EFFECT: (1) Restores provisions granting parents and guardians the right to receive notification when any medical service or medications have been provided to their child that could result in any financial impact to the parent's or legal guardian's health insurance payments or copays.

(2) Specifies that financial impacts to the parent or legal guardian's insurance payments or copays (that apply for the notification requirements) include potential financial impacts resulting from the student being:

- A protected individual under RCW 48.43.005(44)(a)(ii); or
- Permitted to issue consent on their own behalf:
 - o For the treatment of sexually transmitted diseases and avoiding the HIV infection;
 - o For evaluation and inpatient services for mental health treatment or substance use disorder treatment; or
 - o Subject to the mature minor doctrine.
