
SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL 6117

State of Washington

69th Legislature

2026 Regular Session

By Senate Labor & Commerce (originally sponsored by Senators Saldaña, Conway, Alvarado, Hasegawa, Nobles, Stanford, and Valdez)

READ FIRST TIME 02/02/26.

1 AN ACT Relating to collective bargaining for employees not 2 covered by the national labor relations act; amending RCW 49.32.020
3 and 5.60.060; and adding a new chapter to Title 49 RCW.

4 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

5 NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. Access to the collective and individual 6 protections afforded by established federal labor laws, as well as 7 ensuring stable, effective, and efficient labor-management relations, 8 is a vital state interest that has critical benefits to the state's 9 economic and social development. Should there be an absence of 10 applicable law setting forth the rights and obligations of parties 11 engaged in private sector labor-management relations, as well as 12 procedures for the enforcement of the same, the resulting loss of the 13 benefits of collective bargaining to the economy and social fabric of 14 the state would be immensely harmful.

15 NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Following the effective date of this act, 16 should federal law cease to preempt the regulation of private sector 17 labor-management relations in the state, as a whole or any portion 18 thereof, with regard to any employer, employees, trade, or industry 19 which had been subject to federal labor law regulation, this chapter 20 applies in full force and effect to such employer, employees, and

1 trade or industry entities. Additionally, following the effective 2 date of this act, should the national labor relations board determine 3 that any employer or employees, as defined in section 3 of this act, 4 or trade or industry falls outside the previously existing 5 jurisdiction of the national labor relations act, or should the board 6 decline to exercise jurisdiction, or be deprived of its previous 7 jurisdiction over the same, this chapter applies in full force and 8 effect to such employer, employees, trade, or industry.

9 NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The definitions in this section apply 10 throughout this chapter unless the context clearly requires 11 otherwise.

12 (1) "Bargaining representative" means any labor organization 13 which has as one of its primary purposes the representation of 14 employees in their employment relations with employers, and which 15 does currently, or has in the past represented employees as defined 16 by this chapter.

17 (2) "Collective bargaining" means the performance of the mutual 18 obligations of the employer and the exclusive bargaining
19 representative to meet at reasonable times, to confer and negotiate 20 in good faith, and to execute a written agreement with respect to 21 grievance procedures and collective negotiations on personnel 22 matters, including wages, hours, and working conditions, which may be 23 peculiar to an appropriate bargaining unit of such employer, except 24 that by such obligation neither party may be compelled to agree to a 25 proposal or be required to make a concession unless otherwise 26 provided in this chapter.

27 (3) "Collective bargaining agreement" means any written contract 28 or agreement that is currently in effect, or that will be executed, 29 between an exclusive bargaining representative and an employer, as 30 defined by this chapter.

31 (4) "Commission" means the public employment relations 32 commission.

33 (5) (a) "Employee" means any employee of an employer, including of 34 a consumer directed employer as defined by RCW 74.39A.009, and is not 35 limited to the employees of a particular employer, and includes any 36 individual whose work has ceased as a consequence of, or in 37 connection with, any current labor dispute, and who has not obtained 38 any other regular and substantially equivalent employment.

39 (b) "Employee" does not include:

1 (i) Any individual employed by their parent or spouse unless also 2 employed by a third party for the work performed;

3 (ii) Any individual having the status of an independent 4 contractor;

5 (iii) Any individual employed as a supervisor;

6 (iv) Any person employed by the state or a political subdivision 7 of the state, or an employee as defined by RCW 49.37.010 or an 8 employee of an employer defined in RCW 49.39.005; or

9 (v) Any other person who is not employed by an employer as herein 10 defined.

11 (6) "Employer" means any employer, or any person acting as an 12 agent of an employer, except the state or political subdivision of 13 the state, or an employer as defined by RCW 49.37.010, or an employer 14 as defined in RCW 49.39.005.

15 (7) "Exclusive bargaining representatives" means a bargaining 16 representative that has been previously certified or recognized as 17 the representative of employees as defined by this chapter.

18 (8) "Labor dispute" includes any controversy concerning terms, 19 tenure, or conditions of employment, or concerning the association or 20 representation of persons in negotiating, fixing, maintaining, or 21 seeking to arrange terms or conditions of employment, regardless of 22 whether the disputants stand in the proximate relation of employer 23 and employee.

