- The domestic violence prevention account is created in the state treasury. All receipts from fees imposed for deposit in the domestic violence prevention account under RCW 36.18.016, and all receipts from fees imposed under section 1 of this act, must be deposited into the account. Moneys in the account may be spent only after appropriation. Expenditures from the account may be used only for funding the following:
- (1) Culturally specific prevention efforts and culturally appropriate community-based domestic violence services for victims of domestic violence from populations that have been traditionally underserved or unserved;
- (2) Age appropriate prevention and intervention services for children who have been exposed to domestic violence or youth who have been victims of dating violence; and
- 22 (3) Outreach and education efforts by community-based domestic 23 violence programs designed to increase public awareness about, and 24 primary and secondary prevention of, domestic and dating violence.
