EFFECT: Makes the following changes to the underlying bill:
(1) Expands the requirement to register as a sex or kidnapping offender to certain persons who committed rape in the first or second degree when the person was age 14 or 15 (instead of just 15).
(2) Expands the catchall category that allows the court to impose sex or kidnapping offender registration based on certain factors to apply to individuals age 14 through 17 (instead of age 15 through 17).
