<ul style="list-style-type: none">Designates March 22 to be a state legal holiday, recognized as Women's Suffrage Day.

Hearing Date: 1/10/22

Staff: Desiree Omli (786-7105).

Background:

Women's Suffrage.

In 1878 the 19th Amendment to the United States (U.S.) Constitution was first introduced in Congress. The 19th Amendment prohibits the denial of the right to vote on the basis of sex. For an amendment to the U.S. Constitution to be adopted, three-fourths of the states must ratify the amendment. In 1919 both chambers of Congress passed the 19th Amendment. At that time, 36 states were required to ratify an amendment for it to be adopted. On March 22, 1920, Washington became the 35th state to ratify the 19th Amendment. On August 18, 1920, Tennessee became the 36th state to ratify the amendment. The proclamation to certify the 19th Amendment was signed on August 26, 1920.

State Holidays.
