

SB 6464 - DIGEST

Finds that, when a parent is enrolled in working connections child care, he or she may be unable to seek advancement or promotion at their job because exceeding designated income thresholds result in a reduced subsidy.

Requires the department of children, youth, and families to contract with the state institute for public policy to complete an analysis regarding how to address and mitigate the "cliff effect" in the working connections child care program and child care subsidy program.