24 (9) "Labor organization" means any organization of any kind, or 25 any agency or employee representation committee or plan, in which 26 employees participate and which exists for the purpose, in whole or 27 in part, of dealing with employers concerning grievances, labor 28 disputes, wages, rates of pay, hours of employment, or conditions of 29 work.

30 NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The privilege established by RCW 31 5.60.060(11) applies to all labor organizations covered by this 32 chapter and in all proceedings authorized by this chapter.

33 NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Upon application by a labor organization 34 that held the status of an exclusive bargaining representative under 35 federal law by certification or voluntary recognition immediately 36 prior to the time that state regulation of private sector labor 37 relations is no longer preempted as applied to that collective 38 bargaining relationship, the commission shall promptly certify the 1 exclusive bargaining representative under this chapter. Absent

2 exceptional cause, the process to verify the exclusive bargaining 3 representative's status for certification must be completed within 4 one month of the filing of the application. All existing terms and 5 conditions of employment and any collective bargaining agreement
6 covering the affected bargaining unit remain in full force and effect 7 through the commission's verification process.

8 NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) In the event that an employer and 9 employees are in disagreement as to the selection of an exclusive 10 bargaining representative, the commission must be invited to 11 intervene as is provided in sections 10 through 13 of this act.

12 (2) In the event that an employer and an exclusive bargaining 13 representative are in disagreement as to the merger of two or more 14 bargaining units in the employer's workforce that are represented by 15 the same exclusive bargaining representative, the commission must be 16 invited to intervene as is provided in section 10 through 13 of this 17 act.

18 NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The commission, after hearing upon 19 reasonable notice, shall decide in each application for certification 20 as an exclusive bargaining representative or unit clarification, 21 other than applications submitted under section 5 of this act, the 22 unit appropriate for the purpose of collective bargaining. In 23 determining, modifying, or combining the bargaining unit, the 24 commission shall consider the duties, skills, and working conditions 25 of the employees; the history of collective bargaining by the 26 employer and their bargaining representatives; the extent of 27 organization among the employees; and the desire of the employees, 28 and the avoidance of excessive fragmentation.

29 NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The commission shall determine the 30 exclusive bargaining representative by: (1) Conducting a cross-check 31 pursuant to section 9 of this act; or (2) conducting an election 32 pursuant to section 10 of this act.

33 NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) If only one labor organization is 34 seeking certification as an exclusive bargaining representative of a 35 bargaining unit for which there is no incumbent exclusive bargaining 36 representative, the commission may determine the question concerning

1 representation by conducting a cross-check comparing the bargaining
2 authorization cards against the employment records of the employer. A 3 determination through a cross-check process may be made upon a 4 showing of interest submitted in support of the exclusive bargaining 5 representative by more than 50 percent of the employees.

6 (2) The exclusive bargaining representative that has been 7 determined through a cross-check to represent a majority of the 8 employees in the bargaining unit must be certified by the commission 9 as the exclusive bargaining representative of, and is required to 10 represent, all the employees within the unit without regard to 11 membership in said exclusive bargaining representative.

12 NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) In the event the commission elects to 13 conduct an election to ascertain the exclusive bargaining
14 representative, and upon the request of a prospective bargaining 15 representative showing written proof of at least 30 percent 16 representation of the employees within the proposed unit, the 17 commission shall hold an election by secret ballot to determine the 18 issue. The ballot must contain the name of such bargaining 19 representative and of any other bargaining representative showing 20 written proof of at least 10 percent representation of the employees 21 within the unit, together with a choice for any employee to designate 22 that they do not desire to be represented by any bargaining agent.
23 Where more than one organization is on the ballot and neither of the 24 three or more choices receives a majority vote of the voting 25 employees within the bargaining unit, a runoff election must be held.
26 The runoff ballot must contain the two choices which received the 27 largest and second-largest number of votes.

28 (2) The bargaining representative which has been determined 29 through election to represent a majority of the voting employees must 30 be certified by the commission as the exclusive bargaining
31 representative of, and is required to represent, all the employees 32 within the unit without regard to membership in said bargaining
33 representative.

