Sponsors: Representative Wylie; by request of Liquor and Cannabis Board.

Hearing Date: 1/28/25

Background:

Medical Cannabis Authorization Database.

The medical cannabis authorization database (database) is maintained by the Department of Health (DOH). Medical cannabis patients or designated providers who have a valid authorization may choose to join the database and receive a recognition card. The recognition card includes the qualifying patient or designated provider's photograph, the amount of cannabis products and plants the cardholder may possess, the name of the health care professional who authorized the qualifying patient or designated provider, and other relevant information. The database is a secure system and state law limits who can view database information and how that information can be used. The Liquor and Cannabis Board may receive aggregate data reports to verify eligibility for tax exemptions.

Washington have a 37 percent cannabis excise tax added to the selling price. This tax is separate and in addition to general state and local sales and use taxes that apply to retail sales of tangible personal property, and is not part of the total retail price to which general state and local sales and use taxes apply. The tax must be reflected in the price list or quoted shelf price in the licensed cannabis retail store and in any advertising that includes prices for all cannabis products. All revenues collected from the cannabis excise tax must be deposited each day in the Dedicated Cannabis Account.

Qualifying patients and designated providers who have opted to participate in the database and are issued a recognition card are exempt from both the sales and use taxes and the cannabis excise tax on purchases of cannabis products sold by retailers with a medical cannabis endorsement and for products identified by the DOH as being a compliant cannabis product. This exemption from the cannabis excise tax expires on June 30, 2029.
