State of Washington

69th Legislature

2025 Regular Session

By Senate Law & Justice (originally sponsored by Senators Salomon, Cortes, Dhingra, and Hasegawa)

READ FIRST TIME 01/24/25.

1 AN ACT Relating to ensuring the efficacy of judicial orders as 2 harm reduction tools that increase the safety of survivors of abuse 3 and support law enforcement in their efforts to enforce the law;
4 amending RCW 7.105.105, 7.105.405, 7.105.500, and 9.41.040; 5 reenacting and amending RCW 7.105.310; and adding a new section to 6 chapter 7.105 RCW.

7 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

8 Sec. 1. RCW 7.105.105 and 2022 c 268 s 6 are each amended to 9 read as follows:

10 The following apply to all petitions for protection orders under 11 this chapter.

12 (1) (a) (~~By January 1, 2023, county~~) County clerks on behalf of 13 all superior courts and, by January 1, 2026, all courts of limited 14 jurisdiction, must permit petitions for protection orders and all 15 other filings in connection with the petition to be submitted as 16 preferred by the petitioner either: (i) In person; (ii) remotely 17 through an electronic submission process; or (iii) by mail for 18 persons who are incarcerated or who are otherwise unable to file in 19 person or remotely through an electronic system. The court or clerk 20 must make available electronically to judicial officers any 21 protection orders filed within the state. Judicial officers may not

1 be charged for access to such documents. The electronic submission 2 system must allow for petitions for protection orders and supportive 3 documents to be submitted at any time of the day. When a petition and 4 supporting documents for a protection order are submitted to the 5 clerk after business hours, they must be processed as soon as 6 possible on the next judicial day. Petitioners and respondents should 7 not incur additional charges for electronic submission for petitions 8 and documents filed pursuant to this section.

9 (b) (~~By January 1, 2023, all~~) All superior courts' systems and, 10 by January 1, 2026, all limited jurisdiction courts' systems, should 11 allow for the petitioner to electronically track the progress of the 12 petition for a protection order. Notification may be provided by text 13 messaging or email, and should provide reminders of court appearances 14 and alert the petitioner when the following occur: (i) The petition 15 has been processed and is under review by a judicial officer; (ii) 16 the order has been signed; (iii) the order has been transmitted to 17 law enforcement for entry into the Washington crime information 18 center system; (iv) proof of service upon the respondent has been 19 filed with the court or clerk; (v) a receipt for the surrender of 20 firearms has been filed with the court or clerk; and (vi) the 21 respondent has filed a motion for the release of surrendered 22 firearms. Respondents, once served, should be able to sign up for 23 similar electronic notification. Petitioners and respondents should 24 not be charged for electronic notification.

25 (2) The petition must be accompanied by a confidential document 26 to be used by ~~(the)~~ courts ~~(and)~~, law enforcement, and 27 prosecutors' offices to fully identify the parties ~~(and)~~; serve the 28 respondent; enable notification of victims or protected persons; or 29 otherwise fulfill the identification, service, enforcement, and 30 notification requirements of chapter 9.41, 36.28A, or 2.56 RCW or 31 this chapter. This record will be exempt from public disclosure at 32 all times, and restricted access to this form is governed by general 33 rule 22 provisions governing access to the confidential information 34 form. If the confidential information form is wrongfully disclosed, 35 the court shall issue a protective order on the court's own 36 initiative, or upon notice of the disclosure, and if necessary, order 37 sealing under applicable law. The petitioner is required to fill out 38 the confidential party information form to the petitioner's fullest 39 ability. The respondent should be provided a blank confidential party 40 information form at the time of service, and when the respondent

1 first appears, the respondent must confirm with the court the 2 respondent's identifying and current contact information, including 3 electronic means of contact, and file this with the court.

4 (3) A petition must be accompanied by a declaration signed under 5 penalty of perjury stating the specific facts and circumstances for 6 which relief is sought. Parties, attorneys, and witnesses may 7 electronically sign sworn statements in all filings.