34 NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. No question concerning representation may 35 be raised within one year of a certification or attempted 36 certification. Where there is a valid collective bargaining agreement 37 in effect, no question of representation may be raised except during 38 the period not more than 90 nor less than 60 days prior to the

1 expiration date of the agreement. Any agreement which contains a 2 provision for automatic renewal or extension of the agreement is not 3 effective as a bar to a question concerning representation if it 4 extends the total term of the agreement's existence for more than 5 three years.

6 NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. (1) The commission shares concurrent 7 jurisdiction with superior courts to prevent and to remedy any 8 violation of RCW 49.32.020 with regard to any employer, employees, 9 trade, or industry covered under this act that had been subject to 10 federal labor law regulation.

11 (2) The commission applies the Washington courts' jurisprudence
12 in adjudicating alleged violations of RCW 49.32.020.

13 (3) If the commission determines that any person has engaged in 14 or is engaging in any violation of RCW 49.32.020, the commission 15 shall issue and cause to be served upon the person an order requiring 16 the person to cease and desist from such violation, and to take such 17 affirmative action as will effectuate the purposes and policy 18 declared in RCW 49.32.020 and of this chapter, such as the payment of 19 damages and the reinstatement of employees, and reasonable attorneys' 20 fees and costs.

21 (4) The commission or the affected employees, or the employees' 22 bargaining representative may petition the superior court for the 23 county in which the main office of the employer is located or in 24 which the person who has engaged or is engaging in such violation 25 resides or transacts business, for the enforcement of the 26 commission's order and for appropriate temporary relief.

27 NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. The commission shall provide, at the 28 mutual request of an employer and an exclusive bargaining 29 representative, mediation of any labor dispute between them. Any 30 party to mediation may request and receive fact finding by the 31 mediator at the conclusion of a failed mediation.

32 NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. (1) Notwithstanding the possible
33 cessation of any duty on the part of any employer or labor
34 organization to comply with the terms of any collective bargaining 35 agreement reached under the auspices of federal labor law, any such 36 agreement reached between any employer or exclusive bargaining

1 representative as defined in this chapter remains a contractually 2 binding agreement and is enforceable on its terms.

3 (2) Upon the certification of an exclusive bargaining 4 representative for the employer's employees, the employer has the 5 duty to engage in collective bargaining with the exclusive bargaining 6 representative before changing any wages, hours, or working 7 conditions of the represented employees. Any allegation by the 8 exclusive bargaining representative that the employer has made a 9 unilateral change in wages, hours, and working conditions may be 10 presented for resolution to an arbitrator mutually selected and 11 compensated by the parties, or by application of the exclusive 12 bargaining representative to the commission for provision of the 13 arbitrator.

14 (3) Should a collective bargaining agreement between the 15 exclusive bargaining representative and the employer expire, its 16 provisions, except any prohibition on strikes or lockouts, continue 17 in force until renegotiated. During the agreement's hiatus, any 18 allegation by the exclusive bargaining representative that the 19 employer has made a unilateral change in wages or economic benefits 20 may be presented for resolution to an arbitrator mutually selected 21 and compensated, or by application of the exclusive bargaining 22 representative to the commission for provision of the arbitrator.

23 (4) Upon the failure of the employer and the exclusive bargaining 24 representative to conclude a collective bargaining agreement within 25 six months of certification of the exclusive bargaining 26 representative or within six months of the expiration of the last 27 collective bargaining agreement, all matters remaining in dispute 28 must be submitted by the parties to the commission for resolution 29 through its interest arbitration procedures.

30 NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. (1) If an agreement through collective 31 bargaining has not been reached within six months of certification, 32 or within six months of the expiration of the last collective 33 bargaining agreement, the parties may agree in writing to continue to 34 bargain for an additional month. Thereafter, they may agree in 35 writing to continue bargaining on a month-to-month basis. If the 36 parties have not entered a written agreement to extend bargaining, or 37 final agreement to extend bargaining has expired, the parties must 38 submit their dispute to interest arbitration. Each party must submit 39 that party's last and final proposals upon which there exists an

1 impasse. All impasse items must be submitted to arbitration. The 2 arbitrator or arbitration panel is empowered to review the parties' 3 final proposals and to consider mediator findings, if any, and to 4 issue a decision on the submitted items along with the previously 5 agreed items, such that a complete agreement is imposed through the 6 arbitration. The arbitrator or arbitration panel is also empowered to 7 consider evidence submitted by the parties concerning factors such as 8 the employer's ability to meet the costs of a contract, employee 9 compensation at comparable employers, and cost of living in the 10 relevant geographic area in their decision-making process.

