By Senators Keiser, Cleveland, Conway, Hasegawa, Hunt, Kuderer, Lovelett, Stanford, Valdez, and C. Wilson

Read first time 01/30/23. Referred to Committee on Health & Long Term Care.

1 AN ACT Relating to protecting the health care of workers
2 exercising their right to participate in a labor dispute; adding a
3 new section to chapter 43.71 RCW; and creating a new section.

4 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

5 NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 43.71
6 RCW to read as follows:

7 (1) By January 1, 2025, the exchange must establish a worker
8 health plan access program to help Washingtonians who lose health
9 care coverage provided by their employer or a joint labor management
10 trust as a result of an active strike, lockout, or other labor
11 dispute.

12 (2) Subject to the availability of funding, the exchange must 13 provide enrollment assistance to help maintain coverage for 14 individuals and their dependents who:

15 (a) Provide a self-attestation regarding loss of minimum
16 essential health care coverage from an employer or joint labor
17 management trust fund as a result of an active strike, lockout, or 18 other labor dispute; and

19 (b) Are eligible for coverage offered through the exchange.

20 (3) The exchange may request, and an applicable employer, labor
21 organization, or other appropriate representative, must provide,

1 information to determine the status of a strike, lockout, or labor
2 dispute, its impact to coverage, and any other information determined
3 by the exchange as necessary to conduct outreach and determine
4 eligibility for federal and state subsidies offered through the 5 exchange.

6 (4) The exchange must establish a process for providing outreach
7 and enrollment assistance, and may establish additional procedural
8 requirements to administer the program established in subsection (1)
9 of this section.

10 NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. This act may be known and cited as the 11 worker health care protection act.

Passed by the Senate March 4, 2024.
Passed by the House February 28, 2024.
Approved by the Governor March 26, 2024.
