[Order II, § 446-08-250, filed 11/22/74.]

The notice shall state the time and place for taking the deposition, the name and address of each person to be examined, if known, and if the name is not known a general description sufficient to identify him or the particular class or group to which he belongs. On motion of a party upon whom the notice is served, the hearing officer or board may for cause shown, enlarge or shorten the time. If the parties so stipulate in writing, depositions may be taken before any person, at any time or place, upon any notice, and in any manner and when so taken may be used as other depositions. [Order II, § 446-08-260, filed 11/22/74.]

WAC 446-08-270 Protection of parties and deponents. After notice is served for taking a deposition, upon its own motion or upon motion reasonably made by any party or by the person to be examined and upon notice and for good cause shown, the hearing officer or board may make an order that the deposition shall not be taken, or that it may be taken only at some designated place other than that stated in the notice, or that it may be taken only on written interrogatories, or that certain matters shall not be inquired into, or that the scope of the examination shall be limited to certain matters, or that the examination shall be held with no one present except the parties to the action and their officers or counsel, or that after being sealed, the deposition shall be opened only by order of the hearing officer or board or that business secrets or secret processes, developments, or research need not be disclosed or that the parties shall simultaneously file specified documents, or information enclosed in sealed envelopes to be opened as directed by the hearing officer or board or the hearing officer or board may make any other order which justice requires to protect the party or witness from annoyance, embarrassment or oppression. At any time during the taking of the deposition, on motion of any party or of the deponent and upon a showing that the examination is being conducted in bad faith or in such a manner as unreasonably to annoy, embarrass, or oppress the deponent or party, the hearing officer or board may order the officer conducting the examination to cease forthwith from taking the deposition as above provided. If the order made terminates the examination, it shall be resumed thereafter only upon the order of the hearing officer or board. Upon demand of the objecting party or deponent, the taking of the deposition shall be suspended for the time necessary to make a motion for an order. [Order II, § 446-08-270, filed 11/22/74.]

WAC 446-08-280 Oral examination and cross-examination. Examination and cross-examination shall proceed as at an oral hearing. In lieu of participating in the oral examination, any party served with notice of taking a deposition may transmit written cross interrogatories to the deposing officer who, without first disclosing them to any person, and after the direct testimony is complete, shall propound them seriatim to the deponent and record or cause the answers to be recorded verbatim. [Order II, § 446-08-280, filed 11/22/74.]

WAC 446-08-290 Recordation. The officer before whom the deposition is to be taken shall put the witness on oath and shall personally or by someone acting under his direction and in his presence, record the testimony by typewriter directly or by transcription from stenographic notes, tape or record recorders, which record shall separately and consecutively number each interrogatory. Objections to the notice, qualifications of the officer taking the deposition, or to the manner of taking it, or to the evidence presented or to the conduct of the deposing officer, or of any party, shall be noted by the officer upon the deposition. All objections by any party not so made are waived. [Order II, § 446-08-290, filed 11/22/74.]

WAC 446-08-300 Signing attestation and return. (1) When the testimony is fully transcribed, the deposition shall be submitted to the witness for examination and shall be read to or by him. Unless such examination and reading are waived by the witness and by the parties. Any changes in form or substance which the witness desires to make shall be entered upon the deposition by the officer with a statement of the reasons given by the witness for making them. The deposition shall then be signed by the witness, unless the parties by stipulation waive the signing or the witness is ill or cannot be found or refuses to sign. If the deposition is not signed by the witness, the officer shall sign it and state on the record the fact of the waiver or of the illness or absence of the witness or the fact of the refusal to sign together with the reason, if any, given therefor; and the deposition may then be used as fully as though signed, unless on a motion to suppress, the hearing officer or board holds that the reasons given for the refusal to sign require rejection of the deposition in whole or in part.

(2) The officer shall certify on the deposition that the witness was duly sworn by him and that the deposition is a true record of the testimony given by the witness. He shall then securely seal the deposition in an envelope endorsed with the title of the proceeding and marked "Deposition of (here insert name of witness)" and shall promptly send it by registered or certified mail to the hearing officer or board for filing. The party taking the deposition shall give prompt notice of its filing to all other parties. Upon payment of reasonable charges therefore, the officer shall furnish a copy of the deposition to any party or to the deponent. [Order II, § 446-08-300, filed 11/22/74.]