11 (2) (a) If the parties cannot agree on the arbitrator or 12 arbitration panel within five days of the expiration of the six-month 13 period following certification or expiration of the previous 14 agreement, or of the expiration of the final written extension of 15 bargaining, the parties must apply to the commission or, if both 16 parties agree, to the American arbitration association to provide a 17 list of five qualified arbitrators from which the arbitrator must be 18 chosen.

19 (b) Each party must pay the fees and expenses of the arbitrator
20 or arbitration panel, and the fees and expenses of the neutral chair 21 must be shared equally between the parties.

22 (3) In consultation with the parties, the arbitrator or 23 arbitration panel shall promptly establish a date, time, and place 24 for a hearing which may be no later than two months following the 25 appointment of the arbitrator. The arbitrator or arbitration panel 26 shall provide reasonable notice thereof to the parties to the 27 dispute. The parties must exchange final positions in writing, with 28 copies to the arbitrator or arbitration panel, with respect to every 29 issue to be arbitrated, on a date mutually agreed upon, but in no 30 event later than 10 working days before the date set for hearing. A 31 hearing must be held, and each party must have the opportunity to 32 present evidence and make arguments. The rules of evidence prevailing 33 in judicial proceedings may be considered, but are not binding, and 34 any oral testimony or documentary evidence or other data deemed 35 relevant by the chair of the arbitration panel may be received in 36 evidence. A recording of the proceedings must be taken. The 37 arbitrator or arbitration panel has the power to administer oaths, 38 require the attendance of witnesses, and require the production of 39 such books, papers, contracts, agreements, and documents as may be 40 deemed by the arbitrator to be material to a just determination of

1 the issues in dispute. If any person refuses to obey a subpoena 2 issued by the arbitrator or arbitration panel, or refuses to be sworn 3 or to make an affirmation to testify, or any witness, party, or 4 attorney for a party is guilty of any contempt while in attendance at 5 any hearing held hereunder, the arbitrator may invoke the 6 jurisdiction of the superior court in the county where the labor 7 dispute exists, and the court has jurisdiction to issue an 8 appropriate order. Any failure to obey the order may be punished by 9 the court as a contempt thereof.

10 (4) Within 30 days following the conclusion of the hearing, the 11 arbitrator or arbitration panel shall make written findings of fact 12 and a written determination of the issues in dispute, based on the 13 evidence presented. A copy thereof must be served on each of the 14 parties to the dispute. That determination is final and binding upon 15 both parties, subject to review by the superior court upon the 16 application of either party.

17 (5) The superior court's scope of review is limited to whether:

18 (a) The arbitrator or arbitration panel acted without, or in 19 excess of, their powers;

20 (b) The arbitration has proceeded in the manner required by law;

21 (c) The order or decision of the arbitrator or arbitration panel 22 was procured by fraud or was an abuse of discretion;

23 (d) The decision of the arbitrator or arbitration panel was 24 arbitrary or capricious; and 25 (e) The arbitrator or arbitration panel's decision violated 26 either of the parties' constitutional or statutory rights.

27 NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. (1) In addition to any contractually 28 agreed method for selecting arbitrators, the parties may mutually 29 request the commission to, and the commission shall, appoint a 30 qualified person who may be an employee of the commission to act as 31 an arbitrator to assist in the resolution of a labor dispute between 32 an employer and an exclusive bargaining representative arising from 33 the application of the matters contained in a collective bargaining 34 agreement. The arbitrator shall conduct such arbitration of such 35 dispute in a manner as provided for in the collective bargaining 36 agreement.

37 (2) The commission may not collect any fees or charges from such 38 employer or such exclusive bargaining representative for services 39 performed by the commission under the provisions of this chapter.

1 (3) The provisions of chapter 49.08 RCW do not apply to this 2 chapter.

