copies of data and information submitted in reports, filed with the 4 commission under subsections (1) and (3) of this section.

5 (7) The commission may determine whether a violation of this 6 section has occurred. The commission may issue and enforce an order 7 subject to the following:

8 (a) If the commission finds that an employee organization has 9 violated this section by failing or refusing to prepare the reports 10 as required in subsections (1) and (3) of this section or by 11 preparing an incomplete or inaccurate report, the commission must 12 issue an order compelling compliance and assess a fifty dollar fine 13 for each day each report is overdue; and

14 (b) The commission may make determinations and issue and enforce 15 orders at its own discretion or as a response to a petition filed by 16 the employer, any employee in the bargaining unit, or any member of 17 the general public. The commission may refer matters of compliance to 18 the state attorney general or other enforcement agency.

19 (8) Any person who willfully violates this section must be fined 20 an amount not exceeding ten thousand dollars.

21 (9) Any person who knowingly makes a false statement or 22 representation of a material fact or who knowingly fails to disclose 23 a material fact, in any document, report, or other information
24 required under this section must be fined an amount not exceeding ten 25 thousand dollars.

26 (10) Any person who willfully makes a false entry in or willfully 27 conceals, withholds, or destroys any books, records, reports, or 28 statements required to be kept by this section must be fined not more 29 than ten thousand dollars.

30 (11) Each individual required to sign reports under subsections
31 (1) and (3) of this section is personally responsible for the filing 32 of those reports and for any false statement that the individual 33 knows is false contained in the reports.

34 (12) An employee organization may satisfy the reporting
35 requirements under subsections (1) and (3) of this section by filing 36 with the commission copies of the reports required to be filed with 37 the United States department of labor under the labor management 38 reporting and disclosure act."
