The director shall allocate such position and notify the Appointing Authority of the allocation.

(2) Reallocation. Whenever the Appointing Authority makes a permanent and substantial change in the duties or responsibilities of a position, written notice of the changes shall be submitted to the director for determination of the proper allocation of the position. The director shall notify the Appointing Authority of such allocation. The director may, upon his own initiative or at the request of the Appointing Authority or an employee or an employee's representative, study the duties of any position to determine if its allocation is proper.

Following such studies, the director may reallocate the position to the appropriate class.

(3) Effect of Reallocation. An employee occupying a position which has been reallocated shall continue in the position only if he possesses the minimum qualifications or training and experience established for such position as measured by a qualifying examination. WAC 132B-12-048 Interpretation of specifications. The definitions in class specifications are descriptive and not restrictive. They are intended to indicate the kinds of positions that are allocated to the several classes as determined by their duties and responsibilities, and are not to be construed as declaring what the duties or responsibilities of any position may be or as limiting or modifying the power of the Appointing Authority to assign, direct, and control the work of the employees. The use of a particular expression or illustration as to duties shall not be held to exclude others not mentioned but which are of similar kind or quality, nor shall any specific omission necessarily mean that such factor is not included. [Order 1, § 132B-12-048, filed 6/4/68.]

WAC 132B-12-051 Use in allocation. In determining the class to which any position shall be allocated, the specifications describing each class shall be considered as a whole. Consideration shall be given to the general duties, specific tasks, responsibilities, education and experience requirements, and relationships to other classes, as a composite description of the kind of employment that the class is intended to embrace. [Order 1, § 132B-12-051, filed 6/4/68.]

WAC 132B-12-054 Use in examination. The class specifications shall be used as a basis for determining the suitability of candidates for employment by supplying data basic to the preparation of qualifying tests and examinations. [Order 1, § 132B-12-054, filed 6/4/68.]

WAC 132B-12-057 Statement of general qualifications. Qualifications commonly required of all incumbents of positions of different classes, such as acceptable physical condition and freedom from disabling defects, honesty, sobriety and industry, shall be deemed to be implied as entrance requirements to each class, and need not be specifically mentioned in the specifications. However, nothing in the rules shall be deemed to prohibit employing handicapped persons who are otherwise qualified. [Order 1, § 132B-12-057, filed 6/4/68.]

WAC 132B-12-060 Authority. The specifications for any class as interpreted herein shall constitute the basis and source of authority for the tests to be included in an examination for the class and for the evaluation of the qualifications of applicants. [Order 1, § 132B-12-060, filed 6/4/68.]

WAC 132B-12-063 Use of class titles. The class title shall be the official title of every position allocated to the class for the purpose of personnel actions and shall be the title used on all payroll, budget, and other official records and reports relating to the position. Any abbreviation or code symbol approved by the director may be used in lieu of the class title to designate the class of a position for official records. Other working titles may be authorized by the Appointing Authority to be used as a designation of a position for purposes of internal administration or in oral or written contacts with the public or students. [Order 1, § 132B-12-063, filed 6/4/68.]

WAC 132B-12-066 General policies. A Compensation Plan for classified positions shall be maintained to provide for equitable pay for classified employees. Pay rates shall be linked directly to the Classification Plan and shall reflect not less than prevailing rates in Washington state private industries and other governmental units for positions of a similar nature. [Order 1, § 132B-12-066, filed 6/4/68.]

WAC 132B-12-069 Content. A Compensation Plan for the classified staff service shall consist of schedules of rates or ranges in monthly amounts, with regular increment increases, showing the assignment of such pay rates to the classes of positions. It shall also consist of such paragraphs as are necessary to describe basic compensation policies. [Order 1, § 132B-12-069, filed 6/4/68.]

WAC 132B-12-072 Amendment. The Compensation Plan may be amended by action of the committee as provided in the act. It is the responsibility of the director to maintain a continuing review of the adequacy and equity of the Compensation Plan, and he shall propose amendments that are required to adjust it. He shall periodically secure comparative wage information, with one such inquiry to be conducted a year prior to the convening of each regular session of the State Legislature. [Order 1, § 132B-12-072, filed 6/4/68.]

WAC 132B-12-075 Payroll certification. Salary payment to classified employees may not be approved until the director has certified that their appointment has been made in accordance with these rules. [Order 1, § 132B-12-075, filed 6/4/68.]

WAC 132B-12-078 Hours of work. Hours of work shall be specified by job class. They may vary for different classes but shall be uniform for all employees in the same class.

(1) Two general work schedules are recognized. The assignment of an employee to a particular schedule will be stated in the class specifications as described in the Classification Plan. The employee shall be informed of such assignment when notified of the terms of his appointment.

(a) Plan A. Forty hours per week shall constitute full-time employment. The normal work week is considered to be eight hours per day for five consecutive days, from 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., with one-half hour for lunch. The Appointing Authority may adjust the schedule of an individual employee or a group of employees to provide different schedules of daily hours of working days, or to provide for extra services outside of normal work hours, provided that such adjustment shall not result in requiring an average work week of either less or more than forty hours per week for full-time employment. Reasonable notice will be given the employee whose schedule of hours must be changed.

(b) Plan B. Employees whose duties are primarily professional or supervisory, or who are assigned the responsible charge of a work program that cannot be restricted to a specific schedule of hours, shall work during such periods as their duties require. [Order 1, § 132B-12-078, filed 6/4/68.]

WAC 132B-12-081 Rest periods. Each employee shall be entitled to not less than a ten minute rest period for each four hours of work. Each eight-hour shift shall include two rest periods, even though the shift is unequally divided. [Order 1, § 132B-12-081, filed 6/4/68.]

WAC 132B-12-084 Holidays. The following holidays with pay, in addition to other days designated under the authority of the board, shall be allowed employees working on a continuous basis or on leave with pay on the last working day preceding the holiday:

New Year's Day	Labor Day
Washington's Birthday	Veteran's Day
Memorial Day	Thanksgiving Day
Independence Day	Christmas Day

In substitution for Lincoln's Birthday, Columbus Day, and General Election Day, which are established as legal holidays for state employees by RCW 1.16.050, the following days will be granted:

The Friday following Thanksgiving
The last working day before Christmas
The last working day before New Year's Day.