3 NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. Nothing in this chapter, except as 4 specifically provided for herein, interferes with, impedes, or 5 diminishes in any way the right to strike. However, a labor 6 organization, before engaging in any strike or other concerted 7 refusal to work at any health care institution shall, not less than 8 10 days prior to such action, notify the institution in writing and 9 the commission of that intention. The notice must state the date and 10 time that such action will commence.

11 NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. An employer engaged primarily in the 12 building and construction industry may make an agreement covering 13 employees engaged, or who upon their employment will be engaged in 14 the building and construction industry, with a labor organization of 15 which building and construction employees are members, 16 notwithstanding that:

17 (1) The majority status of such labor organization has not been 18 established under the provisions of this chapter prior to the making 19 of such agreement;

20 (2) The agreement requires the employer to notify the labor 21 organization of opportunities for employment with such employer, or 22 gives the labor organization an opportunity to refer qualified 23 applicants for such employment; or

24 (3) The agreement specifies minimum training or experience 25 qualifications for employment or provides for priority in 26 opportunities for employment based upon length of services with such 27 employer, in the industry or in the particular geographical area.

28 NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. The commission shall promulgate, revise, 29 or rescind such rules and regulations as it deems necessary or 30 appropriate to administer the provisions of this chapter in 31 conformity with the intent and purpose of this chapter and consistent 32 with the best standards of labor-management relations.

33 NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. Actions taken by or on behalf of the 34 commission must be pursuant to chapter 34.05 RCW, or rules adopted in 35 accordance with chapter 34.05 RCW, and the right of judicial review 36 provided by chapter 34.05 RCW is applicable to all such actions and

1 rules. However, if a conflict exists between this chapter and 34.05
2 RCW, this chapter governs.

3 Sec. 21. RCW 49.32.020 and 2010 c 8 s 12028 are each amended to 4 read as follows:

5 (1) In the interpretation of this chapter and in determining the 6 jurisdiction and authority of the courts of the state of Washington, 7 as such jurisdiction and authority are herein defined and limited, 8 the public policy of the state of Washington is hereby declared as 9 follows:

10 WHEREAS, Under prevailing economic conditions, developed with the 11 aid of governmental authority for owners of property to organize in 12 the corporate and other forms of ownership association, the 13 individual unorganized worker is commonly helpless to exercise actual 14 liberty of contract and to protect his or her freedom of labor, and 15 thereby to obtain acceptable terms and conditions of employment, 16 wherefore, though he or she should be free to decline to associate 17 with his or her fellows, it is necessary that he or she have full 18 freedom of association, self-organization, and designation of 19 representatives of his or her own choosing, to negotiate the terms 20 and conditions of his or her employment, and that he or she shall be 21 free from interference, restraint, or coercion of employers of labor, 22 or their agents, in the designation of such representatives or in 23 self-organization or in other concerted activities for the purpose of 24 collective bargaining or other mutual aid or protections; therefore, 25 the following definitions of, and limitations upon, the jurisdiction 26 and authority of the courts of the state of Washington are hereby 27 enacted.

28 (2) With regard to any employer, employees, trade, or industry 29 covered under this act that had been subject to federal labor law 30 regulation the public employment relations commission has concurrent 31 jurisdiction to prevent and to remedy any violation of the rights set 32 forth in subsection (1) of this section.

33 Sec. 22. RCW 5.60.060 and 2025 c 346 s 3 are each amended to 34 read as follows:

35 (1) A spouse or domestic partner shall not be examined for or 36 against his or her spouse or domestic partner, without the consent of 37 the spouse or domestic partner; nor can either during marriage or 38 during the domestic partnership or afterward, be without the consent

1 of the other, examined as to any communication made by one to the 2 other during the marriage or the domestic partnership. But this 3 exception shall not apply to a civil action or proceeding by one 4 against the other, nor to a criminal action or proceeding for a crime 5 committed by one against the other, nor to a criminal action or 6 proceeding against a spouse or domestic partner if the marriage or 7 the domestic partnership occurred subsequent to the filing of formal 8 charges against the defendant, nor to a criminal action or proceeding 9 for a crime committed by said spouse or domestic partner against any 10 child of whom said spouse or domestic partner is the parent or 11 guardian, nor to a proceeding under chapter 71.05 or 71.09 RCW:
12 PROVIDED, That the spouse or the domestic partner of a person sought 13 to be detained under chapter 71.05 or 71.09 RCW may not be compelled 14 to testify and shall be so informed by the court prior to being 15 called as a witness.