8 (4) The petitioner and the respondent must disclose the existence 9 of any other litigation or of any other restraining, protection, or 10 no-contact orders between the parties, to the extent that such 11 information is known by the petitioner and the respondent. To the 12 extent possible, the court shall take judicial notice of any existing 13 restraining, protection, or no-contact orders between the parties 14 before entering a protection order. The court shall not include 15 provisions in a protection order that would allow the respondent to 16 engage in conduct that is prohibited by another restraining, 17 protection, or no-contact order between the parties that was entered 18 in a different proceeding. The obligation to disclose the existence 19 of any other litigation includes, but is not limited to, the 20 existence of any other litigation concerning the custody or 21 residential placement of a child of the parties as set forth in RCW 22 26.27.281. The court administrator shall verify for the court the 23 terms of any existing protection order governing the parties.

24 (5) The petition may be made regardless of whether or not there 25 is a pending lawsuit, complaint, petition, or other action between 26 the parties, except in cases where the court has realigned the 27 parties in accordance with RCW 7.105.210.

28 (6) Relief under this chapter must not be denied or delayed on 29 the grounds that the relief is available in another action. The court 30 shall not defer acting on a petition for a protection order nor grant 31 a petitioner less than the full relief that the petitioner is 32 otherwise entitled to under this chapter because there is, or could 33 be, another proceeding involving the parties including, but not 34 limited to, any potential or pending family law matter or criminal 35 matter.

36 (7) A person's right to petition for relief under this chapter is 37 not affected by the person leaving his or her residence or household.

38 (8) A petitioner is not required to post a bond to obtain relief 39 in any proceeding for a protection order.

1 (9) (a) No fees for service of process may be charged by a court 2 or any public agency to petitioners seeking relief under this 3 chapter. Except as provided in (b) of this subsection, courts may not 4 charge petitioners any fees or surcharges the payment of which is a 5 condition precedent to the petitioner's ability to secure access to 6 relief under this chapter. Petitioners shall be provided the 7 necessary number of certified copies, forms, and instructional 8 brochures free of charge, including a copy of the service packet that 9 consists of all documents that are being served on the respondent. A 10 respondent who is served electronically with a protection order shall 11 be provided a certified copy of the order free of charge upon 12 request.

13 (b) A filing fee may be charged for a petition for an 14 antiharassment protection order except as follows:

15 (i) No filing fee may be charged to a petitioner seeking an 16 antiharassment protection order against a person who has engaged in 17 acts of stalking as defined in RCW 9A.46.110, a hate crime under RCW 18 9A.36.080(1)(c), or a single act of violence or threat of violence 19 under RCW 7.105.010(~~(36)~~) (37)(b), or from a person who has engaged 20 in nonconsensual sexual conduct or penetration or conduct that would 21 constitute a sex offense as defined in RCW 9A.44.128, or from a 22 person who is a family or household member or intimate partner who 23 has engaged in conduct that would constitute domestic violence; and 24 (ii) The court shall waive the filing fee if the court determines 25 the petitioner is not able to pay the costs of filing.

26 (10) If the petition states that disclosure of the petitioner's 27 address or other identifying location information would risk harm to 28 the petitioner or any member of the petitioner's family or household, 29 that address may be omitted from all documents filed with the court.
30 If the petitioner has not disclosed an address under this subsection, 31 the petitioner shall designate an alternative address or email
32 address at which the respondent may serve the petitioner.

33 (11) Subject to the availability of amounts appropriated for this 34 specific purpose, or as provided through alternative sources 35 including, but not limited to, grants, local funding, or pro bono 36 means, if the court deems it necessary, the court may appoint a 37 guardian ad litem for a petitioner or a respondent who is under 18
38 years of age and who is not represented by counsel. If a guardian ad 39 litem is appointed by the court for either or both parties, neither

1 the petitioner nor the respondent shall be required by the court to 2 pay any costs associated with the appointment.

3 (12) If a petitioner has requested an ex parte temporary 4 protection order, because these are often emergent situations, the 5 court shall prioritize review, either entering an order without a 6 hearing or scheduling and holding an ex parte hearing in person, by 7 telephone, by video, or by other electronic means on the day the 8 petition is filed if possible. Otherwise, it must be heard no later 9 than the following judicial day. The clerk shall ensure that the 10 request for an ex parte temporary protection order is presented 11 timely to a judicial officer, and signed orders will be returned 12 promptly to the clerk for entry and to the petitioner as specified in 13 this section.