Whenever any legal holiday, other than Sunday, falls upon a Sunday, the following Monday shall be a legal holiday. Whenever an employee is required to work any of the legal holidays, he shall be given a compensatory day off with pay.

(1) Holiday time worked shall be treated as overtime work as defined in the Compensation Plan.

(2) When a holiday falls on an employee's scheduled day off, he shall be given a day of compensatory time off. [Order 1, § 132B-12-084, filed 6/4/68.]

WAC 132B-12-087 Annual leave. Classified employees shall earn annual leave at rates based on the schedule of their duties.

(1) Annual leave with pay shall accrue to employees whose work is scheduled under PLAN A of these rules at the rate of one working day for each month of continuous service if their employment is continuous for six months or longer.

(a) One additional day of annual leave shall be allowed each year for satisfactorily completing the first two, three and five continuous years of employment respectively.

(b) Beginning with the tenth year of continuous employment, in recognition of continuity of service, one additional working day of annual leave shall be allowed for each additional year of continuous service thereafter until a maximum of twenty-two working days of annual leave is allowed.

(2) Annual leave with pay shall accrue to employees whose work is scheduled under PLAN B of these rules at the rate of one day for each twenty-two working days.

(3) Where less than full-time service is required, annual leave shall accrue at the appropriate fraction of the rates set forth under these rules, after the employee has completed not less than one year in such service.

(4) New employees may not take annual leave until they have completed their probationary period of six months' service.

(5) Annual leave shall be scheduled by the employing department at a time most convenient to the work of the department, the determination of which shall rest with the Appointing Authority. As far as possible, leave will be scheduled in accordance with the wishes of the employee in any amount up to the total of his earned leave credits.

(6) Unused annual leave credits may be accumulated to a maximum of thirty working days, except that if an employee's request for leave is deferred by the Appointing Authority and a statement of the necessity is filed with the director, then the maximum of thirty days' accrual shall be extended for each month that the leave is deferred. Annual leave earned by the employee must be allowed him during the period it is available to him. No extra compensation in lieu of annual leave shall be paid the employee.

(7) Upon separation from the classified service in good standing after six months of continuous employment, annual leave pay shall be allowed to the extent of the employee's accrued and unused annual leave credits as shown by the records of the director. [Order 1, § 132B-12-087, filed 6/4/68.]

WAC 132B-12-090 Sick leave. Sick leave with full pay shall accrue to classified employees at the rate of one working day per month of completed service.

(1) Sick leave shall be allowed an employee up to the amount of his earned credits under the following conditions:

(a) Because of and during illness or injury which has incapacitated the employee from performing his duties.

(b) By reason of exposure of the employee to contagious disease during such period as his attendance on duty would jeopardize the health of fellow employees or the public.

(c) Because of emergencies caused by serious illness or death in the immediate family of the employee that require the assistance of the employee in circumstances arising from the care of the patient or arrangements for the deceased. Leave for the purpose of condolence or bereavement may be granted only with the approval of the Appointing Authority.

(d) For the purpose of medical, dental or optical appointments, if arranged in advance with the Appointing Authority.

(2) Maternity leave may be authorized for a period of nonwork in accordance with Industrial Welfare Order no. 2-62(10), effective 3-21-62 published by the Department of Labor and Industries of the state of Washington, which reads as follows:

"(10) Maternity. No female employee shall be knowingly employed for a period of four months before confinement for childbirth, or six weeks thereafter, except that upon presentation of a letter of request from the employer together with a doctor's certificate stating her health will not be impaired by such employment to a specified time, a special permit may be granted for continued employment by the Supervisor of Women and Minors."

(3) Sick leave payments to employees suffering illness or injury compensable under industrial insurance provisions shall be in amounts to which they would be entitled if on duty minus any industrial insurance payments received by the employee in compensation for the time loss resulting from such illness or injury, for the period of such leave.

(4) Sick leave shall accumulate to a maximum of one hundred eighty working days of unused leave.

(5) Illness or disability shall be reported at the beginning of any period of sick leave to the immediate supervisor by the employee or the person to act for him. list, except that the director may remove names from eligible lists permanently or temporarily for any of the following reasons, subject to appeal rights as provided in these rules:

(1) Failure to respond within ten days to a written inquiry or within three days to a telegraphed inquiry from the director or Appointing Authority relative to availability for appointment.

(2) Declination of appointment under such conditions as the eligible previously indicated he would accept.

(3) Failure to report for duty within the time prescribed by the Appointing Authority.

(4) Failure to maintain a record of his current address at the office of the director. For this purpose the return of a letter by the postal authorities, if properly addressed to the last address on record, shall be deemed sufficient grounds for such removal of the name from the eligible list.

(5) Upon certification three times to the Appointing Authority, if not appointed. When so removed the applicant will be informed in writing.

(6) In the case of organizational unit promotional lists, or transfer lists, appointment or transfer of the employee to a position in another organizational unit.

WAC 132B-12-192 Request for employees. When a vacancy in the classified staff service is to be filled, the Appointing Authority shall submit a requisition to the director on such form and in such manner as the director may prescribe. The requisition shall state the class title, the number of positions to be filled, and other appropriate information. In addition, desirable or necessary special or outstanding qualifications for the position under consideration may be indicated, and the reasons therefor. Eligibles shall be certified in strict order of standing on the appropriate list except in cases where the director has determined that he should certify eligibles with special qualifications. In the latter case, eligibles meeting the special qualifications shall be certified in the order of their standings on the list. Any permanent employee who is adversely affected by such certification may appeal the action to the committee. [Order 1, § 132B-12-192, filed 6/4/68.]

WAC 132B-12-195 Method of certification. Upon receipt of a personnel requisition, the director shall certify in writing two more names than there are vacancies to be filled. The following eligible lists shall be used in the order of priority indicated:

[Order 1, § 132B-12-201, filed 6/4/68.]

WAC 132B-12-204 Selection. The Appointing Authority shall return the list of names certified indicating the action taken on the certifications, within a time limit set by the director from the date of certification.

WAC 132B-12-210 Provisional appointments. When the Appointing Authority certifies to the director that there is urgent need to fill a position for which there are no qualified eligibles, the director may authorize that the position be filled by provisional appointment of any person who meets the minimum requirements for the class of work. Such appointment shall be terminated within six months or upon certification and appointment from an eligible list, whichever occurs first. No person shall receive more than one provisional appointment. No seniority shall be gained as the result of a provisional appointment except for continuance of seniority in a lower class upon provisional promotion to a higher class. During the time a position is filled by provisional appointment, the director shall conduct a wide and continuous search for applicants for the position and conduct examinations for the same. If no other person applies within six months, the provisional appointee may be examined and appointed.

