1 AN ACT Relating to replacing the Marcus Whitman statue in the 2 national statuary hall collection with a statue of Billy Frank Jr.; 3 adding a new section to chapter 43.08 RCW; creating new sections; and 4 providing a contingent expiration date.

5 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

6 NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that:

7 (1) In 1864, the national statuary hall collection was 8 established in the United States capitol authorizing each state to 9 contribute two statues to the collection. The statues must be of 10 deceased persons who were citizens of the respective state and are 11 historically important figures or known for their distinguished civic 12 or military service.

13 (2) Washington has contributed to the collection a statue of 14 Mother Joseph in 1980 and a statue of Marcus Whitman in 1953.

15 (3) Marcus Whitman was a missionary who traveled to present-day
16 Washington state with his wife Narcissa. Together, they established 17 several missions as well as their own settlement, Waiilatupu, near 18 present-day Walla Walla. Whitman assisted in the "great emigration"
19 of 1843, which established the Oregon trail. Whitman's contributions
20 to the creation of Washington were profound and important. Whitman
21 has represented the state in the statuary hall for nearly 70 years.

1 The legislature finds that it is appropriate to replace his statue
2 with one of a more contemporary Washingtonian to further celebrate
3 the state and the continuous contributions Washingtonians have made 4 in the 20th and 21st centuries.

5 (4) In the 1850s, the United States government signed a series of 6 treaties with tribes in the region under which the tribes ceded
7 millions of acres of land to the United States in exchange for 8 agreeing to live on reservations while reserving what was most 9 important to them: The right to continue to hunt, fish, and gather in 10 all of their traditional places. Billy Frank Jr., born on March 9,
11 1931, on the banks of the Nisqually river in Washington, was a 12 Nisqually tribal member and fought tirelessly to ensure that the 13 United States government would honor the promises made in the 14 treaties with Washington tribes. During his efforts, Billy Frank Jr.
15 was arrested more than 50 times for exercising his treaty-protected
16 right to fish for salmon, the first arrest being when he was 14 years
17 old. He helped to stage "fish-ins" as protests, where he and others 18 demanded that treaty tribes have the right to fish in their usual and 19 accustomed places, a right that had been reserved in the treaty of 20 Medicine Creek. His activism and perseverance paved the way for the 21 "Boldt decision" in United States v. Washington, which affirmed the 22 right of Washington treaty tribes to take up to half of the 23 harvestable salmon in western Washington, reaffirmed tribal treaty-24 reserved rights, and established the tribes as comanagers of the 25 salmon resource.

26 (5) Billy Frank Jr. dedicated his life advocating for equality, 27 justice, and environmental protections. He fought to protect tribal 28 treaty rights, native cultures and traditions, and the natural 29 resources they are based upon, including fish and shellfish. Despite 30 long-standing persecution, Billy Frank Jr. worked tirelessly to 31 protect salmon for the benefit and enjoyment of all Washingtonians.
32 When salmon populations plummeted toward extinction, eventually to 33 the point of being listed as threatened under the federal endangered
34 species act, Billy Frank Jr. vocally advocated to unify people to 35 reverse the trend. His endless work on salmon recovery was based on 36 inclusivity and an understanding that tribal treaty rights will help
37 recover salmon and would benefit the entire society and the economy
38 in enumerable ways.

39 (6) Billy Frank Jr. was a patron and the longtime chairman of,
40 the northwest Indian fisheries commission, which assists its 20

1 member tribes in managing salmon and other natural resources and 2 upholding tribal treaty rights, serves as an information
3 clearinghouse, provides a forum for tribes to address issues of 4 mutual concern, and works to establish relationships with government
5 agencies and nongovernment organizations to recover salmon.

6 (7) Billy Frank Jr.'s unwavering commitment to the fight for 7 equality and the fight against racism and abuse was of global 8 influence.

9 (8) Billy Frank Jr. has been likened to other humanitarians and 10 civil rights leaders such as Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.,
11 Cesar Chavez, and Nelson Mandela.

12 (9) In recognition of his distinguished accomplishments, Billy 13 Frank Jr. was awarded the Albert Schweitzer prize for 14 humanitarianism, the common cause award for human rights efforts, the 15 American Indian distinguished service award, the Washington state
16 environmental excellence award, and the Wallace Stegner award. Billy
17 Frank Jr. was posthumously awarded the presidential medal of freedom
18 by President Barack Obama.

19 (10) Congress passed the Billy Frank Jr. tell your story act,
20 renaming the Nisqually national wildlife refuge in honor of Billy
21 Frank Jr., and establishing a national memorial within the Billy 22 Frank Jr. Nisqually national wildlife refuge to commemorate the 23 location of the signing of the 1854 treaty of Medicine Creek between 24 the United States government and the Nisqually, Muckleshoot,
25 Puyallup, and Squaxin Island tribes.

26 (11) Billy Frank Jr. passed away on May 5, 2014, but he continues
27 to be an inspiration to many domestically and abroad.

28 (12) Billy Frank Jr. is a significant historical and civil rights 29 figure who is worthy of recognition and inclusion in the national 30 statutory hall collection.

31 NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. It is the intent and request of the 32 legislature that the statue of Marcus Whitman be removed from the
