

SENATE RESOLUTION

8675

By Senators Hobbs and Saldaña

1 WHEREAS, Keith Cotton first began his long and valued service to 2 the state in 2001 as an intern in the Washington State Department of 3 Transportation in the planning office where he helped launch the 4 first editions of the Gray Notebook, the national standard for 5 performance reporting by a state agency; and

6 WHEREAS, Keith met his wife Megan while working in the 7 Environmental Services Office in 2003, where he collaborated with 8 others to assist in mitigating the environmental impacts associated 9 with improving and preserving the state highway system; and

10 WHEREAS, Keith brought his talents (and his houseplants) to the 11 Public Transportation Division in 2005, which would become his WSDOT
12 home for the next fourteen years, the Public Transportation Division; 13 and

14 WHEREAS, Keith's vision, diligence, and sense of innovation
15 helped WSDOT develop and implement several projects while managing 16 the state Commute Trip Reduction Program, a program that kept over 17 34,500 cars off of Puget Sound area streets and highways to help 18 reduce congestion between 2017 and 2018 and saves more than four 19 million gallons of fuel each year; and

20 WHEREAS, Keith's consistency of character, sense of humor, 21 humility, and empathy for others made him an employee that his 22 bosses, coworkers, and direct reports would run through walls for if 23 asked to; and

1 WHEREAS, Keith established a sense of community through 2 organizing events and outings within the public transportation
3 division at WSDOT and beyond through his athleticism and 4 leadership in putting together some of the most dominant
5 softball and dodge ball teams the department has ever fielded;
6 and

7 WHEREAS, Keith learned that he had a brain tumor the size of 8 a lemon in January of 2013 and responded by fighting his cancer 9 with determination and great ferocity to realize dreams and 10 goals he had made with Megan; and

11 WHEREAS, Keith and Megan had a beautiful daughter named 12 Grace in 2015 and a handsome son named William in 2018; and

13 WHEREAS, Keith was a lifelong fan of his beloved Chicago
14 Cubs and was able to attend the 2016 World Series in person and 15 was able to fly his "W" flag with pride after the Cubs won their 16 first World Series since 1908; and

17 WHEREAS, Keith raised thousands of dollars for brain cancer 18 research and clinical trials through his participation in the 19 Seattle Brain Cancer Walk with friends, family, and fellow 20 employees; and

21 WHEREAS, Keith Carroll Cotton passed away on November 9,
22 2019, and left behind a legacy as a fighter, a devoted father 23 and husband, an amazing friend, and a standout employee for the 24 Washington State Department of Transportation;

25 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Senate of the state
26 of Washington recognize and laud the important contributions of 27 former WSDOT employee Keith Cotton, and offer our most heartfelt
28 condolences to Keith's family and many friends.

29 I, Brad Hendrickson, Secretary of the Senate, 30 do hereby certify that this is a true and 31 correct copy of Senate Resolution 8675,
32 adopted by the Senate
33 February 10, 2020

34 BRAD HENDRICKSON
35 Secretary of the Senate