In situations wherein qualified eligibles are available but less than the three required for certification, a provisional appointment of an eligible may be made. If the director is unable within thirty days of the effective date of the provisional appointment to attract the number of candidates necessary for full certification, the person holding the provisional appointment may be given a probationary appointment provided he passed the examination for the class. [Order 1, § 132B-12-210, filed 6/4/68.]

WAC 132B-12-213 Transfer. A position may be filled by transferring an employee from another position of the same class or similar class with essentially the same maximum salary. Transfers must be approved by the Appointing Authority and the director. [Order 1, § 132B-12-213, filed 6/4/68.]

WAC 132B-12-219 Purpose. A probationary or working test period shall be an integral part of the examination process and shall be utilized as an opportunity to observe an employee's work, to train and aid the employee in adjustment to his position, and to reject any employee whose work performance fails to meet required work standards. [Order 1, § 132B-12-219, filed 6/4/68.]

WAC 132B-12-225 Removal during probationary period. At any time during the trial period the Appointing Authority may remove an employee whose performance does not meet the required standards, provided that the removal and the reasons therefor shall be reported in writing to the director and to the employee concerned before the effective date of separation. Notice of two weeks will normally be given an employee who is removed. If more than three employees are removed successively from the same position during their trial service period, the director shall immediately investigate and determine whether the removals were because the employees did not meet the required standards, and shall submit a report of his investigations together with his conclusions to the committee. If the employees were removed for reasons other than that their performance did not meet the required standards, the committee shall order their reinstatement. Dismissal during the probationary period is not, however, appealable by the employee. [Order 1, § 132B-12-225, filed 6/4/68.]

WAC 132B-12-228 Demotion during probationary period. At any time during the probationary period when an employee is about to be laid off because of reduction in force, the Appointing Authority, with the consent of the employee, may demote such employee in lieu of layoff if he is otherwise eligible and work is available in a lower class. The name of such an employee shall be restored to the lists from which it was removed at the time of appointment. The probationary period of an employee demoted in lieu of layoff during that period shall include the period of probation in the higher class. No demotion of this kind shall be made if it will result in the separation of any other employee with greater length of service.

An employee serving as a result of appointment from a promotional list, who is removed from the new position for reasons other than misconduct or delinquency and who was a permanent employee in another position in the classified staff service immediately prior to his promotional appointment, shall be reinstated in his former position or in one of like status and pay. [Order 1, § 132B-12-228, filed 6/4/68.]

WAC 132B-12-231 Separation. Resignation, retirement, layoff, dismissal, or abandonment of the position shall constitute separation from service. [Order 1, § 132B-12-231, filed 6/4/68.]

WAC 132B-12-234 Resignation. Any employee may resign from service and should present his resignation in writing to the Appointing Authority. To resign in good standing an employee must give at least two calendar weeks' notice, unless the director waives the notice requirement. Such resignation shall be promptly forwarded to the director by the Appointing Authority. [Order 1, § 132B-12-234, filed 6/4/68.]

WAC 132B-12-237 Reduction in force—Layoff. The Appointing Authority may separate an employee without prejudice because of lack of funds, reorganization or curtailment of work. Notice of at least two calendar weeks must be given to such employee.

(1) Order of Layoff. Layoff of permanent employees will be made in inverse order of seniority in the class of work and the organizational unit involved. Seniority shall be measured by the period of unbroken service in the class and organizational unit, including authorized leaves of absence. Where two or more employees in the same class have equal seniority, layoff will be in alphabetic order of the last names of the employees affected.

(2) Transfer or Voluntary Demotion. In the event of a reduction in force, a permanent employee shall not be laid off while any probationary, provisional, or temporary employee is continued in a position of the same class. An employee in a higher class of a series of related classes who has greater seniority shall be offered voluntary demotion to a lower class, provided he qualifies for the class and has greater seniority than the occupant of the position in the lower class.

(3) Laid-Off Employees on Layoff Registers. The names of permanent and probationary employees who have been laid off shall be placed on the appropriate layoff list in accordance with WAC 132B-12-165. [Order 1, § 132B-12-237, filed 6/4/68.]

WAC 132B-12-240 Dismissal. The Appointing Authority may dismiss any employee for cause by delivering to him at least fifteen calendar days before the effective date of the dismissal a statement of the specific charges, with a copy to the director. Such statement may be delivered to the employee personally or sent to him by certified mail to his last known address. If because of the circumstance and legal cause set forth in the written statement for the dismissal the Appointing Authority desires to separate the employee from the service immediately, suspension of the employee without pay pending dismissal may be effected by written notice issued in accordance with the provisions of WAC 132B-12-249. Such action shall automatically result in permanent separation at the end of the period of suspension. Suspensions pending dismissal shall be subject to limitations provided in WAC 132B-12-078 through 132B-12-105. The Appointing Authority may withdraw or modify a dismissal within fifteen calendar days after the original written notice is filed. A permanent employee so dismissed shall have the right to appeal in writing to the committee not later than thirty calendar days after the effective date of the dismissal and shall be granted a hearing as provided in WAC 132B-12-255 and 132B-12-258. [Order 1, § 132B-12-240, filed 6/4/68.]

WAC 132B-12-243 Abandonment of position. An employee who is absent from his position for three consecutive days without notice to the Appointing Authority may be considered to have abandoned his position. A notice of dismissal shall be sent by certified mail to the last known address of the employee forthwith. [Order 1, § 132B-12-243, filed 6/4/68.]

WAC 132B-12-246 Disciplinary action. Any action which reflects discredit upon the employer or is a direct hindrance to the effective performance of institutional functions shall be considered sufficient cause for disciplinary action. Sufficient cause shall include but not be limited to: Neglect of duty, inefficiency, incompetence, insubordination, indolence, conviction of a crime involving moral turpitude, malfeasance, or gross misconduct. [Order 1, § 132B-12-246, filed 6/4/68.]

