4 NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. Washington state residents have been 5 increasingly impacted by disasters such as floods, landslides,

8 communities of color and vulnerable populations disproportionately
9 impacted. Residents are also negatively impacted by certain responses
10 to disasters, including border closures. The legislature finds that 11 it is critical to better prepare Washington for disasters and to 12 mitigate the impacts with coordinated resilience strategies. The 13 legislature further finds a resilient Washington increases quality of 14 life for Washingtonians while every one dollar spent on mitigation

18 by both public and private sectors.

19 NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 38.52

15 (b) Strategies for addressing the impacts of all hazards, both 16 natural and human-caused, such as border closures, including:

17 (i) Developing, coordinating, and communicating disaster

19 governments on hazards and issues where there is not another lead

21 that give special consideration to exclave communities;
