

HB 1266 - DIGEST

Provides a sales and use tax exemption on sales of standard financial information to qualifying international investment management companies, in order to maintain the presence of at least one international investment management services firm headquartered in the state with at least two hundred billion dollars of assets under management.

Delays, until July 1, 2031, the expiration date for the sales and use tax exemption.