WAC 132B-12-249 Suspension. The Appointing Authority may suspend an employee without pay for cause for a period or periods not exceeding thirty calendar days in any one calendar year and not exceeding fifteen calendar days for any single offense. The Appointing Authority shall notify the employee concerned in writing by certified mail, with a copy to the director, not later than one day after the suspension is made effective. Such notice shall include the specified charges for and the duration of the suspension. Any permanent employee who is suspended shall have the right to appeal to the committee not later than thirty calendar days after the effective date of such action. [Order 1, § 132B-12-249, filed 6/4/68.]

WAC 132B-12-252 Demotion. The Appointing Authority may demote an employee for cause. A written statement of the specified charges for any such action shall be furnished to the employee by certified mail and a copy filed with the director at least fifteen calendar days prior to the effective date of the action. No demotion shall be made as a disciplinary action unless the employee to be demoted is eligible for employment in the lower class, and shall not be made if any permanent employee in the lower class will be laid off by reason of the action. A permanent employee who is demoted shall have the right to appeal to the committee not later than thirty calendar days after the effective date of such action. dishonesty/classroom conduct. (1) Academic dishonesty: Honest assessment of student performance is of crucial importance to all members of the academic community. Acts of dishonesty are serious breaches of honor and shall be dealt with in the following manner:

(a) It is the responsibility of the college administration and teaching faculty to provide reasonable and prudent security measures designed to minimize opportunities for acts of academic dishonesty which occur at the college.

(b) Any student who, for the purpose of fulfilling any assignment or task required by a faculty member as part of the student's program of instruction, shall knowingly tender any work product that the student fraudulently represents to the faculty member as the student's work product, shall be deemed to have committed an act of academic dishonesty. Acts of academic dishonesty shall be cause for disciplinary action.

(c) Any student who aids or abets the accomplishment of an act of academic dishonesty, as described in subparagraph (b) above, shall be subject to disciplinary action.

(d) This section shall not be construed as preventing an instructor from taking immediate disciplinary action as provided herein when the instructor is required to act upon such breach of academic dishonesty in order to preserve order and prevent disruptive conduct in the classroom. This section shall also not be construed as preventing an instructor from adjusting the student's grade on a particular project, paper, test, or class grade for academic dishonesty.

(2) Classroom conduct: Instructors have the authority to take whatever summary actions may be necessary to maintain order and proper conduct in the classroom and to maintain the effective cooperation of the class in fulfilling the objectives of the course.

(a) Any student who, by any act of misconduct, substantially disrupts any college class by engaging in conduct that renders it difficult or impossible to maintain the decorum of the faculty member's class shall be subject to disciplinary action.

(b) The instructor of each course offered by the college shall be authorized to take such steps as may be necessary to preserve order and to maintain the effective cooperation of the class in fulfilling the objectives of the course; provided a student shall have the right to appeal such disciplinary action to the associate dean of student affairs. Although properly allowed by the college, the appearance of such speakers on the campus implies neither approval nor disapproval of them or their viewpoints. In case of speakers who are candidates for political office, equal opportunities shall be available to opposing candidates if desired by them. Speakers are subject to the normal considerations for law and order and to the specific limitations imposed by the state constitution which prohibits religious worship, exercise or instruction on state property.

(2) In order to insure an atmosphere of open exchange and to insure that the educational objectives of the college are not obscured, the president, in a case attended by strong emotional feeling, may prescribe conditions for the conduct of the meeting, such as requiring a designated member of the faculty as chairman, or requiring permission for comments and questions from the floor. Likewise, the president may encourage the appearance of one or more additional speakers at any meeting or at a subsequent meeting so that other points of view may be expressed. The president may designate representatives to recommend conditions such as time, manner, and place for the conduct of particular meetings. (2) Such handbills, leaflets, newspapers and related matter must bear identification as to the publishing agency and distributing organization or individual.

(3) All nonstudents shall register with the associate dean of student affairs prior to the distribution of any handbill, leaflet, newspaper or related matter. Such distribution or sale must not interfere with the free flow of vehicular or pedestrian traffic.

In addition, a student may appeal disciplinary action taken by an instructor or faculty member pursuant to the provisions in WAC 132B-120-180.

(2) The disciplinary official may take whatever action he deems appropriate within the framework of these regulations. If the student concludes that any sanctions imposed upon him are inappropriate, he may appeal to the student/faculty disciplinary committee.

(3) If a referral or an appeal is made to the student/faculty disciplinary committee, the committee shall hold a hearing, reach conclusions and may impose sanctions. If the student concludes that the action of the disciplinary committee is inappropriate, he may appeal the matter to the president of the college.

(a) Disciplinary warning: Constitutes oral notice of violation of college rules and regulations.

(b) Reprimand: Formal action after censuring a student for violation of college rules or regulations for failure to satisfy the college's expectations regarding conduct. Reprimands are made in writing to the student by the disciplinary official. A reprimand indicates to the student that continuation or repetition of the specific conduct involved or other misconduct will result in one or more serious disciplinary actions described below.

(c) Disciplinary probation: Formal action placing conditions upon the student's continued attendance because of his violation of college rules and regulations or failure to satisfy the college's expectations regarding conduct. The disciplinary official placing the student on probation will specify, in writing, the period of probation and the conditions, such as limiting the student's participation in extra-curricular activities. Disciplinary probation warns the student that any further misconduct will automatically raise the question of dismissal from the college. Disciplinary probation may be for a specified term or for an indefinite period which may extend to graduation or other termination of the student's enrollment in the college.

(d) Summary suspension: Temporary dismissal from the college and temporary termination of a student's status for a period of time not to exceed ten days which occurs prior to invocation of the formal hearing procedures specified in this code due to a necessity to take immediate disciplinary action, where a student presents an imminent danger to the college property, or to himself or other students or persons in college facilities on or off campus, or to the educational process of the college.

(e) Suspension: Temporary dismissal from the college and temporary termination of student status for violation of college rules and regulations or for failure to meet college standards of conduct.

(f) Expulsion: Dismissal from the college and termination of student status for violation of college rules and regulations or for failure to meet the college standards of conduct for an indefinite period of time or permanently.

(2) Refund of fees for the quarter in which disciplinary action is taken shall be in accord with the college's refund policy.

