EFFECT: Makes the following changes to the striking amendment:
(1) Restores language from current law that specifies that an individualized education program (IEP) or section 504 plan must not include the use of isolation or physical restraint as a planned behavior intervention unless a student's individual needs require more specific advanced educational planning and the student's parent or guardian agrees.
(2) Removes language stating that neither a student nor the student's parent or guardian may consent, or be asked to consent, to the use of isolation or restraint that is prohibited.
