By Representative Griffey

NOT CONSIDERED 04/27/2025

1 On page 30, after line 23 of the striking amendment, insert the
2 following:

3 "NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. A new section is added to chapter 43.280
4 RCW to read as follows:

5 (1) The office of crime victims advocacy shall contract with
6 prosecuting attorney offices to offer victim advocacy services to
7 support victims who are impacted by the review hearings under section
8 3(3) of this act.

9 (2) The victim advocacy services required under this section must 10 include:

11 (a) Legal advocacy regarding the review process under section 3(3)
12 of this act and how a victim may exercise their rights;

13 (b) Safety planning;

14 (c) Options to participate in a restorative justice program with 15 the person adjudicated of a juvenile offense; and

16 (d) Case management to address needs that may arise following the 17 release of a person adjudicated of a juvenile offense under section
18 3(3) of this act.

19 (3) The office of crime victims advocacy may contract with an
20 entity with experience in victim services to provide training
21 regarding safety planning and other case management services for 22 victim advocates described under this section."

23

24 Renumber the remaining section consecutively and correct any 25 internal references accordingly.

27

EFFECT: Requires the Office of Crime Victims Advocacy (OCVA) to contract with prosecuting attorney offices to offer victim advocacy services to support victims who are impacted by the review hearings that consider the possible release of individuals committed to the Department of Children, Youth, and Families.

Allows the OCVA to contract with an entity with experience in victim services to provide training regarding safety planning and other case management services for victim advocates serving victims impacted by the underlying striking amendment.