16 (2) (a) An attorney or counselor shall not, without the consent of 17 his or her client, be examined as to any communication made by the 18 client to him or her, or his or her advice given thereon in the 19 course of professional employment.

20 (b) A parent or guardian of a minor child arrested on a criminal 21 charge may not be examined as to a communication between the child 22 and his or her attorney if the communication was made in the presence 23 of the parent or guardian. This privilege does not extend to 24 communications made prior to the arrest.

25 (3) A member of the clergy, a Christian Science practitioner 26 listed in the Christian Science Journal, or a priest shall not, 27 without the consent of a person making the confession or sacred 28 confidence, be examined as to any confession or sacred confidence 29 made to him or her in his or her professional character, in the 30 course of discipline enjoined by the church to which he or she 31 belongs.

32 (4) Subject to the limitations under RCW 71.05.217 (6) and (7), a 33 physician or surgeon or osteopathic physician or surgeon or podiatric 34 physician or surgeon shall not, without the consent of his or her 35 patient, be examined in a civil action as to any information acquired 36 in attending such patient, which was necessary to enable him or her 37 to prescribe or act for the patient, except as follows:

38 (a) In any judicial proceedings regarding a child's injury, 39 neglect, or sexual abuse or the cause thereof; and

1 (b) Ninety days after filing an action for personal injuries or 2 wrongful death, the claimant shall be deemed to waive the physician-3 patient privilege. Waiver of the physician-patient privilege for any 4 one physician or condition constitutes a waiver of the privilege as 5 to all physicians or conditions, subject to such limitations as a 6 court may impose pursuant to court rules.

7 (5) A public officer shall not be examined as a witness as to 8 communications made to him or her in official confidence, when the 9 public interest would suffer by the disclosure.

10 (6)(a) A peer supporter shall not, without consent of the peer 11 support services recipient making the communication, be compelled to 12 testify about any communication made to the peer supporter by the 13 peer support services recipient while receiving individual or group 14 services. The peer supporter must be designated as such by their 15 employing agency prior to providing peer support services. The 16 privilege only applies when the communication was made to the peer 17 supporter while acting in his or her capacity as a peer supporter.
18 The privilege applies regardless of whether the peer support services 19 recipient is an employee of the same agency as the peer supporter.
20 Peer support services may be coordinated or designated among first 21 responder agencies pursuant to chapter 10.93 RCW, interlocal
22 agreement, or other similar provision, provided however that a 23 written agreement is not required for the privilege to apply. The 24 privilege does not apply if the peer supporter was an initial 25 responding first responder, department of corrections staff person, 26 or jail staff person; a witness; or a party to the incident which 27 prompted the delivery of peer support services to the peer support 28 services recipient.

29 (b) For purposes of this section:

30 (i) "First responder" means:

31 (A) A law enforcement officer;

32 (B) A limited authority law enforcement officer;

33 (C) A firefighter;

34 (D) An emergency services dispatcher or recordkeeper;

35 (E) Emergency medical personnel, as licensed or certified by this 36 state;

37 (F) A member or former member of the Washington national guard
38 acting in an emergency response capacity pursuant to chapter 38.52
39 RCW;

8 authority Washington peace officer as defined in RCW 10.93.020 who is 9 employed by the department of corrections, state parks and recreation 10 commission, department of natural resources, liquor and cannabis 11 board, or Washington state gambling commission.

22 services as a result of an incident or incidents in which the peer

31 peer support services recipient was involved while acting in his or 32 her official capacity.

33 (7) A sexual assault advocate may not, without the consent of the 34 victim, be examined as to any communication made between the victim 35 and the sexual assault advocate.

36 (a) For purposes of this section, "sexual assault advocate" means 37 the employee or volunteer from a community sexual assault program or 38 underserved populations provider, victim assistance unit, program, or 39 association, that provides information, medical or legal advocacy, 40 counseling, or support to victims of sexual assault, who is

1 designated by the victim to accompany the victim to the hospital or 2 other health care facility and to proceedings concerning the alleged 3 assault, including police and prosecution interviews and court 4 proceedings.

