

HB 2683 - DIGEST

Directs the department of social and health services to require that: (1) Supported employment providers that include job coaches in their program provide training to those job coaches regarding the support required for activities of daily living and identified in the assessment of each individual client that the job coach supports; and

(2) Supported employer provider job coaches provide verbal or physical assistance to individual clients with activities of daily living and identified in the assessment of each individual client that the job coach supports.