(3) A student suspended on the basis of conduct which disrupted the orderly operation of the campus or any facility of the district, may be denied access to all or any part of the campus or other facility. WAC 132B-120-140 Readmission after suspension/expulsion. Any student suspended from the college for disciplinary reasons will normally be readmitted upon expiration of the time period for which the suspension was issued. If the student has been expelled or feels that circumstances warrant reconsideration of a temporary suspension prior to its expiration, or if the student was suspended with conditions imposed for readmission, the student may be readmitted following approval of a written petition submitted to the associate dean of student affairs. Such petition must state reasons which support a reconsideration of the matter. Before readmission may be granted, such petition must be reviewed and approved by the college president or his designee. [Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.50.140(13). 80-10-053 (Order 80-1, Resolution 10-80), § 132B-120-140, filed 8/6/80.]

WAC 132B-120-150 Reestablishment of academic standing. Students who have been suspended pursuant to disciplinary procedures set forth in WAC 132B-120-120 and 132B-120-130 and whose suspension upon appeal is found to have been unwarranted shall be provided the opportunity to reestablish their academic and student standing to the extent possible within the abilities of the college, including an opportunity to retake examinations or otherwise complete course offerings missed by reason of such action. [Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.50.140(13). 80-10-053 (Order 80-1, Resolution 10-80), § 132B-120-150, filed 8/6/80.]

WAC 132B-120-160 Disciplinary authority of the associate dean of student affairs and dean of instruction.

(1) The associate dean of student affairs or, in his absence, the dean of instruction of the college is responsible for initiating disciplinary proceedings for infractions of rules and regulations as outlined in the procedures. The associate dean of student affairs or, in his absence, the dean of instruction, may delegate this responsibility to members of their staff and they may also establish committees or other hearing bodies to advise or act for them in disciplinary matters.

(2) In order that any informality in disciplinary proceedings not mislead a student as to the seriousness of the matter under consideration, the student involved shall be informed at the initial conference or hearing of the several sanctions that may be involved for the misconduct.

(3) After considering the evidence in a case and interviewing the student or students involved, the associate dean of student affairs, or in his absence, the dean of instruction, may take any of the following actions:

(a) Terminate the proceeding, exonerating the student or students.

(b) Dismiss the case after whatever counseling and advice may be appropriate.

(c) Impose disciplinary sanctions directly, subject to the student's right of appeal as described in this procedure. The student shall be notified in writing of the action taken except that disciplinary warnings may be given verbally.

(d) Refer the matter to the student/faculty disciplinary committee on conduct and standards for appropriate action. The student shall be notified in writing that the matter has been referred to the committee.

(4) This section shall not be construed as preventing the appropriate official from summarily suspending a student. In the event of summary suspension, the student will be given oral or written notice of the charges against him, an explanation of the evidence against him if he denies the charges, and an informal opportunity to present his side of the matter. He will also be given an opportunity to invoke the formal hearing process set forth in this code. [Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.50.140(13). 80-10-053 (Order 80-1, Resolution 10-80), § 132B-120-160, filed 8/6/80.]

WAC 132B-120-170 Student/faculty disciplinary committee. (1) The student/faculty disciplinary committee, convened for that purpose, will hear, de novo, and make recommendations on all disciplinary cases referred to by the appropriate authority or appeal to it by students. The committee will be composed of the following persons:

(a) a member appointed by the president of the college

(b) two members of the faculty, appointed by the president of the faculty association

(c) two representatives from the student council, appointed by the student body president.

(2) None of the above-named persons shall sit on any case in which he has a complaint or witness, in which he has a direct or personal interest, or in which he has acted previously in an advisory or official capacity. Decisions in this regard, including the selection of alternates, shall be made by the disciplinary committee as a whole. The disciplinary committee chairman will be elected by the members of the disciplinary committee.

(3) The committee may decide that the student involved:

- (a) be given a disciplinary warning;
- (b) be given a reprimand;
- (c) be placed on disciplinary probation;
- (d) be given a suspension;
- (e) be expelled;

(f) be exonerated with all proceedings terminated and with no sanctions imposed. [Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.50.140(13). 80-10-053 (Order 80-1, Resolution 10-80), § 132B-120-170, filed 8/6/80.]

WAC 132B-120-180 Procedural guidelines. (1) The student, if he wishes to appeal, has a right to a fair and impartial hearing before the committee on any charge of misconduct. His failure to cooperate with the hearing procedures, however, shall not preclude the committee from making its findings of fact, reaching conclusions and imposing sanctions. Failure of the student to cooperate may be taken into consideration by the committee in recommending penalties.

(2) The student shall be given notice of the date, time and place of the hearing, the charges against him, a list of witnesses who will appear, and a description of any documentary or other physical evidence that will be presented at the hearing. This notice shall be given to the student in writing and shall be provided in sufficient time to permit him to prepare a defense. The notice may be amended at any time prior to the hearing, but if such amendment is prejudicial to the student's case, the hearing shall be rescheduled to a later date if so requested in writing by the student.

(3) The student or his representative shall be entitled to hear and examine the evidence against him and be informed of the identity of its sources; he shall be entitled to present evidence in his own behalf and to question witnesses testifying against him as to factual matters. The student shall have all authority which is possessed by the college to obtain information or to request the presence of witnesses or the production of other evidence relevant to the issues at the hearing.

(4) Only those matters presented at the hearing, in the presence of the student involved, will be considered in determining whether he is guilty of the misconduct charged but the student's past record of conduct may be taken into account in formulating the committee's recommendation for disciplinary action.

(5) The student may be represented by counsel and/or accompanied by an advisor of his choice.

(6) Hearings conducted by the committee may be held in closed session at the discretion of the committee, the only exception being when the student involved invites particular persons or requests an open hearing. If at any time during the conduct of the hearing invited guests are disruptive of the proceedings, the chairman of the committee may exclude such persons from the hearing room.

(7) A majority of the committee shall set the time, place and available seating capacity for a hearing.

(8) All proceedings of the committee will be conducted with reasonable dispatch and terminated as soon as fairness to all parties involved permits.

(9) An adequate summary of the proceedings will be kept. As a minimum, such summary would include a tape recording of testimony. Such record will be available for inspection and copying in the office of student affairs during regular business hours.

(10) The student will be provided with a copy of the findings of fact and with the conclusions of the committee. He will also be advised of his right to present, within ten calendar days, a written statement of appeal to the president of the college before action is taken on the decision of the committee. In the case of an unmarried student under eighteen years of age, written notice of any action involving dismissal or disciplinary probation will be sent to the parents or guardian of the student.

(11) The committee chairman shall establish general rules of procedures for conducting hearings consistent with the foregoing procedural guidelines.