14 (13) Courts shall not require a petitioner to file duplicative 15 forms.

16 (14) The Indian child welfare act applies in the following 17 manner.

18 (a) In a proceeding under this chapter where the petitioner seeks 19 to protect a minor and the petitioner is not the minor's parent as 20 defined by RCW 13.38.040, the petition must contain a statement 21 alleging whether the minor is or may be an Indian child as defined in 22 RCW 13.38.040. If the minor is an Indian child, chapter 13.38 RCW and 23 the federal Indian child welfare act, 25 U.S.C. Sec. 1901 et seq., 24 shall apply. A party should allege in the petition if these laws have 25 been satisfied in a prior proceeding and identify the proceeding.

26 (b) Every order entered in any proceeding under this chapter 27 where the petitioner is not a parent of the minor or minors protected 28 by the order must contain a finding that the federal Indian child 29 welfare act or chapter 13.38 RCW does or does not apply, or if there 30 is insufficient information to make a determination, the court must 31 make a finding that a determination must be made before a full 32 protection order may be entered. If there is reason to know the child 33 is an Indian child, but the court does not have sufficient evidence 34 to determine that the child is or is not an Indian child, 25 C.F.R.
35 Sec. 23.107(b) applies. Where there is a finding that the federal 36 Indian child welfare act or chapter 13.38 RCW does apply, the order 37 must also contain a finding that all notice, evidentiary 38 requirements, and placement preferences under the federal Indian 39 child welfare act and chapter 13.38 RCW have been satisfied, or a 40 finding that removal or placement of the child is necessary to

1 prevent imminent physical damage or harm to the child pursuant to 25 2 U.S.C. Sec. 1922 and RCW 13.38.140. Where there is a finding that the 3 federal Indian child welfare act or chapter 13.38 RCW does not apply, 4 the order must also contain a finding as to why there is no reason to 5 know the child may be an Indian child.

6 Sec. 2. RCW 7.105.310 and 2022 c 268 s 17 and 2022 c 231 s 9 are 7 each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

8 (1) In issuing any type of protection order, other than an ex 9 parte temporary antiharassment protection order as limited by 10 subsection (2) of this section, and other than an extreme risk 11 protection order, the court shall have broad discretion to grant such 12 relief as the court deems proper, including an order that provides 13 relief as follows:

14 (a) Restrain the respondent from committing any of the following 15 acts against the petitioner and other persons protected by the order:
16 Domestic violence; nonconsensual sexual conduct or nonconsensual 17 sexual penetration; sexual abuse; stalking; acts of abandonment, 18 abuse, neglect, or financial exploitation against a vulnerable adult; 19 and unlawful harassment;

20 (b) Restrain the respondent from making any attempts to have 21 contact, including nonphysical contact, with the petitioner or the 22 petitioner's family or household members who are minors or other 23 members of the petitioner's household, either directly, indirectly, 24 or through third parties regardless of whether those third parties 25 know of the order;

26 (c) Exclude the respondent from the residence that the parties 27 share;

28 (d) Exclude the respondent from the residence, workplace, or 29 school of the petitioner; or from the day care or school of a minor 30 child;

31 (e) Restrain the respondent from knowingly coming within, or 32 knowingly remaining within, a specified distance from a specified 33 location including, but not limited to, a residence, school, day 34 care, workplace, the protected party's person, and the protected 35 party's vehicle. The specified distance shall presumptively be at 36 least 1,000 feet, unless the court for good cause finds that a 37 shorter specified distance is appropriate;

38 (f) If the parties have children in common, make residential 39 provisions with regard to their minor children on the same basis as

1 is provided in chapter 26.09 RCW. However, parenting plans as 2 specified in chapter 26.09 RCW must not be required under this 3 chapter. The court may not delay or defer relief under this chapter 4 on the grounds that the parties could seek a parenting plan or 5 modification to a parenting plan in a different action. A protection 6 order must not be denied on the grounds that the parties have an 7 existing parenting plan in effect. A protection order may suspend the 8 respondent's contact with the parties' children under an existing 9 parenting plan, subject to further orders in a family law proceeding;

