9        On page 49, after line 7 insert, "NEW SECTION. Sec. 31. The 10 legislature recognizes the fiscal note to this act indicates increased 11 administrative expenditures of forty percent resulting from the 12 original legislation. It is the intent of the legislature, following 13 adoption of this amendment capping administrative expenses to existing 14 levels, to instead invest an equivalent amount to that indicated in 15 the original fiscal note to expand services for individuals with 16 developmental disabilities, including increased provision of respite 17 care."

18        Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and correct any 19 internal references accordingly.

EFFECT: Provides that a consumer directed employer procurement can move forward only if the successful applicant enters into a contract to not exceed existing department expenditures for the services being transferred in the contract.

Provides that it is the intent of the legislature to take the savings from the administrative cap, compared to the original legislation, and invest that amount in expanding services for individuals with developmental disabilities, including increased provision of respite care.