5 (b) A sexual assault advocate may disclose a confidential
6 communication without the consent of the victim if failure to 7 disclose is likely to result in a clear, imminent risk of serious 8 physical injury or death of the victim or another person. Any sexual 9 assault advocate participating in good faith in the disclosing of 10 records and communications under this section shall have immunity 11 from any liability, civil, criminal, or otherwise, that might result 12 from the action. In any proceeding, civil or criminal, arising out of 13 a disclosure under this section, the good faith of the sexual assault 14 advocate who disclosed the confidential communication shall be 15 presumed.

16 (8) A domestic violence advocate may not, without the consent of 17 the victim, be examined as to any communication between the victim

26 section of the department of children, youth, and families as defined 27 in RCW 26.44.020.

28 (b) A domestic violence advocate may disclose a confidential
29 communication without the consent of the victim if failure to 30 disclose is likely to result in a clear, imminent risk of serious 31 physical injury or death of the victim or another person. This 32 section does not relieve a domestic violence advocate from the 33 requirement to report or cause to be reported an incident under RCW 34 26.44.030(1) or to disclose relevant records relating to a child as 35 required by RCW 26.44.030(15). Any domestic violence advocate 36 participating in good faith in the disclosing of communications under 37 this subsection is immune from liability, civil, criminal, or 38 otherwise, that might result from the action. In any proceeding, 39 civil or criminal, arising out of a disclosure under this subsection,

1 the good faith of the domestic violence advocate who disclosed the 2 confidential communication shall be presumed.

4 worker, or marriage and family therapist licensed under chapter 5 18.225 RCW may not disclose, or be compelled to testify about, any 6 information acquired from persons consulting the individual in a 7 professional capacity when the information was necessary to enable 8 the individual to render professional services to those persons 9 except:

10 (a) With the written authorization of that person or, in the case 11 of death or disability, the person's personal representative;

12 (b) If the person waives the privilege by bringing charges
13 against the mental health counselor licensed under chapter 18.225
14 RCW;

15 (c) In response to a subpoena from the secretary of health. The 16 secretary may subpoena only records related to a complaint or report 17 under RCW 18.130.050;

18 (d) As required under chapter 26.44 or 74.34 RCW or RCW 71.05.217 19 (6) or (7); or

20 (e) To any individual if the mental health counselor, independent 21 clinical social worker, or marriage and family therapist licensed 22 under chapter 18.225 RCW reasonably believes that disclosure will 23 avoid or minimize an imminent danger to the health or safety of the 24 individual or any other individual; however, there is no obligation 25 on the part of the provider to so disclose.

26 (10) An individual who acts as a sponsor providing guidance, 27 emotional support, and counseling in an individualized manner to a 28 person participating in an alcohol or drug addiction recovery

38 union representation except:

2 of a person;

3 (ii) In actions, civil or criminal, in which the represented 4 employee is accused of a crime or assault or battery;

5 (iii) In actions, civil or criminal, where a union member is a 6 party to the action, the union member may obtain a copy of any 7 statement previously given by that union member concerning the 8 subject matter of the action and may elicit testimony concerning such 9 statements. The right of the union member to obtain such statements, 10 or the union member's possession of such statements, does not render 11 them discoverable over the objection of the union member;

12 (iv) In actions, regulatory, civil, or criminal, against the 13 union or its affiliated, subordinate, or parent bodies or their 14 agents; or

15 (v) When an admission of, or intent to engage in, criminal 16 conduct is revealed by the represented union member to the union
17 representative.

18 (b) The privilege created in this subsection (11) does not apply 19 to any record of communications that would otherwise be subject to 20 disclosure under chapter 42.56 RCW.

21 (c) The privilege created in this subsection (11) may not 22 interfere with an employee's or union representative's applicable 23 statutory mandatory reporting requirements, including but not limited 24 to duties to report in chapters 26.44, 43.101, and 74.34 RCW.

25 (d) For purposes of this subsection:

33 7103(a)(4), representatives defined by 45 U.S.C. Sec. 151, and 34 bargaining representatives defined in RCW 41.56.030, and employee

36 41.76.005, 47.64.011, and 53.18.010, and bargaining representatives 37 as defined in section 3 of this act.

38 (iii) "Union representation" means action by a union on behalf of
