HB 2213

Brief Description: Modifying Washington state horse racing commission provisions.

Sponsors: Representatives MacEwen and Peterson; by request of Horse Racing Commission.

Brief Summary of Bill

- Removes the restriction that the state may not pay for salary, wages, expenses, or compensation in connection with the work of the Washington Horse Racing Commission.

Hearing Date: 1/13/20

Staff: Kyle Raymond (786-7190).

Background:

The Washington Horse Racing Commission (Commission) is responsible for licensing, regulating, and supervising all race meets held in Washington where the parimutuel system of betting is used. The Commission is also responsible for inspecting each race course in the state at least once a year.

Betting or wagering on a horse race is lawful in Washington only if it is by the parimutuel method, which is a betting system in which the bets of a particular type are pooled, taxes and commissions are removed, and payoffs are calculated by sharing the pool among all of the winning bets. Licensees that operate race meets must withhold and pay to the Commission daily, for each authorized day of parimutuel wagering, a parimutuel tax that is a percentage of all the licensees' daily gross receipts from the licensees' in-state parimutuel machines.

The receipts from the parimutuel tax must be deposited in the Washington Horse Racing Commission Operating Account (Account), in addition to any gifts, grants, or endowments the Commission receives. The Commission, or the Commission's designee, may authorize expenditures from the Account. Moneys in the Account must be used for the Commission's operating expenses, except as otherwise required in the terms of a gift, grant, or endowment.

The state may not pay for salary, wages, expenses, or compensation, of any kind, in connection with the work of the Commission.

Summary of Bill:

The restriction that the state may not pay for salary, wages, expenses, or compensation in connection with the work of the Commission is removed.

Appropriation: None.

Fiscal Note: Available.

Effective Date: The bill takes effect 90 days after adjournment of the session in which the bill is passed.