10 (g) Order the respondent to participate in a state-certified
11 domestic violence perpetrator treatment program approved under RCW
12 43.20A.735 or a state-certified sex offender treatment program
13 approved under RCW 18.155.070;

14 (h) Order the respondent to obtain a mental health or chemical 15 dependency evaluation. If the court determines that a mental health 16 evaluation is necessary, the court shall clearly document the reason 17 for this determination and provide a specific question or questions 18 to be answered by the mental health professional. The court shall 19 consider the ability of the respondent to pay for an evaluation.
20 Minors are presumed to be unable to pay. The parent or legal guardian 21 is responsible for costs unless the parent or legal guardian 22 demonstrates inability to pay;

23 (i) In cases where the petitioner and the respondent are students 24 who attend the same public or private elementary, middle, or high 25 school, the court, when issuing a protection order and providing 26 relief, shall consider, among the other facts of the case, the 27 severity of the act, any continuing physical danger, emotional 28 distress, or educational disruption to the petitioner, and the 29 financial difficulty and educational disruption that would be caused 30 by a transfer of the respondent to another school. The court may 31 order that the respondent not attend the public or private 32 elementary, middle, or high school attended by the petitioner. If a 33 minor respondent is prohibited attendance at the minor's assigned 34 public school, the school district must provide the student 35 comparable educational services in another setting. In such a case, 36 the district shall provide transportation at no cost to the 37 respondent if the respondent's parent or legal guardian is unable to 38 pay for transportation. The district shall put in place any needed 39 supports to ensure successful transition to the new school 40 environment. The court shall send notice of the restriction on

1 attending the same school as the petitioner to the public or private 2 school the respondent will attend and to the school the petitioner 3 attends;

4 (j) Require the respondent to pay the administrative court costs
5 and service fees, as established by the county or municipality
6 incurring the expense, and to reimburse the petitioner for costs 7 incurred in bringing the action, including reasonable attorneys' fees 8 or limited license legal technician fees when such fees are incurred 9 by a person licensed and practicing in accordance with state supreme 10 court admission and practice rule 28, the limited practice rule for 11 limited license legal technicians. Minors are presumed to be unable 12 to pay. The parent or legal guardian is responsible for costs unless 13 the parent or legal guardian demonstrates inability to pay;

14 (k) Restrain the respondent from harassing, following, 15 monitoring, keeping under physical or electronic surveillance, cyber 16 harassment as defined in RCW 9A.90.120, and using telephonic, 17 audiovisual, or other electronic means to monitor the actions,
18 location, or communication of the petitioner or the petitioner's 19 family or household members who are minors or other members of the 20 petitioner's household. For the purposes of this subsection, 21 "communication" includes both "wire communication" and "electronic 22 communication" as defined in RCW 9.73.260;

23 (l) Other than for respondents who are minors, require the 24 respondent to submit to electronic monitoring. The order must specify 25 who shall provide the electronic monitoring services and the terms 26 under which the monitoring must be performed. The order also may 27 include a requirement that the respondent pay the costs of the 28 monitoring. The court shall consider the ability of the respondent to 29 pay for electronic monitoring;

30 (m) Consider the provisions of RCW 9.41.800, and order the 31 respondent to surrender, and prohibit the respondent from accessing, 32 having in his or her custody or control, possessing, purchasing, 33 attempting to purchase or receive, or receiving, all firearms, 34 dangerous weapons, and any concealed pistol license, as required in 35 RCW 9.41.800;

36 (n) Order possession and use of essential personal effects. The 37 court shall list the essential personal effects with sufficient 38 specificity to make it clear which property is included. Personal 39 effects may include pets. The court may order that a petitioner be 40 granted the exclusive custody or control of any pet owned, possessed,

1 leased, kept, or held by the petitioner, respondent, or minor child 2 residing with either the petitioner or respondent, and may prohibit 3 the respondent from interfering with the petitioner's efforts to 4 obtain the pet. The court may also prohibit the respondent from 5 knowingly coming within, or knowingly remaining within, a specified 6 distance of specified locations where the pet is regularly found;

7 (o) Order use of a vehicle;

