

HB 2427 - DIGEST

Revises the sentencing reform act to include residential burglary as a crime against persons.

Revises the definition of "crime against children or other persons," for purposes of certain Washington state patrol statutes, by including "residential burglary."