

RCW 64.90.518 Board members—Election—Notice. (1)

Notwithstanding any contrary provision in the declaration or organizational documents, prior to an election of board members, the association must provide notice to all unit owners of the following:

- (a) The number of board positions that may be filled;
- (b) The qualifications to be a board candidate, if any; and
- (c) The process, manner, and deadline for submitting nominations.

(2) If the board determines that any nominee is not a qualified candidate, the board shall notify the nominee of the basis for the disqualification, and the procedure for appealing the disqualification. [2024 c 321 s 313.]
