WAC 44-01-050 Definitions. The term "charitable trust" in the charitable trust act and in these regulations unless otherwise limited is deemed to mean any relationship whereby real or personal property is held for a charitable purpose or purposes: Provided, Such term shall not include any such relationship which is established for the purpose of making distributions only to individuals or organizations who are expressly named in the governing instrument and for no other charitable purposes. It includes but is not limited to express trusts created by will or by deed, or the trust relationship which may be created by the articles of incorporation or other governing instrument of a charitable corporation, association or foundation. The term "trustee," unless otherwise limited, includes any legal entity, irrespective of its character, which holds a vested legal title to, and control over, real or personal property for any charitable purpose under the terms or provisions of a charitable trust.

The term "trustee" excludes any persons or legal entities who are mere titleholders or custodians or depositaries of property which is held for charitable purposes, and who have no powers or duties relative to the administration of such property, except as otherwise provided in these regulations. The term "charitable trust act" means the Washington charitable trust act, chapter 53, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and amendments thereto. [Order 103, § 44-01-050, filed 12/8/71; Order 101, § 44-01-050, filed 12/8/67, effective 1/8/68.]

(3) Schools. Educational institutions, of a nonprofit and charitable nature, having a course of studies equivalent to that of a public school or college operated by the state of Washington or a school district of the state of Washington. If any such alternative form is utilized and does not contain substantially all the information required by these rules, the form shall have attached to it one or more supplementary sheets providing such information. [Order 103, § 44-01-100, filed 12/8/71; Order 102, § 44-01-100, filed 5/8/69; Order 101, § 44-01-100, filed 12/8/67, effective 1/8/68.]

WAC 44-01-110 Annual or periodic reports—

Time for filing. The first annual report shall cover the first calendar or other fiscal year (as determined for federal tax reporting purposes) of the trust ending after the trust becomes subject to the act, whether or not such report covers a full twelve-month period. The report shall be filed on or before the fifteenth day of the sixth month after the close of said first calendar or other fiscal year.

Every trustee of a charitable trust subject to the reporting provisions of the charitable trust act shall, subsequent to the filing of the first annual report, file an annual report for each subsequent year during the existence of the trust except as herein provided. All such subsequent annual reports shall cover the twelve-month period ending with the calendar or other fiscal year of the trust, and they shall be due on or before the fifteenth day of the sixth month after the close of such calendar or other fiscal year. A trust or other organization which commences reporting on either a calendar or fiscal year basis shall continue such method of reporting unless the attorney general permits a different method of reporting as provided in these regulations.

If any part of the income or principal of the charitable trust or corporation previously established was authorized or required to be applied to a charitable purpose on or before July 30, 1967, the first annual report shall be filed on or before January 31, 1968, unless filing of such report is suspended for any reason under the provisions of section 7, chapter 53, Laws of 1967 ex. sess.

If any part of the income or principal of a charitable trust or corporation previously exempted was authorized or required to be applied to a charitable purpose on or before August 9, 1971, the first annual report shall be filed on or before the fifteenth day of the sixth month after the close of the trust or corporation's first calendar or fiscal year ending after August 9, 1971.

The attorney general may suspend the filing of reports as to a particular trust for a reasonable, specifically designated time upon written application of the trustee filed with the attorney general, and after the attorney general has filed in the register of charitable trusts a written statement that the interests of the beneficiaries will not be prejudiced thereby and periodic reports are not required for proper supervision by his office. [Order 103, § 44-01-110, filed 12/8/71; Order 101, § 44-01-110, filed 12/8/67, effective 1/8/68.]

All such registration and annual reports and other reports and information shall be submitted to the attorney general, charitable trust division, temple of justice, Olympia, Washington, unless otherwise directed by the attorney general. [Order 101, § 44-01-130, filed 12/8/67, effective 1/8/68.]

WAC 44-01-140 Notification of litigation.

As provided in section 12, chapter 53, Laws of 1967 ex. sess., the charitable trust act, the attorney general shall be notified of all judicial proceedings involving or affecting the charitable trust or its administration in which, at common law, he is a necessary or proper party as representative of the public beneficiaries. Notification shall be given by the trustee or the attorney for the trustee in the manner provided by the charitable trust act. Cases of which the attorney general shall be notified shall include, but are not necessarily limited to, the following:

- (1) An action to dissolve a charitable trust or trustee;
- (2) An action alleging mismanagement or breach of trust on the part of a trustee;

(3) An action by trustees or others requesting directions from the court as to management of the trust;

(4) Any action involving an application or request for application of the doctrine of cy pres;

(5) An action to approve the disposition of assets wherein, if the trust were a private trust, one or more beneficiaries of such trust would have the right to be represented and to be heard. [Order 101, § 44-01-140, filed 12/8/67, effective 1/8/68.]

