2 "The legislature also finds that the following responsibilities help
3 students develop a strong work ethic, build relationships, and
4 contribute to a positive school culture:

5 (a) Follow school rules and policies. Adhere to the rules
6 outlined by the school, including regulations about behavior,
7 attendance, and academic integrity;

8 (b) Respect others. Treat classmates, teachers, and staff with 9 respect, kindness, and fairness. This includes refraining from 10 bullying, harassment, or discrimination;

11 (c) Maintain a positive learning environment. Contribute to a
12 safe, supportive, and respectful classroom environment that allows
13 everyone to learn;

14 (d) Follow the dress code. Abide by the school's dress code or 15 uniform policy, if applicable, to maintain a neat and appropriate
16 appearance;

17 (e) Be punctual and attend school regularly. Arrive on time for 18 class and attend school regularly to stay on track with academic 19 progress;

20 (f) Complete assignments on time. Stay organized and submit
21 homework, projects, and assignments by their deadlines;

22 (g) Respect school property. Take care of school property and 23 materials, including classrooms, textbooks, computers, and furniture;

24 (h) Maintain academic integrity. Avoid cheating, plagiarism, or 25 any form of dishonesty in schoolwork and assessments.

26 (i) Take responsibility for actions. Accept accountability for 27 mistakes, actions, and decisions, and learn from them;

1 (j) Communicate appropriately. Use polite, respectful language
2 when speaking to others, both in-person and online for digital
3 communication such as email or school platforms;

4 (k) Engage in learning. Participate actively in class, ask
5 questions, seek help when needed, and strive to do your best
6 academically;

7 (l) Respect teachers and staff. Follow directions from teachers
8 and school staff members and treat them with respect and 9 consideration;

10 (m) Be prepared. Come to school and class with the necessary
11 materials (books, supplies, etc.), and be ready to learn;

12 (n) Practice good hygiene and personal care. Maintain cleanliness
13 and personal hygiene to create a comfortable environment for yourself
14 and others;

15 (o) Participate in group activities. Engage in group or team
16 activities, respecting the ideas and contributions of others;

17 (p) Use technology appropriately. Follow the school's guidelines
18 for technology use, including using devices for educational purposes
19 only; and

20 (q) Respect diversity. Treat with respect and kindness people
21 from different cultures, backgrounds, and perspectives.

22 (4)"