8 (p) Enter an order restricting the respondent from engaging in 9 abusive litigation as set forth in chapter 26.51 RCW or in frivolous 10 filings against the petitioner, making harassing or libelous
11 communications about the petitioner to third parties, or making false 12 reports to investigative agencies. A petitioner may request this 13 relief in the petition or by separate motion. A petitioner may 14 request this relief by separate motion at any time within five years 15 of the date the protection order is entered even if the order has 16 since expired. A stand-alone motion for an order restricting abusive 17 litigation may be brought by a party who meets the requirements of 18 chapter 26.51 RCW regardless of whether the party has previously 19 sought a protection order under this chapter, provided the motion is 20 made within five years of the date the order that made a finding of 21 domestic violence was entered. In cases where a finding of domestic 22 violence was entered pursuant to an order under chapter 26.09, 26.26, 23 or 26.26A RCW, a motion for an order restricting abusive litigation 24 may be brought under the family law case or as a stand-alone action 25 filed under this chapter, when it is not reasonable or practical to 26 file under the family law case;

27 (q) Restrain the respondent from committing acts of abandonment, 28 abuse, neglect, or financial exploitation against a vulnerable adult;

29 (r) Require an accounting by the respondent of the disposition of 30 the vulnerable adult's income or other resources;

31 (s) Restrain the transfer of either the respondent's or 32 vulnerable adult's property, or both, for a specified period not 33 exceeding 90 days;

34 (t) Order financial relief and restrain the transfer of jointly 35 owned assets;

36 (u) Restrain the respondent from possessing or distributing 37 intimate images, as defined in RCW 9A.86.010, depicting the 38 petitioner including, but not limited to, requiring the respondent 39 to: Take down and delete all intimate images and recordings of the 40 petitioner in the respondent's possession or control; and cease any

1 and all disclosure of those intimate images. The court may also 2 inform the respondent that it would be appropriate to ask third 3 parties in possession or control of the intimate images of this 4 protection order to take down and delete the intimate images so that 5 the order may not inadvertently be violated; or

6 (v) Order other relief as it deems necessary for the protection 7 of the petitioner and other family or household members who are 8 minors or vulnerable adults for whom the petitioner has sought 9 protection, including orders or directives to a law enforcement 10 officer, as allowed under this chapter.

11 (2) In an antiharassment protection order proceeding, the court 12 may grant the relief specified in subsection (1)(c), (f), and (t) of 13 this section only as part of a full antiharassment protection order.

14 (3) The court in granting a temporary antiharassment protection 15 order or a civil antiharassment protection order shall not prohibit 16 the respondent from exercising constitutionally protected free 17 speech. Nothing in this section prohibits the petitioner from 18 utilizing other civil or criminal remedies to restrain conduct or 19 communications not otherwise constitutionally protected.

20 (4) The court shall not take any of the following actions in 21 issuing a protection order.

22 (a) The court may not order the petitioner to obtain services 23 including, but not limited to, drug testing, victim support services, 24 a mental health assessment, or a psychological evaluation.

25 (b) The court shall not issue a full protection order to any 26 party except upon notice to the respondent and the opportunity for a 27 hearing pursuant to a petition or counter-petition filed and served 28 by the party seeking relief in accordance with this chapter. Except 29 as provided in RCW 7.105.210, the court shall not issue a temporary 30 protection order to any party unless the party has filed a petition 31 or counter-petition for a protection order seeking relief in 32 accordance with this chapter.

33 (c) Under no circumstances shall the court deny the petitioner
34 the type of protection order sought in the petition on the grounds 35 that the court finds that a different type of protection order would 36 have a less severe impact on the respondent.

37 (5) The order shall specify the date the order expires, if any.
38 For permanent orders, the court shall set the date to expire 99 years 39 from the issuance date. The order shall also state whether the court 40 issued the protection order following personal service, service by

1 electronic means, service by mail, or service by publication, and 2 whether the court has approved service by mail or publication of an 3 order issued under this section.

4 (6) Issuing mutual full protection orders of any type is 5 disfavored.

6 Sec. 3. RCW 7.105.405 and 2024 c 298 s 13 are each amended to 7 read as follows:

8 The following provisions apply to the renewal of all full 9 protection orders issued under this chapter, with the exception of 10 the renewal of extreme risk protection orders.

