

SENATE BILL REPORT

SB 5830

As of January 19, 2022

Title: An act relating to increasing tenure-track faculty at the public baccalaureate institutions.

Brief Description: Increasing tenure-track faculty at the public baccalaureate institutions.

Sponsors: Senators Liias, Hasegawa, Nobles and Wilson, C..

Brief History:

Committee Activity: Higher Education & Workforce Development: 1/20/22.

Brief Summary of Bill

- Adds 200 tenure-track positions at the state universities, regional universities, and state college.
- Requires the state universities, regional universities, and state college to develop model faculty diversity programs that will inform hires made under this bill.
- Directs the Student Achievement Council to collect data and assess the impact of the hires on student completion.

SENATE COMMITTEE ON HIGHER EDUCATION & WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT

Staff: Alicia Kinne-Clawson (786-7407)

Background: According to data provided by the state universities, regional universities, and state college, the student to tenure-track faculty ratio ranged from a high of 48 students per tenure or tenure-track faculty member to a low of 16 students per tenure-or tenure track faculty member.

The ratios are as follows:

This analysis was prepared by non-partisan legislative staff for the use of legislative members in their deliberations. This analysis is not part of the legislation nor does it constitute a statement of legislative intent.

- 20 to 1 at the University of Washington;
- 34 to 1 at Washington State University;
- 48 to 1 at Central Washington University;
- 42 to 1 at Eastern Washington University;
- 16 to 1 at the Evergreen State College; and
- 27 to 1 at Western Washington University.

Summary of Bill: Subject to amounts appropriated specifically for this purpose, beginning in the 2022-23 academic year, the Legislature intends to add 200 faculty positions distributed across the state universities, regional universities, and state college. The positions are divided among the institutions with the most positions allocated to the institutions with the highest student to faculty ratio. The allocations are as follows:

- 30 at the University of Washington;
- 30 at Washington State University;
- 50 at Central Washington University;
- 50 at Eastern Washington University;
- 20 at Western Washington University; and
- 20 at The Evergreen State College.

The state universities, regional universities, and state college must develop faculty diversity programs for the recruitment and retention of faculty from all racial, ethnic, and cultural backgrounds. Institutions that have already developed a program that meet the requirements under the bill are considered in compliance. Any hires made under this bill must be conducted in alignment with the faculty diversity program.

The student achievement council must collect data and assess the impact of these hires on student outcomes.

Appropriation: None.

Fiscal Note: Requested on January 14, 2022.

Creates Committee/Commission/Task Force that includes Legislative members: No.

Effective Date: Ninety days after adjournment of session in which bill is passed.