WAC 446-08-310 Use and effect. Subject to rulings by the hearing officer or board upon objections, a deposition taken and filed as provided in this rule will not become a part of the record in the proceeding until received in evidence by the hearing officer upon his own motion or the motion of any party. Except by agreement of the parties or ruling of the hearing officer or board, a deposition will be received only in its entirety. A party does not make a party, or the privy of a party, or any hostile witness his witness by taking his deposition. Any party may rebut any relevant evidence contained in a deposition whether introduced by him or any other party. [Order II, § 446-08-310, filed 11/22/74.]

WAC 446-08-320 Fees of officers and deponents. Deponents whose depositions are taken and the officers taking the same shall be entitled to the same fees as are paid for like services in the superior courts of the state of Washington, which fees shall be paid by the party at whose instance the depositions are taken. [Order II, § 446-08-320, filed 11/22/74.]

WAC 446-08-330 Depositions upon interrogatories—Submission of interrogatories. Where the deposition is taken upon written interrogatories, the party offering the testimony shall separately and consecutively number each interrogatory and file and serve them with a notice stating the name and address of the person who is to answer them and the name or descriptive title and address of the officer before whom they are to be taken. Within ten days thereafter a party so served may serve cross-interrogatories upon the party proposing to take the deposition. Within five days thereafter, the latter may serve redirect interrogatories upon the party who served cross-interrogatories. [Order II, § 446-08-330, filed 11/22/74.]

WAC 446-08-340 Interrogation. Where the interrogatories are forwarded to an officer authorized to administer oaths as provided in WAC 446-08-250, the officer taking the same after duly swearing the deponent shall read to him seriatim, one interrogatory at a time and cause the same and the answer thereto to be recorded before the succeeding interrogatory is asked. No one except the deponent, the officer and the court reporter or stenographer recording and transcribing it shall be present during the interrogation. [Order II, § 446-08-340, filed 11/22/74.]

WAC 446-08-350 Attestation and return. The officer before whom interrogatories are verified or answered shall (1) certify under his official signature and seal that the deponent was duly sworn by him, that the interrogatories and answers are a true record of the deponent's testimony, that no one except deponent, the officer and the stenographer were present during the taking, and that neither he nor the stenographer, to his knowledge, is a party, privy to a party, or interested in the event of the proceedings, and (2) promptly send by registered or certified mail the original copy of the deposition and exhibits with his attestation to the agency, or its designated hearing officer, one copy to the counsel who submitted the interrogatories and another copy to the deponent. [Order II, § 446-08-350, filed 11/22/74.]

WAC 446-08-360 Provisions of deposition rule. In all other respects, depositions upon interrogatories shall be governed by the previous deposition rule. [Order II, § 446-08-360, filed 11/22/74.]

WAC 446-16-060 Disposition reports—When required. In every case where a fingerprint record or other report of the arrest of an individual on criminal charges has been submitted to the Section, the agency which makes the final determination of such criminal charges or in whose jurisdiction the final determination is made shall report the disposition of such charges to the Section. [Order 1, § 446-16-060, filed 2/11/74.]

WAC 446-16-070 Report contents—General. The report of disposition shall be made on forms provided by the Section. The name of the subject about which the report is made, the designated fingerprints of the subject, the name of the original contributor of the fingerprint or arrest record, and the original arrest number shall be entered on the disposition report exactly the same as they appear on the fingerprint card or arrest record previously forwarded to the Section. The Section number should be indicated on the disposition report if known. [Order 1, § 446-16-070, filed 2/11/74.]

WAC 446-16-080 Report time limitations. All of the information requested on the disposition report shall be completed and the report mailed to the Washington State Identification Section, P.O. Box 2527, Olympia, Washington 98504, within 10 days of the date that a disposition becomes effective. [Order 1, § 446-16-080, filed 2/11/74.]

WAC 446-16-090 Law enforcement agencies—Reporting responsibilities. (1) If the disposition of criminal charges is made by the arresting agency, as where the individual is released without charge, the arresting agency shall fill in and complete the disposition report and mail same to the Section. If the disposition is known at the time and arrest record or fingerprint card is submitted to the Section, this information should be noted thereon. In this case, it shall be unnecessary to forward a disposition report.