(12) The president of the college or his designated representative, after reviewing the case, including the report of the committee and any statement filed by the student, shall either indicate his approval of the conclusions of the committee by sustaining its decision, shall give directions as to what other disciplinary action shall be taken by modifying its decision, or shall nullify previous sanctions imposed by reversing its decision. He shall then notify the official who initiated the proceedings, the student and the committee chairperson. [Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.50.140(13). 80-10-053 (Order 80-1, Resolution 10-80), § 132B-120-180, filed 8/6/80.]

WAC 132B-120-190 Appeals. Any disciplinary action may be appealed as described below. Notice of an appeal by a student shall be made in writing and addressed to the associate dean of student affairs within ten calendar days of the college's giving of the notice of the disciplinary action.

(1) Disciplinary action by a faculty member or other college staff member may be appealed to, and shall be reviewed by, the associate dean of student affairs, or in his absence, the dean of instruction.

(2) Disciplinary action by the appropriate disciplinary official may be appealed to, and shall be reviewed by, the student/faculty disciplinary committee.

(3) Disciplinary action by the student/faculty disciplinary committee may be appealed to, and shall be reviewed by, the college president or his designee.

(4) Disciplinary action by the president shall either indicate his approval of the conclusions by sustaining the decision or shall give directions as to what other disciplinary action shall be taken by modifying the decision, or shall nullify previous sanctions imposed by reversing its decision. All appeals to the president shall be final. [Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.50.140(13). 80-10-053 (Order 80-1, Resolution 10-80), § 132B-120-190, filed 8/6/80.]

WAC 132B-120-200 Reporting, recording and maintaining records. Records of all disciplinary cases shall be kept by the disciplinary official taking or initiating the action. Except in proceedings where the student is exonerated, all documentary or other physical evidence produced or considered in disciplinary proceedings and all recorded testimony shall be preserved, insofar as possible, for not more than five years. No other records of proceedings wherein the student is exonerated, other than the fact of exoneration, shall be maintained in the student's file or other college repository after the date of the student's graduation or not more than five years. [Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.50.140(13). 80-10-053 (Order 80-1, Resolution 10-80), § 132B-120-200, filed 8/6/80.]

WAC 132B-128-010 General statement of policy. In accordance with the provisions of sections 32 through 45, chapter 283, Laws of 1969 ex. sess., as amended by chapter 5, Laws of 1970 ex. sess., the following procedures for tenure at Community College District No. 2 will be implemented as of January 29, 1973. These procedures supersede the previously adopted tenure regulations, Grays Harbor College. Granting of tenure should be the rule, not the exception; if denial of tenure becomes the rule, the hiring practices of the college shall be reevaluated.

Tenure policy statement. The only difference between a nontenured and a tenured faculty member is that the latter is evaluated periodically for the purpose of improving services and instruction and the former is evaluated regularly for the additional purpose of granting tenure. The dean of instruction shall hold an election and select a tenure review committee which will interview and evaluate the probationer and will make recommendations to the board of trustees regarding the professional qualifications of the nontenured faculty member.

It shall be the policy of Community College District No. 2 that the board of trustees, on the recommendation of the tenure review committee which has interviewed and evaluated the probationer, may grant tenure at any time between the assumption of his faculty position and the end of the three year probationary period, except that compelling reasons must be shown for the award of tenure prior to the third year of probation. [Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.50.140(13). 79-08-129 (Order 79-1, Resolution 11-79), § 132B-128-010, filed 8/1/79; Order, § 132B-128-010, filed 3/28/73.]

WAC 132B-128-020 Definitions. Faculty appointment - Full-time employment as a teacher, counselor, librarian or other position for which the training, experience and responsibilities are comparable as determined by the appointing authority, except administrative appointments; "faculty appointment" shall mean department heads, division heads and administrators to the extent that such department heads, division heads or administrators have had or do have status as a teacher, counselor, or librarian.

Full-time position - One in which the faculty member receives a contract labeled full-time and works a regular load of his division or area for any three complete quarters in one calendar year. Only special circumstances, which shall be described in writing, will permit the faculty member to work less than a regular load and retain a full-time contract.

Dismissal review committee - A committee to hear dismissal cases shall be composed of a member of the administrative staff, a student representative, and members of the teaching faculty. The representatives of the teaching faculty shall represent a majority of the members on each review committee. The members representing the teaching faculty on each review committee shall be selected by a majority of the teaching faculty and faculty division heads acting in a body as specified by the dismissal policy.

Faculty peer - One who holds a faculty appointment.

Probationer - Any individual holding a probationary faculty appointment.

Probationary faculty appointment - A faculty appointment for a designated period of time which may be terminated without sufficient cause upon expiration of the probationer's terms of employment.

Tenure - A faculty appointment for an indefinite period of time which may be revoked only for sufficient cause and by due process.

Tenure review committee - A committee composed of the probationer's faculty peers, a student representative, and a member of the administrative staff of the community college provided that the majority of the committee shall consist of the probationer's faculty peers and that the faculty members be elected as specified by the tenure policy by a majority of the faculty members.

Appointing authority – Shall mean the board of trustees of Community College District No. 2.

WAC 132B-128-030 Procedure for granting tenure.

(1) Selection of the Tenure Review Committee –

(a) A tenure review committee shall be established for each probationer. The committee shall be responsible for the probationer until he is either granted tenure or is no longer employed within Community College District No. 2. If a vacancy occurs during the terms of service of the tenure review committee members, the dean of instruction will call a special election within two weeks to fill that position.

(b) The dean of instruction shall be responsible for the establishment of each tenure review committee, which shall normally begin functioning no later than four weeks after the day that the probationer has begun his faculty duties.

(c) Each tenure review committee shall be composed of five members. There shall be automatic nomination of the appropriate division chairman to position number one. One faculty member shall be nominated by the probationer to position number two. After these nominations are made, the dean of instruction shall call an all-faculty meeting at which faculty members shall nominate one or more faculty members for position number three and may nominate faculty members for positions one and two. A vote shall be taken and the nominee receiving a majority vote for a particular position shall be elected. If no candidate for a particular position receives a majority vote, a run-off election shall be held within five days between the two candidates receiving the largest number of votes. A student representative, who shall be a full-time student, shall be appointed by Grays Harbor College student council to position number four. The president of the college shall appoint a member to position number five.

(2) Evaluation of the probationer –

If the probationer disagrees with the tenure review committee's recommendation, he shall be given an opportunity to challenge it before the college president.

