

RCW 13.32A.086 Duty of law enforcement agencies to identify runaway children under RCW 43.43.510. Whenever a law enforcement agency receives a report from a parent that his or her child, or child over whom the parent has custody, has without permission of the parent left the home or residence lawfully prescribed for the child under circumstances where the parent believes that the child has run away from the home or the residence, the agency shall provide for placing information identifying the child in files under RCW 43.43.510. [1995 c 312 § 37.]

Short title—1995 c 312: See note following RCW 13.32A.010.