EFFECT: Modifies the committee striking amendment as follows:

- (1) Removes a portion of the bill's intent section noting the legislature's intent to ensure the Attorney General may bring legal actions.

- (2) Removes the subsection of the bill authorizing the Attorney General to commence legal actions in response to violations of the bill's restrictions and requirements.
- (3) Removes a sentence from the bill clarifying that a section regarding proximate cause is not intended to establish a causation requirement for a claim brought by the Attorney General pursuant to the Consumer Protection Act.
- (4) Removes wording from the bill's savings clauses indicating the Attorney General may bring an enforcement action under the bill or other laws.
