

HB 2467 - DIGEST

Enables qualifying state agencies that are unable to obtain a sufficient amount of property and liability insurance coverage through the private market, or through the state agency self-insurance liability program, to participate in a local government joint self-insurance program covering property and liability risks.