WAC 44-01-150 Duty to furnish information—In general. The trustees of all trusts subject to the charitable trust act, and all other persons to whom the provisions of the act apply, shall furnish such further information and copies of records or other documents as and in the manner required from time to time by the attorney general in order to establish, maintain and keep current his register of trustees as provided by law, or for any other lawful purpose contemplated by the charitable trust act. A request for information shall be in writing, signed by the attorney general or his representative, specifying as precisely as practicable the nature of the information desired and the nature of the instruments, reports, records, or other documents copies of which are requested for that purpose. Every person to whom such written request is directed, having such information or documents, shall comply with said written request within thirty days after its receipt, unless the time is extended in writing.

The procedures specified in this regulation for the gathering of information are intended to supplement and not limit the powers of the attorney general expressly granted in sections 10, 11 and 12, chapter 53, Laws of 1967 ex. sess., or any other law. [Order 101, § 44-01-150, filed 12/8/67, effective 1/8/68.]

WAC 44-01-160 Register—Inspection. The attorney general will maintain the register of trustees in book or other suitable form, in which each trust or other relationship subject to the Washington charitable trust act shall be recorded, together with all information pertinent thereto which the attorney general deems necessary in the public interest.

The register and records of any charitable trust registered in the office of attorney general are matters of public record and shall be subject to reasonable inspection between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m. on any day on which the attorney general's office is open for business.

When any trust instrument contains a trust for mixed purposes, and any one or more of such purposes is a private charity rather than a public charity, such document shall be withheld from public inspection. [Order 101, § 44-01-160, filed 12/8/67, effective 1/8/68.]

WAC 44-01-170 When trust becomes subject to act—Vested remainders. A trust is not exclusively for charitable purposes, within the meaning of RCW 19.10.040, when the instrument creating it contains a trust for several or mixed purposes, and any one or more of such purposes is not charitable within the meaning of RCW

19.10.020, as enacted or hereafter amended. Such instrument shall be withheld from public inspection by the attorney general and no information as to such noncharitable purposes shall be made public.

Annual reporting of such trusts to the attorney general, as now required by RCW 19.10.060 or 19.10.070, or as hereafter amended, and by these regulations shall commence within one year after trust income or principal is authorized or required to be used for a charitable purpose.

When a trust consists of a vested charitable remainder preceded by a term or life estate, a copy of the instrument only shall be filed by the trustee or by the term or life tenant, within two months after commencement of the term or life estate. Registration and annual reporting as required by RCW 19.10.060 or 19.10.070 (as the same may be hereafter amended) and by these regulations shall be required only upon the termination of such term or life estate or when trust income or principal is authorized or required to be used for a charitable purpose, whichever occurs first.

If the trust instrument contains only contingent gifts or remainders to charitable purposes, no charitable trust shall be deemed created until a charitable gift or remainder is legally vested. The first registration or report of such trust shall be filed within two months after trust income or principal is authorized or required to be used for a charitable purpose. [Order 103, § 44-01-170, filed 12/8/71; Order 101, § 44-01-170, filed 12/8/67, effective 1/8/68.]

WAC 44-01-180 Regulations—Amendments. These regulations may be amended at any time and from time to time by the attorney general. [Order 101, § 44-01-180, filed 12/8/67, effective 1/8/68.]

WAC 44-06-050 Index. The attorney general's office biennial reports have indexed by subject matter the published opinions of the attorney general. A card index is maintained in the Central Office, Temple of Justice, Olympia, Washington, indexing all attorney general opinions (published and unpublished) by subject matter and by statute. Appellate briefs filed by the office of the attorney general are card indexed by subject and case name in the same office.

A card index is maintained in the Central Office, Temple of Justice, Olympia, Washington, for cases which have been filed involving the state, giving the name, the county and the cause number. For cases involving the Department of Labor and Industries a comparable card index file is maintained in the Attorney General's Office, Dexter-Horton Building, Seattle, Washington.

The volume of correspondence received by the attorney general's office is such that it would be unduly burdensome to formulate and maintain an index for all such correspondence. In lieu of an index the following filing system is utilized.