11 (1) If the court grants a protection order for a fixed time 12 period, the petitioner or protected party may file a motion to renew 13 the order at any time within the 90 days before the order expires. A 14 minor who is or was previously protected by a protection order who 15 has reached the age of 18 may petition for renewal of the order as 16 the petitioner pursuant to subsection (10) of this section. The 17 motion for renewal must state the reasons the petitioner seeks to 18 renew the protection order. Upon receipt of a motion for renewal, the 19 court shall order a hearing, which must be not later than 14 days 20 from the date of the order. Service must be made on the respondent 21 not less than five judicial days before the hearing, as provided in 22 RCW 7.105.150.

23 (2) If the motion for renewal is uncontested and the petitioner 24 seeks no modification of the order, the order may be renewed on the 25 basis of the petitioner's motion and statement of the reason for the 26 requested renewal.

27 (3) The petitioner bears no burden of proving that he or she has 28 a current reasonable fear of harm by the respondent.

29 (4) The court shall grant the motion for renewal unless the 30 respondent proves by a preponderance of the evidence that there has 31 been a substantial change in circumstances and the following:

32 (a) For a domestic violence protection order, that the respondent
33 proves that the respondent will not resume acts of domestic violence 34 against the petitioner or the petitioner's family or household 35 members who are minors or vulnerable adults when the order expires;

36 (b) For a sexual assault protection order, that the respondent 37 proves that the respondent will not engage in, or attempt to engage 38 in, physical or nonphysical contact, or acts of commercial sexual 39 exploitation, with the petitioner when the order expires;

1 (c) For a stalking protection order, that the respondent proves 2 that the respondent will not resume acts of stalking against the 3 petitioner or the petitioner's family or household members when the 4 order expires;

5 (d) For a vulnerable adult protection order, that the respondent 6 proves that the respondent will not resume acts of abandonment, 7 abuse, financial exploitation, or neglect against the vulnerable 8 adult when the order expires; or

9 (e) For an antiharassment protection order, that the respondent 10 proves that the respondent will not resume harassment of the 11 petitioner when the order expires.

12 (5) In determining whether there has been a substantial change in 13 circumstances, the court may consider the following unweighted
14 factors, and no inference is to be drawn from the order in which the 15 factors are listed:

16 (a) Whether the respondent has committed or threatened sexual 17 assault; commercial sexual exploitation; domestic violence; stalking;
18 abandonment, abuse, financial exploitation, or neglect of a 19 vulnerable adult; or other harmful acts against the petitioner or any 20 other person since the protection order was entered;

21 (b) Whether the respondent has violated the terms of the 22 protection order and the time that has passed since the entry of the 23 order;

24 (c) Whether the respondent has exhibited suicidal ideation or 25 attempts since the protection order was entered;

26 (d) Whether the respondent has been convicted of criminal 27 activity since the protection order was entered;

28 (e) Whether the respondent has either: Acknowledged 29 responsibility for acts of sexual assault, commercial sexual 30 exploitation, domestic violence, or stalking, or acts of abandonment, 31 abuse, financial exploitation, or neglect of a vulnerable adult, or 32 behavior that resulted in the entry of the protection order; or 33 successfully completed state-certified perpetrator treatment or 34 counseling since the protection order was entered;

35 (f) Whether the respondent has a continuing involvement with drug 36 or alcohol abuse, if such abuse was a factor in the protection order; 37 and

38 (g) Other factors relating to a substantial change in 39 circumstances.

1 (6) The court shall not deny a motion to renew a protection order 2 for any of the following reasons:

3 (a) The respondent has not violated the protection order 4 previously issued by the court;

5 (b) The petitioner or the respondent is a minor;

6 (c) The petitioner did not report the conduct giving rise to the 7 protection order, or subsequent violations of the protection order, 8 to law enforcement;

9 (d) A no-contact order or a restraining order that restrains the 10 respondent's contact with the petitioner has been issued in a 11 criminal proceeding or in a domestic relations proceeding;

12 (e) The relief sought by the petitioner may be available in a 13 different action or proceeding;

14 (f) The passage of time since the last incident of conduct giving 15 rise to the issuance of the protection order; or 16 (g) The respondent no longer lives near the petitioner.

17 (7) The terms of the original protection order must not be 18 changed on a motion for renewal unless the petitioner has requested 19 the change.

