

HB 2693 - DIGEST

Requires an active Washington state patrol officer, who has obtained the age of sixty-eight, to be retired on the first day of the calendar month next succeeding that in which the member has attained that age. However, this requirement does not apply to a member serving as chief of the Washington state patrol.