

HB 2477 - DIGEST

Addresses the liability of a person for physical invasion of privacy when he or she knowingly enters the land or airspace above the land of another person without permission or commits a trespass for capturing visual images or physical impressions of the person engaging in a private, personal, or familial activity.