(1) Consumer protection complaints received by the Seattle Consumer Protection Division are filed by firm name of the subject of the complaint, or by the subject matter of the complaint if no specific firm is named.

(2) Letters from the public and the responses thereto are filed in the Central Office, Temple of Justice, Olympia, Washington, by alphabetical batching for specific time periods.

(3) Letters to and from agencies are filed in the Central Office, Temple of Justice, Olympia, Washington, by the name of the agency in a chronological sequence. [Order 102, § 44-06-050, filed 2/20/74.]

WAC 44-06-060 Public records officer. The public records officer for the attorney general's office shall be the administrative assistant to the attorney general for all records maintained in the Central Office, Temple of Justice, Olympia, Washington. For those records maintained at other locations, the assistant attorney general in charge of the legal division having custody of the records shall be the public records officer. WAC 44-06-080 Requests for public records. In accordance with requirements of chapter 1, Laws of 1973 that agencies prevent unreasonable invasions of privacy, protect public records from damage or disorganization, and prevent excessive interference with essential functions of the agency, public records may be inspected or copies of such records may be obtained, by members of the public, upon compliance with the following procedures:

(1) A request shall be made in writing upon a form prescribed by the office which shall be available at the offices where records are maintained. The form shall be presented to the public records officer; or to a member of the staff designated by him, if the public records officer is not available, at the office during the office hours specified in WAC 44-06-070. The request shall include the following information:

(a) The name of the person requesting the record;

(b) The time of day and calendar date on which the request was made;

(c) The nature of the request;

(d) If the matter requested is referenced within the current index maintained by the records officer, a reference to the requested record as it is described in such current index;

(e) If the requested matter is not identifiable by reference to the office's current index, an appropriate description of the record requested.

(2) In all cases in which a member of the public is making a request, it shall be the obligation of the public records officer or designated staff member to whom the request is made, to assist the member of the public in appropriately identifying the public record requested. [Order 102, § 44-06-080, filed 2/20/74.]

WAC 44-06-090 Copying fees. No fee shall be charged for the inspection of a public record. The office, however, will for requests under this chapter charge one dollar for the first ten pages and ten cents per copy for additional pages. These charges are necessary to reimburse the office for the costs of providing the copies of the public records and the use of the copying equipment. Payment should be made by check to the attorney general's office. [Order 102, § 44-06-090, filed 2/20/74.]

WAC 44-06-100 Protection of public records. The public records officer shall to the extent practicable insure that records requested are not removed from the premises nor portions thereof removed by members of the public. [Order 102, § 44-06-100, filed 2/20/74.]

WAC 44-06-110 Exemptions. (1) The office reserves the right to determine that a public record requested in accordance with the procedures outlined in WAC 44-06-080 is exempt under the provisions of RCW 42.17.310.

(2) In addition, pursuant to RCW 42.17.260, the office reserves the right to delete identifying details when it makes available or publishes any public record, in any cases when there is reason to believe that disclosure of such details would be an invasion of personal privacy protected by chapter 1, Laws of 1973. The public records officer will fully justify such deletion in writing.

(3) All denials of requests for public records must be accompanied by a written statement specifying the reason for the denial, including a statement of the specific exemption authorizing the withholding of the record and a brief explanation of how the exemption applies to the record withheld. [Order 102, § 44-06-110, filed 2/20/74.]

WAC 44-06-120 Review of denials of public records requests. (1) Any person who objects to the denial of a request for a public record may petition for prompt review of such decision by tendering a written request for review. The written request shall specifically refer to the written statement by the public records officer or other staff member which constituted or accompanied the denial.

(2) Immediately after receiving a written request for review of a decision denying a public record, the public records officer or other staff member denying the request shall refer it to the attorney general or his designated deputy attorney general. The attorney general or his designee shall immediately consider the matter and either affirm or reverse such denial within five business days following the original denial.

(3) Administrative remedies shall not be considered exhausted until the attorney general or the designated deputy attorney general has returned the petition with a decision or until the close of the fifth business day following denial of inspection, whichever occurs first. [Order 102, § 44-06-120, filed 2/20/74.]

WAC 44-06-130 Consumer protection complaints. Unless a complainant on a consumer protection matter specifically provides to the contrary, the consumer protection division is authorized when it deems it appropriate to forward a copy of the letter of complaint to the firm which is the subject of the complaint. [Order 102, § 44-06-130, filed 2/20/74.]

WAC 44-06-140 Adoption of form. The attorney general's office hereby adopts use by all persons requesting inspection and/or copies of records of the form set out below, entitled "request for public records."