20 (8) The court may renew the protection order for another fixed 21 time period of no less than one year, or may enter a permanent order 22 as provided in this section.

23 (9) If the protection order includes the parties' children, a 24 renewed protection order may be issued for more than one year, 25 subject to subsequent orders entered in a proceeding under chapter 26 26.09, 26.26A, or 26.26B RCW.

27 (10)(a) If a minor who is protected by a protection order reaches 28 the age of 18 while the order is still in effect, the minor may file 29 a motion for a renewal of the order as the petitioner.

30 (b) If a minor who was previously protected by a protection order 31 reaches the age of 18 after the order has expired, the minor has up 32 to one year from the date of expiration of the order to petition for 33 renewal of the order as the petitioner. The petitioner may, but is 34 not required to, allege new facts and circumstances for which relief 35 is sought that occurred after the order that protected the petitioner 36 as a minor has expired.

37 (c) The clerk shall issue a new cause number for renewals granted 38 under this subsection and shall include the previously ordered 39 protection order and petition for renewal in the new case file.

1 (11) The court may award court costs, service fees, and 2 reasonable attorneys' fees to the petitioner as provided in RCW 3 7.105.310.

4 (~~(11)~~) (12) If the court declines to renew the protection 5 order, the court shall state, in writing in the order, the particular 6 reasons for the court's denial. If the court declines to renew a 7 protection order that had restrained the respondent from having 8 contact with children protected by the order, the court shall 9 determine on the record whether the respondent and the children
10 should undergo reunification therapy. Any reunification therapy 11 provider should be made aware of the respondent's history of domestic 12 violence and should have training and experience in the dynamics of 13 intimate partner violence.

14 (~~(12)~~) (13) In determining whether there has been a substantial 15 change in circumstances for respondents under the age of 18, or in 16 determining the appropriate duration for an order, the court shall 17 consider the circumstances surrounding the respondent's youth at the 18 time of the initial behavior alleged in the petition for a protection 19 order. The court shall consider developmental factors, including the 20 impact of time of a youth's development, and any information the 21 minor respondent presents about his or her personal progress or 22 change in circumstances.

23 Sec. 4. RCW 7.105.500 and 2024 c 298 s 14 are each amended to 24 read as follows:

25 This section applies to modification or termination of domestic 26 violence protection orders, sexual assault protection orders, 27 stalking protection orders, and antiharassment protection orders.

28 (1) Upon a motion with notice to all parties and after a hearing, 29 the court may modify the terms of an existing protection order or 30 terminate an existing order.

31 (2) A respondent's motion to modify or terminate an existing 32 protection order must include a declaration setting forth facts 33 supporting the requested order for modification or termination. The 34 nonmoving parties to the proceeding may file opposing declarations.
35 All motions to modify or terminate shall be based on the written 36 materials and evidence submitted to the court. The court shall set a 37 hearing only if the court finds that adequate cause is established.
38 If the court finds that the respondent established adequate cause, 39 the court shall set a date for hearing the respondent's motion, which

1 must be at least 14 days from the date the court finds adequate 2 cause.

3 (3) Upon the motion of a respondent, the court may not modify or 4 terminate an existing protection order unless the respondent proves 5 by a preponderance of the evidence that there has been a substantial 6 change in circumstances such that the respondent will not resume, 7 engage in, or attempt to engage in, the following acts against the 8 petitioner or those persons protected by the protection order if the 9 order is terminated or modified:

10 (a) Acts of domestic violence, in cases involving domestic 11 violence protection orders;

12 (b) Physical or nonphysical contact, or acts of commercial sexual 13 exploitation, in cases involving sexual assault protection orders;

14 (c) Acts of stalking, in cases involving stalking protection 15 orders; or

16 (d) Acts of unlawful harassment, in cases involving 17 antiharassment protection orders.

