
SENATE BILL 5099

State of Washington

68th Legislature

2023 Regular Session

By Senators Braun, Keiser, Conway, Dozier, Gildon, King, Kuderer, Mullet, Muzzall, Rivers, Rolfes, Short, Wagoner, Warnick, and L. Wilson

Prefiled 12/27/22. Read first time 01/09/23. Referred to Committee on Ways & Means.

1 AN ACT Relating to transferring extraordinary revenue collections
2 from the estate tax to the developmental disabilities community
3 services account; reenacting and amending RCW 83.100.230; and 4 creating a new section.

5 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

6 NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that individuals 7 with intellectual and developmental disabilities who reside in 8 community settings are best served by a broad array of services that 9 support independent living. Although the establishment of the 10 developmental disabilities community services account provides a 11 mechanism with which to provide that support, a lack of reliable 12 revenue sources has proven to be a barrier to achieving this goal. As 13 a result, the legislature intends to establish a permanent funding 14 source for this account in order to provide ongoing services and 15 supports to assist individuals with intellectual and developmental 16 disabilities to live as independently as possible in the least 17 restrictive environment.

18 Sec. 2. RCW 83.100.230 and 2021 c 199 s 105 and 2021 c 196 s 3
19 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

1 (1) The education legacy trust account is created in the state
2 treasury. Money in the account may be spent only after appropriation.
3 ((Expenditures)) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this 4 section, expenditures from the account may be used only for support
5 of the common schools, and for expanding access to higher education
6 through funding for new enrollments and financial aid, early learning 7 and child care programs, and other educational improvement efforts.

8 (2) Beginning in fiscal year 2024, 50 percent of receipts under 9 this chapter in excess of $400,000,000 during any fiscal year must be 10 transferred to the developmental disabilities community services 11 account created in RCW 71A.20.170. The state treasurer must make the 12 transfer required under this subsection within 60 days of being 13 notified by the department that receipts under this chapter exceeded 14 $400,000,000 during any fiscal year.
