8 and maintain a civilian-staffed crisis response team operating 9 outside of a general authority Washington law enforcement agency.

10 (2) The crisis response team is authorized to serve as the 11 primary response to 911 calls or on-view events when there is no 12 report of active or imminent violence or possession of weapons and 13 when the calls or events are regarding:

14 (a) A person in crisis with no request for law enforcement;

15 (b) A person who appears to need, or is reported to need, a 16 safety and welfare check; or

17 (c) A request by a member of the public for resources including, 18 but not limited to, shelter, food, or transportation.

19 (3) For calls not included in subsection (2) of this section, the 20 crisis response team may also serve as a secondary response in

1 support of a law enforcement response as determined by the executive 2 head of the city.

3 (4) The executive head of the city will set minimum 4 qualifications for crisis responders that must include training in 5 scene safety, de-escalation, and interacting with individuals in 6 crisis.

7 (5) The executive head of the city may determine the 8 characteristics of the crisis response team including, but not 9 limited to:

10 (a) The department in which the crisis response team is situated;

11 (b) The number of staff assigned to the crisis response team and

13 qualifications set forth in subsection (4) of this section;

14 (c) The deployable areas and hours of operation; and

15 (d) The specific types of calls in which primary 911 dispatch is 16 appropriate, consistent with the criteria set forth in subsection (2)

19 enforcement personnel with an effective date on or after January 1, 20 2026, any provision in conflict with this section is preempted and is 21 unenforceable. A city covered by this section is prohibited from 22 collectively bargaining with a bargaining unit representing law
23 enforcement personnel in regard to the transfer of the 911 response
24 duties in subsection (2) of this section to a civilian-staffed crisis 25 response team.

26 (7) Any provision in a collective bargaining agreement covering 27 law enforcement personnel with an effective date prior to January 1, 28 2026, that conflicts with this section or limits a city's ability to 29 fully comply with this section may not be extended or renewed beyond 30 the expiration date of the collective bargaining agreement.

31 (8) Notwithstanding the provisions of chapter 41.56 RCW, a city
32 covered by this section is prohibited from collectively bargaining 33 with a bargaining unit representing law enforcement personnel in 34 regard to any decisions made by the executive head of a city pursuant 35 to subsections (3), (4), and (5) of this section. However, to the 36 extent such decisions impact the wages, hours, and other working 37 conditions of law enforcement personnel, such impacts are subject to 38 collective bargaining to the extent required by chapter 41.56 RCW.
