3 rights over the usual and accustomed areas."

EFFECT:

- Removes federally recognized tribes with usual and accustomed areas within the jurisdiction of a district or local health board (Board) from the types of tribes who must be allowed a tribal representative to serve as a member on a Board.
- Requires Boards to engage in formal consultation with a tribe that has usual and accustomed areas within the Board's county or district if the Board is proposing to take action restricting access to, or impacting a tribe's ability to exercise its rights over, the usual and accustomed areas.
