

HB 2211 - DIGEST

Prohibits a port district operating an airport with a police department from permitting its police officers or agents to remove passengers, or assist in the removal of passengers, from an airline's aircraft to enforce the airline's overbooking policies or other airline policies or procedures that are not related to security or safety.