18 The petitioner bears no burden of proving that he or she has a 19 current reasonable fear of harm by the respondent.

20 (4) In determining whether there has been a substantial change in 21 circumstances, the court may consider the following unweighted
22 factors, and no inference is to be drawn from the order in which the 23 factors are listed:

24 (a) Whether the respondent has committed or threatened sexual 25 assault, commercial sexual exploitation, domestic violence, stalking, 26 or other harmful acts against the petitioner or any other person 27 since the protection order was entered;

28 (b) Whether the respondent has violated the terms of the 29 protection order and the time that has passed since the entry of the 30 order;

31 (c) Whether the respondent has exhibited suicidal ideation or 32 attempts since the protection order was entered;

33 (d) Whether the respondent has been convicted of criminal
34 activity since the protection order was entered;

35 (e) Whether the respondent has either acknowledged responsibility 36 for acts of sexual assault, commercial sexual exploitation, domestic 37 violence, stalking, or behavior that resulted in the entry of the 38 protection order, or successfully completed state-certified 39 perpetrator treatment or counseling since the protection order was 40 entered;

1 (f) Whether the respondent has a continuing involvement with drug
2 or alcohol abuse, if such abuse was a factor in the protection order;

3 (g) Whether the petitioner consents to terminating the protection 4 order, provided that consent is given voluntarily and knowingly; or

5 (h) Other factors relating to a substantial change in 6 circumstances.

7 (5) In determining whether there has been a substantial change in 8 circumstances, the court may not base its determination on the fact 9 that time has passed without a violation of the order.

10 (6) Regardless of whether there is a substantial change in 11 circumstances, the court may decline to terminate a protection order 12 if it finds that the acts of domestic violence, sexual assault, 13 commercial sexual exploitation, stalking, unlawful harassment, and 14 other harmful acts that resulted in the issuance of the protection 15 order were of such severity that the order should not be terminated.

16 (7) A respondent may file a motion to modify or terminate an 17 order no more than once in every 12-month period that the order is in 18 effect, starting from the date of the order and continuing through 19 any renewal period.

20 (8) If a person who is protected by a protection order has a 21 child or adopts a child after a protection order has been issued, but 22 before the protection order has expired, the petitioner may seek to 23 include the new child in the order of protection on an ex parte basis 24 if the child is already in the physical custody of the petitioner. If 25 the restrained person is the legal or biological parent of the child, 26 a hearing must be set and notice given to the restrained person prior 27 to final modification of the full protection order.

28 (9) A court may require the respondent to pay the petitioner for 29 costs incurred in responding to a motion to modify or terminate a 30 protection order, including reasonable attorneys' fees.

31 (10) A protected party may file a motion to terminate or modify 32 an ex parte order without notice to the respondent if the respondent
33 has not yet been served. For all other modifications or terminations 34 of ex parte protection orders, a motion must be filed with notice
35 given to all parties. A restrained person cannot modify or terminate 36 an ex parte protection order without notice to the protected party.

37 (11) Judicial officers presiding over full hearings who are 38 reissuing temporary orders per RCW 7.105.200 may modify the terms of 39 the ex parte order to remedy an error or based on the facts of the 40 case.

35 person convicted or found not guilty by reason of insanity of an 36 offense prohibiting the possession of a firearm under this section 37 other than murder, manslaughter, robbery, rape, indecent liberties, 38 arson, assault, kidnapping, extortion, burglary, or violations with 39 respect to controlled substances under RCW 69.50.401 and 69.50.410, 40 who received a probationary sentence under RCW 9.95.200, and who

1 received a dismissal of the charge under RCW 9.95.240, shall not be 2 precluded from possession of a firearm as a result of the conviction 3 or finding of not guilty by reason of insanity.

4 (5) In addition to any other penalty provided for by law, if a

7 (2) of this section or to have committed an offense while armed with 8 a firearm during which offense a motor vehicle served an integral 9 function, the court shall notify the department of licensing within

15 (6) Nothing in chapter 129, Laws of 1995 shall ever be construed 16 or interpreted as preventing an offender from being charged and 18 firearm or possession of a stolen firearm, or both, in addition to 19 being charged and subsequently convicted under this section for 20 unlawful possession of a firearm in the first or second degree.

21 Notwithstanding any other law, if the offender is convicted under 22 this section for unlawful possession of a firearm in the first or 25 serve consecutive sentences for each of the felony crimes of 26 conviction listed in this subsection.

27 (7)(a) A person, whether an adult or a juvenile, commits the 28 civil infraction of unlawful possession of a firearm if the person
