1 AN ACT Relating to celebrating lunar new year; reenacting and 2 amending RCW 1.16.050; adding a new section to chapter 43.117 RCW;
3 and creating a new section.

4 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

5 NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that each year the 6 people of the great state of Washington unite to celebrate the Lunar
7 New Year, joining to distinguish Asian American joy, cultures, and 8 beautiful diversity. The legislature further acknowledges both the 9 wonderful heritage and collective trauma of our Asian American
10 ancestors, and it deeply appreciates the Asian American community
11 that has made Washington a vibrant place for us all to call home,
12 building and supporting their communities despite the uncertainty
13 they have faced at times. The legislature highlights the solidarity
14 and strength of the Asian American community in the face of violent 15 racism, during the past few years, well before, and ongoing. The 16 legislature intends the Lunar New Year to serve as a time to embrace 17 reflections and understanding as we look towards renewal.

18 NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 43.117
19 RCW to read as follows:

1 (1) The lunar new year of each year is designated as a time for 2 people of this state to celebrate Asian American culture and to 3 commemorate the contributions of Asian Americans to the history and 4 heritage of Washington state.

5 (2) The legislature encourages state governmental entities, local 6 governments, schools and institutions of higher education, and 7 cultural organizations to celebrate the lunar new year.

8 (3) The commission shall create lunar new year programming and 9 resources that these entities may use in planning and structuring
10 their celebrations.

11 (4) For purposes of this section, "the lunar new year" is the 12 date corresponding with the second new moon following the winter 13 solstice, or the third new moon following the winter solstice should 14 an intercalary month intervene.

15 Sec. 3. RCW 1.16.050 and 2023 c 387 s 3 and 2023 c 181 s 2 are 16 each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

17 (1) The following are state legal holidays:

18 (a) Sunday;

19 (b) The first day of January, commonly called New Year's Day;

20 (c) The third Monday of January, celebrated as the anniversary of 21 the birth of Martin Luther King, Jr.;

22 (d) The third Monday of February, to be known as Presidents' Day
23 and celebrated as the anniversary of the births of Abraham Lincoln
24 and George Washington;

25 (e) The last Monday of May, commonly known as Memorial Day;

26 (f) The nineteenth day of June, recognized as Juneteenth, a day
27 of remembrance for the day the African slaves learned of their 28 freedom;

30 Independence;

31 (h) The first Monday in September, to be known as Labor Day;

37 (l) The twenty-fifth day of December, commonly called Christmas 38 Day.

1 (2) Employees of the state and its political subdivisions, except 2 employees of school districts and except those nonclassified
3 employees of institutions of higher education who hold appointments
4 or are employed under contracts to perform services for periods of 5 less than twelve consecutive months, are entitled to one paid holiday
6 per calendar year in addition to those specified in this section.
7 Each employee of the state or its political subdivisions may select 8 the day on which the employee desires to take the additional holiday
9 provided for in this section after consultation with the employer
10 pursuant to guidelines to be promulgated by rule of the appropriate
11 personnel authority, or in the case of local government by ordinance
12 or resolution of the legislative authority.

13 (3) Employees of the state and its political subdivisions,
14 including employees of school districts and those nonclassified
15 employees of institutions of higher education who hold appointments
16 or are employed under contracts to perform services for periods of 17 less than twelve consecutive months, are entitled to two unpaid 18 holidays per calendar year for a reason of faith or conscience or an 19 organized activity conducted under the auspices of a religious

28 employee prefers to take the two unpaid holidays on specific days for 29 a reason of faith or conscience, or an organized activity conducted 30 under the auspices of a religious denomination, church, or religious 31 organization, the employer must allow the employee to do so unless 32 the employee's absence would impose an undue hardship on the employer
33 or the employee is necessary to maintain public safety. Undue 34 hardship shall have the meaning established in rule by the office of 35 financial management under RCW 43.41.109.

36 (4) If any of the state legal holidays specified in this section
37 are also federal legal holidays but observed on different dates, only 38 the state legal holidays are recognized as a paid legal holiday for 39 employees of the state and its political subdivisions. However, for 40 port districts and the law enforcement and public transit employees

1 of municipal corporations, either the federal or the state legal 2 holiday is recognized as a paid legal holiday, but in no case may 3 both holidays be recognized as a paid legal holiday for employees.

4 (5) Whenever any state legal holiday:

5 (a) Other than Sunday, falls upon a Sunday, the following Monday
6 is the legal holiday; or

7 (b) Falls upon a Saturday, the preceding Friday is the legal 8 holiday.

9 (6) Nothing in this section may be construed to have the effect
10 of adding or deleting the number of paid holidays provided for in an 11 agreement between employees and employers of political subdivisions 12 of the state or as established by ordinance or resolution of the 13 local government legislative authority.

14 (7) The legislature declares that the following days are