(2) In all cases where the arresting agency does not make the final disposition, it shall initiate the preparation of a disposition report by recording the name of the individual arrested, the designated fingerprints of the individual, the charges on which he was arrested, the name of the contributor of the arrest or fingerprint record, the arrest number and any other information that may identify the individual. At this stage the disposition of charges shall be left blank, but the agency shall note the action that it has taken, e.g., referred to the prosecutor, etc. The partially completed disposition report shall then be included as part of the individual's case file and shall be forwarded with other information concerning the charges against the individual to the prosecutor or other agency to which the arresting agency forwards the case. [Order 1, § 446-16-090, filed 2/11/74.]

WAC 446-16-100 Prosecutorial agencies—Reporting responsibilities. (1) The prosecutor or city attorney shall complete the disposition report if he determines not to press charges or the case is not otherwise acted upon by a judicial body. In such cases, the prosecutor or city attorney shall mail the completed disposition report to the Section within 10 days from the date that it is determined no further judicial action will be taken on the charges. [Order 1, § 446-16-100, filed 2/11/74.]

WAC 446-16-110 Courts—Reporting responsibilities. Where the disposition of criminal charges occurs as a result of action taken by or within the jurisdiction of any court in the State of Washington, the disposition of such charges shall be reported to the Section pursuant to Rules of the Supreme Court of the State of Washington on forms approved by the Supreme Court and supplied by the Section. [Order 1, § 446-16-110, filed 2/11/74.]

The Section shall administer a compliance audit procedure at least once annually to insure that all disposition reports have been received and added to the criminal offender record information. The Section shall prepare listings of all criminal offender record information for which no disposition report has been received and has been outstanding for more than 9 months since the date of arrest. Each criminal justice agency shall be furnished with a list of outstanding disposition reports for criminal offender record information of persons who were arrested or against whom charges were filed by that agency. Within 30 days of receipt of such list each criminal justice agency shall provide the Section with a current disposition report or status report for each person for whom a disposition report is overdue. [Order 1, § 446-16-120, filed 2/11/74.]

WAC 446-20-010 General applicability. The regulations in this chapter shall apply to state and local criminal justice agencies in the state of Washington that collect and maintain or disseminate criminal history record information. The regulations shall also apply to criminal justice or other agencies outside the jurisdiction of the state of Washington for the purpose of the dissemination of criminal history record information to other agencies by state of Washington criminal justice agencies. The provisions of chapter 10.97 RCW do not generally apply to the courts and court record keeping agencies. The courts and court record keeping agencies have the right to request and receive criminal history record information from criminal justice agencies. The regulations are intended to cover all criminal justice records systems that contain criminal history record information, whether the systems are manual or automated. Chapter 10.97 RCW defines the rights and privileges relating to criminal history record information and should not be interpreted to redefine or amend rights or privileges relevant to any other kinds of records or information. [Statutory Authority: RCW 10.97.080 and 10.97.090. 80-08-057 (Order 80-2), § 446-20-010, filed 7/1/80.]

(3) "The administration of criminal justice" has the meaning set forth in RCW 10.97.030(6), but does not include crime prevention activities (if that is the sole function of the program or agency) or criminal defense activities. [Statutory Authority: RCW 10.97.080 and 10.97.090. 80-08-057 (Order 80-2), § 446-20-020, filed 7/1/80.]

WAC 446-20-030 Convictions under appeal or review. A conviction followed by an appeal or other court review may be treated as conviction information or as information pertaining to an incident for which a subject is currently being processed by the criminal justice system until such time as the conviction is reversed, vacated, or otherwise overturned by a court; but, notations of pending appeals or other court review shall be included as a part of a person's criminal record if the agency disseminating the record has received written confirmation of such proceedings from the court. [Statutory Authority: RCW 10.97.080 and 10.97.090. 80-08-057 (Order 80-2), § 446-20-030, filed 7/1/80.]

WAC 446-20-040 Deferred prosecutions. A deferred prosecution of an alleged offender does not become nonconviction data until there is a final decision to dismiss charges or not to prosecute. [Statutory Authority: RCW 10.97.080 and 10.97.090. 80-08-057 (Order 80-2), § 446-20-040, filed 7/1/80.]

The Washington state patrol shall certify such an agency, based on a showing that the agency devotes a substantial portion of its annual budget to, and has as a primary function, the administration of criminal justice. Agencies which assert their right to be certified as a criminal justice agency shall submit a written request for certification to the Washington state patrol on the form provided under WAC 446-20-430.

(2) A noncriminal justice agency that asserts a right to receive nonconviction criminal history record information shall show satisfactory evidence of certification to receive such information. criminal history record information, and which authorizes or directs that it be available or accessible for a specific purpose.

