15 NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The petition must be served upon the 16 landlord, the landlord's agent, or the person receiving rent. Service 17 must be by personal service, by certified mail with return receipt 18 requested to the respondent, or other means of service under the 19 civil rules. For purposes of delivery or mailing the petition and 20 order to show cause, the petitioner may use the address listed on the 21 rental agreement for the landlord or where rental payments are 22 directed. If service pursuant to this section cannot be made with due 23 diligence, the court may authorize service in a form likely to result 24 in actual notice of the pending petition, including service by email 25 or by requiring the assistance of local law enforcement in the 26 service of the petition. When service by mail is authorized by this 27 chapter or court order, adding additional time for mailing is not 28 required except as the court sets forth in its order. The court order 29 shall specify when and how the petition and order must be served on 30 the landlord, which shall include at least seven days' notice to the 31 landlord before the hearing on the petition.

32 NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Before the hearing on the petition, the 33 respondent may serve and file an answer setting forth any defenses to 34 the petition. The answer must be limited to affirming or denying the 35 allegations in the petition.

36 NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. If genuine issues of material fact are 37 raised at the hearing on the order to show cause, any genuine issues

1 of material fact must be tried within 30 days of the hearing unless 2 the parties agree otherwise. The parties may obtain discovery on an 3 expedited basis limited to the claims raised in the petition and the 4 enforcement of any judgment with any requests for documentation or 5 interrogatories returnable at least two days before any trial on the 6 petition or as the court directs within the action.

7 NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. (1) If the court finds that the petition 8 has been proved by a preponderance of the evidence, it may order any 9 of the following relief:

10 (a) Where the respondent has been found to have violated a duty
11 in RCW 59.18.060 or 59.20.130, or the rental agreement, the court 12 shall:

13 (i) Order the respondent to remedy the violation;

14 (ii) Determine the diminution in rental value of the premises due 15 to the defective condition and render judgment against the respondent 16 for the rent paid in excess of such diminished rental value from the 17 time the defect occurred to when the issue is corrected. Such a 18 finding may be enforced as a judgment or as a set-off against any 19 existing or subsequent claims of the respondent;

20 (iii) Order the rent abated and determine the amount by which the 21 rent is to be abated until such conditions are corrected; and 22 (iv) With the petitioner's consent, order the petitioner to 23 remedy the violation or violations found by the court and issue a 24 judgment for any costs and labor incurred in correcting the 25 violation;

26 (b) If a court determines the dwelling will be condemned or 27 unlawful to occupy due to the existence of conditions that violate 28 applicable codes, statutes, ordinances, or regulations, the court may 29 authorize the termination of the tenancy. In terminating the tenancy, 30 the court shall set a reasonable time for the petitioner to relocate, 31 relieve the petitioner of any rental obligation since the condition 32 came into existence, and award each tenant in the household damages
33 as provided under RCW 59.18.085, this section, or other applicable 34 law;

35 (c) In addition to any other damages or remedies provided by law 36 or contract, if the court determines the respondent unlawfully 37 excluded the tenant from the premises, the court shall issue a writ 38 of restitution for immediate restoration of the premises to the 39 tenant;

1 (d) In addition to any injunctive relief or treble damages
2 provided by RCW 19.86.090, where a court has found that the landlord 3 has engaged in unfair, deceptive, or abusive acts or practices, the 4 court shall award damages in the amount of three times the tenant's 5 monthly rent. The landlord shall also be liable for any attorneys' 6 fees or court costs incurred by the tenant; and 7 (e) In addition to any remedies in this section and for other 8 violations, the court may award damages provided by law or contract 9 and grant injunctive relief as is proper for the relief sought along 10 with any reasonable attorneys' fees and court costs.

11 (2) In addition to the relief stated within subsection (1) of 12 this section, the court may appoint an administrator as described in 13 section 8 of this act.

14 NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. (1) In addition to the relief provided in 15 section 7 of this act, the court may appoint an administrator as 16 described in this section.

17 (a) The administrator may be any person or entity other than the 18 landlord.

19 (b) If an administrator is appointed under this section, the 20 order shall be served on every residential tenant of the premises 21 whose obligations will be affected by the judgment personally or by 22 mail as soon as possible.

