

HB 1858 - DIGEST

Finds that the Washington state supreme court is the entity regulating members of the state bar and has stated that the power to administer the bar association belongs exclusively to the Washington state supreme court.

Repeals statutes establishing the Washington state bar association and regulating the members of the Washington state bar association.