(3) The application shall include documentary evidence which establishes eligibility for access to criminal history record information.

(4) The Washington state patrol shall make a finding in writing on the eligibility or noneligibility of the applicant. The written finding, together with reasons for the decisions, shall be sent to the applicant.

(5) The Washington state patrol shall keep a current list of all agencies that have been certified to receive criminal history record information. [Statutory Authority: RCW 10.97.080 and 10.97.090. 80-08-057 (Order 80-2), § 446-20-060, filed 7/1/80.]

Every criminal justice agency shall permit an individual who is, or believes he may be, the subject of a criminal record maintained by that agency to come to the central records keeping office of that agency during its normal business hours and request to inspect said criminal history record.

To the extent that CHRI exists (which includes and shall be limited to identifiable descriptions and notations of arrests, detentions, indictments, informations, or other formal criminal charges, and any dispositions arising therefrom, including sentences, correctional supervision and release) is interfiled with other records of the department the agency may extract the CHRI for review. (2) Any person desiring to inspect criminal history record information pertaining to himself shall first permit his fingerprints to be taken by the criminal justice agency for identification purposes, if requested to do so. The criminal justice agency in its discretion may accept other identification in lieu of fingerprints.

(3) A reasonable period of time, not to exceed thirty minutes, shall be allowed each individual to examine criminal history record information pertaining to himself.

(4) Visual examination only shall be permitted of such information unless the individual asserts his belief that criminal history record information concerning him is inaccurate, or incomplete; and unless he requests correction or completion of the information on a form furnished by the criminal justice agency, or requests expungement pursuant to RCW 10.97.060. Retention or reproduction of nonconviction data is authorized only when it is the subject of challenge.

(5) If any person who desires to examine criminal history record information pertaining to himself is unable to read or is otherwise unable to examine same because of a physical disability, he may designate another person of his own choice to assist him. The person about whom the information pertains shall execute, with his mark, a form provided by the criminal justice agency consenting to the inspection of criminal history information pertaining to himself by another person for the purpose of it being read or otherwise described to him. WAC 446-20-100 Inspection--Timeliness and manner of agency response. (1) A criminal justice agency not maintaining criminal history record information of the individual requesting inspection shall not be obligated to further processing of inspection request.

(2) A criminal justice agency maintaining criminal history record information of the individual requesting inspection shall respond in the manner following and as soon as administratively convenient, but in no event later than ten business days from the date of the receipt of the request.

(a) If the criminal history record information concerns offenses for which fingerprints were not submitted to the identification section, the agency shall respond by disclosing the identifiable descriptions and notations of arrests, charges, and dispositions that are contained in the files of the agency.

(b) If the criminal history record information concerns offenses for which fingerprints were submitted to the identification section, the agency upon request of the subject of the record, shall forward the request to the identification section for processing.

(c) At the identification section the request shall cause a copy of all Washington state criminal history record information in the files of the identification section relating to the individual requester to be forwarded to the criminal justice agency submitting the request.

(d) Upon receipt by the criminal justice agency of the requester's criminal history record information from the identification section, the agency shall notify the requester at his designated address or telephone number that the requested information is available for inspection. The subject of the criminal history record information must appear at the agency during its normal business hours for purpose of inspecting the record. [Statutory Authority: RCW 10.97.080 and 10.97.090. 80-08-057 (Order 80-2), § 446-20-100, filed 7/1/80.]

[Statutory Authority: RCW 10.97.080 and 10.97.090. 80-08-057 (Order 80-2), § 446-20-110, filed 7/1/80.]

WAC 446-20-120 Challenge--Individual's right to challenge. A subject seeking to challenge the accuracy or completeness of any part of the criminal history record information pertaining to himself shall do so in writing, clearly identifying that information which he asserts to be inaccurate or incomplete. This includes only records generated by Washington state criminal justice agencies. [Statutory Authority: RCW 10.97.080 and 10.97.090. 80-08-057 (Order 80-2), § 446-20-120, filed 7/1/80.]

WAC 446-20-130 Challenge--Forms to be made available. Every criminal justice agency which authorizes individuals to use its facilities for the purpose of inspecting their criminal history record information shall provide an appropriate challenge form and the address of the agency whose record entry is being challenged. Such forms shall be substantially equivalent to that set forth in WAC 446-20-450. [Statutory Authority: RCW 10.97.080 and 10.97.090. 80-08-057 (Order 80-2), § 446-20-130, filed 7/1/80.]