23 (c) The court shall direct that rent due must be deposited with 24 the administrator appointed by the court and direct the administrator 25 to use the rents collected to remedy the violations found to exist by 26 the court by paying the debt services, taxes, and insurance, and 27 providing the services necessary to the ordinary operation and 28 maintenance of the premises which the respondent is obligated to 29 provide.

30 (2) In executing its functions, the administrator may:

31 (a) Collect rents from residential and commercial tenants, evict 32 residential and commercial tenants for nonpayment of rent or other 33 cause, enter into rental agreements for vacant dwelling units, rent 34 vacant commercial units with the consent of the landlord, and 35 exercise other powers necessary and appropriate to carry out the 36 order;

37 (b) Contract for the reasonable cost of materials, labor, and 38 services, including utility services provided by a third party, 39 necessary to remedy the violation or violations found by the court to 1 exist and for the rehabilitation of the property to maintain safe and 2 habitable conditions over the useful life of the property, and 3 disburse money for these purposes from funds available for the 4 purpose;

5 (c) Provide services to the residential and commercial tenants 6 that the respondent is obligated to provide but refuses or fails to 7 provide, and pay for them from funds available for the purpose;

8 (d) Petition the court, after notice to the parties, for an order 9 allowing the administrator to encumber the property to secure funds 10 to the extent necessary to cover the costs described in (b) of this 11 subsection, including reasonable fees for the administrator's 12 services, and to pay for the costs from funds derived from the 13 encumbrance; and

14 (e) Petition the court, after notice to the parties, for an order 15 allowing the administrator to receive funds made available for this 16 purpose by a local jurisdiction, the state, or the federal government 17 to the extent necessary to cover the costs incurred under (b) of this 18 subsection and pay for them from funds derived from this source.

19 (3) The administrator must first contract and pay for repairs and 20 services necessary to keep the premises habitable before other 21 expenses may be paid. If sufficient funds are not available for 22 paying other expenses, such as tax and mortgage payments, after 23 paying for necessary repairs and services, the respondent is 24 responsible for other expenses.

25 (4) At any time during the administration, the administrator or 26 any other interested party may petition the court after notice to all 27 parties for an order terminating the administration on the ground 28 that the funds available to the administrator are insufficient to 29 remedy the violations or for any other reason necessitating the 30 removal of the administrator. If the court finds that the petition is 31 proved, the court shall terminate the administration and proceed to 32 judgment under section 7 of this act.

33 (5) Administration of the property may be terminated by the court 34 or by petition of the respondent, the administrator, or any other 35 interested party, after notice to all parties, on the ground that the 36 property has been brought into compliance with state law.

37 (6) After termination of administration, the court may continue 38 to hold jurisdiction over the premises for a period of one year and 39 order the respondent to maintain the premises in compliance with all

1 applicable state, county, and city health, safety, housing, building, 2 fire prevention, and housing maintenance codes.

3 (7) If an administrator has been appointed pursuant to this 4 section, any right of the respondent to collect rent from the 5 petitioner is void and unenforceable from the time the court enters 6 the order until the administrator's appointment is terminated. Any 7 right of the respondent to collect rent from other tenants is void 8 and unenforceable from the time of service of judgment until the 9 administration is terminated.

10 (8) The administrator may not be held personally liable in the 11 performance of duties under this section except for misfeasance, 12 malfeasance, or nonfeasance of office.

13 (9) The court may allow a reasonable payment for the services of 14 an administrator and the expense of the administration from the rent 15 money. When the administration terminates, the court may enter 16 judgment against the respondent for the amount of any services and 17 expenses incurred by the administrator.

18 NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. If the respondent fails to comply with an 19 order of the court pursuant to this chapter, the petitioner may file 20 an order to show cause before the court seeking to hold the 21 respondent in contempt under chapter 7.21 RCW. Any respondent who 22 willfully disobeys the terms of an order issued under this chapter 23 may, in the court's discretion, be found in contempt of court and 24 subject to sanctions.

25 NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Any provision of a rental or other 26 agreement in which a provision of this chapter is waived by a tenant 27 is contrary to public policy and void.

28 NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The purpose of this chapter is to provide 29 additional remedies to an aggrieved party and nothing contained in 30 this act limits any other claims a tenant may have against a 31 landlord. The remedies of this act shall be in addition to those 32 found in law or equity.