(3) Final action on tenure –

(a) The final decision to award or withhold tenure shall rest with the board of trustees (appointing authority) after it has given reasonable consideration to the recommendations of the tenure review committee, and reasonable consideration to the recommendation of the college president. Any recommendations of the tenure review committee and the president shall be advisory only and not binding upon the board of trustees (appointing authority).

(b) If the probationer is not to be retained, he must be informed no later than the last day of winter quarter.

(c) If the probationer is dismissed prior to the termination of his contract, his case shall be considered by the dismissal review committee in accordance with the laws of the state of Washington and the dismissal policy of Community College District No. 2. [Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.50.140(13). 79-08-129 (Order 79-1, Resolution 11-79), § 132B-128-030, filed 8/1/79; Order, § 132B-128-030, filed 3/28/73.]

WAC 132B-128-040 Basis for dismissal. A tenured faculty member shall not be dismissed from his appointment except for sufficient cause, nor shall a faculty member who holds a probationary faculty appointment be dismissed prior to the dates established in the written terms of his appointment except for sufficient cause which is of a substantial nature and is not frivolous or inconsequential as determined by the board of trustees, and when it is determined by the board of trustees that the termination of his employment would be in the best interests of the community college district. [Order, § 132B-128-040, filed 3/28/73.]

WAC 132B-128-050 Procedures for dismissal. (1) A dismissal review committee created for the express purpose of hearing dismissal cases shall be established no later than October 15 of each academic year (except if this provision is passed after October 15 of any academic year, the dismissal review committee will be chosen within thirty days after passage of this provision), and shall be comprised of the following members:

(a) One member chosen by the college president

(b) Three faculty members chosen by the faculty and division heads acting in a body and in the following manner:

(i) Two individuals will be nominated for each of positions one, two and three by a district-wide random selection process as described in (v) below.

(ii) Two individuals will be nominated in the same manner as (i) above to run for each of three alternate positions identified as alternate one, alternate two and alternate three.

(iii) The nominees receiving a majority of the votes cast will be elected for a one-year term.

(iv) In case of a vacancy in position one, two or three occurring any time after the election, the vacancy will be filled by the alternates, beginning with alternate one.

(v) A district-wide random selection process will be developed by the president of Grays Harbor College. This selection process will be designed to remove any element of preselection or predisposition from the dismissal review committee selection process.

(c) A student representative, who shall be a full-time student, shall be appointed by the Grays Harbor College student council. The student council shall also appoint a full-time student as an alternate member to serve on the dismissal review committee should the regularly appointed member be unable to serve on the committee.

(d) The college president shall choose one alternate member to serve on the dismissal review committee should the regularly appointed member be unable to serve on the committee.

(e) The dismissal review committee will select one of its members to serve as chairman.

(2) When the president receives or initiates a formal written recommendation about a faculty member which may warrant dismissal, he shall inform that faculty member. Within ten days after having been so informed, the faculty member will be afforded an opportunity to meet with the president or his designee and the chairman of the division. At this preliminary meeting, which shall be an information-gathering session, an adjustment may be mutually agreed upon. If the matter is not settled or adjusted to the satisfaction of the college president, he shall recommend that the faculty member be dismissed.

(3) If the president recommends that the faculty member be dismissed, he shall:

(a) Deliver a short and plain statement to the faculty member which shall contain:

(i) The grounds for dismissal in reasonable particularity;

(ii) A statement of the legal authority and jurisdiction under which the hearing is to be held;

(iii) Reference to any particular statutes or rules involved.

(b) Call into action the dismissal review committee and deliver the above statement to the members of the dismissal review committee, if the professional requests a hearing.

(4) After receiving the president's recommendation for dismissal, the affected professional may request a hearing within the following five days. If the president does not receive this request within five days, the professional's right to a hearing will be deemed waived.

(5) If the president receives a request for a hearing, the dismissal review committee shall, after receiving the written recommendation from the college president, establish a date for a committee hearing giving the faculty member so charged twenty days notice of such hearing, and inform in writing the faculty member so charged of the time, date and place of such hearing.

(6) The dismissal review committee shall:

(a) Hear testimony from all interested parties, including but not limited to other faculty members and students and receive any evidence offered by same;

(b) Afford the faculty member whose case is being heard the right of cross-examination and the opportunity to defend himself and be accompanied by legal counsel;

(c) Allow the college administration to be represented by an assistant attorney general.

(7) The dismissal review committee shall include a neutral presiding officer appointed by the appointing authority. Such presiding or hearing officer shall not be a voting member of the committee; it shall be his responsibility to:

(a) Make all rulings regarding the evidentiary and procedural issues presented during the course of the dismissal review committee hearings;

(b) Meet and confer with the members of the dismissal review committee and advise them in regard to procedural and evidentiary issues considered during the course of the committee's deliberations;

(c) Appoint a court reporter, who shall operate at the direction of the presiding officer and shall record all testimony, receive all documents and other evidence introduced during the course of hearings, and record any other matters related to the hearing as directed by the presiding officer;

(d) Prepare a record which shall include:

(i) All pleadings, motions and rulings;

(ii) All evidence received or considered;

(iii) A statement of any matters officially noticed;

(iv) All questions and offers of proof, objections and rulings thereon;

(v) Proposed findings and exceptions;

(vi) A copy of the recommendations of the dismissal review committee.

(8) A copy of the above shall be transcribed and furnished upon request to the faculty member whose case is being heard.

(9) The hearing shall be closed. However, interested parties, including but not limited to faculty members and students, will be given an opportunity to present evidence.

(10) Within ten college calendar days of the conclusion of the hearing, the dismissal review committee will arrive at its recommendations in conference on the basis of the hearing. Before doing so, it should give the faculty member or his counsel(s) and the representative designated by the president of the college the opportunity to argue orally before it. If written briefs would be helpful, the dismissal review committee may request them. The dismissal review committee may proceed to a recommendation promptly or await the availability of a transcript if making a fair recommendation would be aided thereby. Within fifteen college calendar days of the conclusion of the hearing the president of the college, the faculty member and the board of trustees will be presented with recommendations in writing and given a copy of the record of the hearing.

(11) The board of trustees shall meet within a reasonable time subsequent to its receipt of the dismissal review committee recommendations to consider those recommendations. The board of trustees shall afford the parties the right to oral and written argument with respect to whether they will dismiss the faculty member involved. The board of trustees may hold such other proceedings as they deem advisable before reaching their decision. A record of the proceedings at the board level shall be made and the final decision shall be based only upon the record made before the board and the dismissal review committee, including the briefs and oral arguments. The decision to dismiss or not to dismiss shall rest, with respect to both the facts and the decision, with the board of trustees after giving reasonable consideration to the recommendations of the dismissal review committee. The dismissal review committee's recommendations shall be advisory only and in no respect binding in fact or law upon the decision maker, the board of trustees. The board of trustees shall within fifteen days following the conclusion of their review, notify the charged faculty member in writing of its final decision.

(12) Suspension of the faculty member by the president during the administrative proceedings involving him (prior to the final decision of the board of trustees) is justified if immediate harm to himself or others is threatened by his continuance. Any such suspension shall be with pay.

(13) Except for such simple announcements as may be required covering the time of the hearing and similar matters, no public statements about the case shall be made by the faculty member, the dismissal review committee or administrative officers of the board of trustees until all administrative proceedings and appeals have been completed.

(14) Any dismissed faculty member shall have the right to appeal the final decision of the board of trustees within ten days of the receipt of the notice of dismissal. The filing of an appeal shall not stay enforcement of the decision of the board of trustees.

(15) If the president of Grays Harbor College initiates a formal written recommendation that a faculty member be dismissed and the board of trustees decides to retain the faculty member, or if the trustees' decision to dismiss a faculty member is reversed by a court, all evidence concerning the dismissal will be removed from the faculty member's permanent personnel file if the reason for the denial of the recommendation was the president's failure to establish the facts which were the basis for the dismissal recommendation.

If the facts which were the basis for the dismissal recommendation were shown to the satisfaction of the trustees and the courts, but the dismissal recommendation was not followed because the trustees or the courts decided that the facts were not sufficient to warrant dismissal, the facts which were shown would be retained in the faculty member's permanent personnel file along with a record of the outcome of the dismissal proceeding.

If the facts are to be retained in the faculty member's permanent personnel file, the faculty member will be given an opportunity to review the facts and to write an explanation which will be retained along with the findings of fact. [Statutory Authority: RCW

WAC 132B-128-100 Academic employee reduction procedure. If an academic employee with a full-time faculty appointment is to be laid off for program termination or reduction, decreases in enrollment, changes in educational policy or substantial evidence of a serious shortage of funds, the Grays Harbor College Policies and Procedures for Tenure and Dismissal will be utilized and the following criteria and procedures will be used:

(1) The president, with consultation from his administrative staff, will review the nature of the problem facing the college. If the president determines that reductions in staff are or will be necessary in the near future, he will give notice of the potential reductions to the recognized academic employee organization. The notice which the president gives to the recognized academic employee organization shall include:

(a) The reasons for the proposed reductions in force;

(b) The number of academic employees to be considered for layoff.

(2) The recognized academic employee organization will then have the right to meet with the president who shall fully document the need for such reductions in staff. The president shall present and explain the major criteria to be used to identify those to be laid off. If any courses currently in the curriculum are expected to be eliminated, he shall identify those courses and explain why they have been judged not to be the most necessary course offerings to maintain the best possible quality educational opportunities at Grays Harbor College.

(3) The need for a reduction in force will be determined on the basis of the need for reduction in each division of Grays Harbor College.

(4) The divisions at Grays Harbor College, for purposes of this document, shall be Business Administration, English-Speech, Health and Physical Education, Humanities, Life Sciences, Physical Science and Mathematics, Social Science, Vocational-Technical, Administration, Library, and Student Services.

(5) Within a reasonable time after the start of the fall quarter of each year, the dean of instruction, with advice from the appropriate division chairman, shall assign each academic employee to a division. An academic employee may not be a member of more than one division. (If this code is passed during the school year, the dean of instruction shall assign the academic employees to their respective divisions within a reasonable period of time after passage of this code.)

(6) If the number of academic employees is to be reduced, the president, with advice from the dean of instruction and division chairmen, shall decide in the case of each affected division what course offerings and/or other services are most necessary to maintain quality education at Grays Harbor College. The president shall consider but not be limited to the following factors:

(a) The enrollment and the trends in enrollment for not less than four consecutive quarters, if applicable, and their effect upon each division;

(b) The goals and objectives of Grays Harbor College and the State Board for Community College Education;

(c) Information concerning faculty and administrative vacancies occurring through retirement, resignation, sabbaticals and leaves of absence.

(7) Those duties associated with the course offerings and/or other services determined to be most necessary at Grays Harbor College will be considered needed duties of an academic employee.

(8) The president's determination of the most necessary course offerings and/or other services is not subject to review by the dismissal review committee.

(9) If a reduction is necessary within a division, the following order of layoff will be utilized provided there are qualified academic employees to replace and perform all the needed duties of the academic employees to be laid off: First, part-time academic employees; second, probationary appointees with the least seniority; third, full-time tenured academic employees with the least seniority.

(10) Seniority shall be determined by establishing the date of the signing of the first full-time contract for the most recent period of continuous full-time professional service for Grays Harbor College which shall include leaves of absence, sabbatical leaves, and periods of lay-offs. (This shall include professional services for the Aberdeen School District No. 5 prior to July 1, 1967, if assigned to Grays Harbor College.) The longest terms of employment as thus established shall be considered the highest level of seniority. In instances where academic employees have the same beginning date of full-time professional services, seniority shall be determined in the following order:

(a) First date of the signature of a letter of intent to accept employment;

(b) First date of application for employment.

(11) An academic employee shall be qualified to instruct courses which the president, with advice from the dean of instruction and the appropriate division chairman, determines the academic employee is qualified to instruct. The president's determination of what duties an academic employee is qualified to perform is not subject to review by the dismissal review committee.

(12) A full-time tenured academic employee whose contract was not renewed as a result of this academic employee staff reduction procedure has a right to recall to any teaching position, either a newly created one or a vacancy, providing he is qualified as determined by the college president. The recall shall be in reversed seniority, the most senior first. The right of recall shall extend three years from the date of layoff. Full-time tenured academic employees who have been laid off will retain all accrued benefits, such as sick leave and seniority. Upon recall they shall be placed at least at the next higher increment on the salary schedule than at the time of layoff and will retain their tenured status. [Order, § 132B-128-100, filed 3/28/73.]