WAC 446-20-140 Challenge--Agency to make determination. The agency which initiated the criminal history record information being challenged shall:

(1) Not later than ten business days after receiving the written challenge, acknowledge receipt of the challenge in writing; and

WAC 446-20-150 Correction of erroneous information. (1) The originating agency must send information correcting the previously incorrect information to all agencies and persons to which the previously incorrect information was disseminated by the originating agency. This obligation shall be limited to disseminations made within one year of the date on which the challenge was initiated.

(2) Any criminal justice agency maintaining criminal history record information within the state shall adopt a procedure which, when significant information in a criminal history record maintained on an individual is determined to be inaccurate, leads to the dissemination of corrected information to every agency and person(s) to which the prior erroneous information was disseminated within the preceding one year. [Statutory Authority: RCW 10.97.080 and 10.97.090. 80-08-057 (Order 80-2), § 446-20-150, filed 7/1/80.]

WAC 446-20-160 Review of refusal to alter record. A person who is the subject of a criminal record and who disagrees with the refusal of the agency maintaining or submitting the record to correct, complete, or delete the record, may request a review of the refusal within twenty business days of the date of receipt of such refusal. The request for review shall be in writing, and shall be made by the completion of a form substantially equivalent to that set forth in WAC 446-20-410. If review is requested in the time allowed, the head of the agency whose record or submission has been challenged shall complete the review within thirty days and make a final determination of the challenge. The head of the agency may extend the thirty-day period for an additional period not to exceed thirty business days. If the head of the agency determines that the challenge should not be allowed, he shall state his reasons in a written decision, a copy of which shall be provided to the subject of the record. Denial by the agency head shall constitute a final decision under RCW 34.04.130. [Statutory Authority: RCW 10.97.080 and 10.97.090. 80-08-057 (Order 80-2), § 446-20-160, filed 7/1/80.]

WAC 446-20-170 Secondary dissemination. (1) Criminal justice agencies that receive state rap sheets from the identification section of the Washington state patrol may disseminate them further, "but only to the same extent to which the identification section itself would be authorized to make a dissemination in the first instance." Nonconviction data based on an incident that arose in the jurisdiction of that agency about to make the dissemination is not subject to this restriction, if the agency is otherwise authorized to disseminate such information.

(2) Noncriminal justice agencies certified to receive criminal history record information from whatever source may use it only for the specific purpose for which the agency is certified and shall not disseminate it further.

(3) Use of criminal history record information contrary to chapter 10.97 RCW or chapter 446-20 WAC may result in suspension or cancellation of certification. [Statutory Authority: RCW 10.97.080 and 10.97.090. 80-08-057 (Order 80-2), § 446-20-170, filed 7/1/80.]

disseminated pursuant to a contract to provide services, as set forth in RCW 10.97.050(5). The contract must contain provisions giving notice to the individual or agency to which the information is to be disseminated that the use of such information is subject to the provisions of chapter 10.97 RCW and these regulations, and federal statutes and regulations, which shall be cited with express reference to the penalties provided for a violation thereof.

(2) When a criminal justice agency uses an information system containing criminal history record information that is controlled and managed by a noncriminal justice agency, the noncriminal justice agency may disseminate criminal history record information only as authorized by the criminal justice agency. Authorization shall be established in a contract between the criminal justice agency and the noncriminal justice agency providing the management service or support. Any criminal justice agency entering a contract with a noncriminal justice agency shall require that the noncriminal justice agency and personnel who utilize criminal history record information, meet the same physical security and personnel standards as set forth by the Washington state patrol under RCW 10.97.090.

All programs, tapes, source documents, listings, and other developmental or related data processing information containing or permitting any person to gain access to criminal history record information, and all personnel involved in the development, maintenance, or operation of an automated information system containing criminal history record information, are subject to the requirements of RCW 10.97.050(5) and these regulations. A statement to this effect shall be included in the contract.

The contract for support services shall be substantially similar to that set forth in WAC 446-20-440. [Statutory Authority: RCW 10.97.080 and 10.97.090. 80-08-057 (Order 80-2), § 446-20-180, filed 7/1/80.]

WAC 446-20-190 Dissemination--Research purposes. [Statutory Authority: RCW 10.97.080 and 10.97.090. 80-08-057 (Order 80-2), § 446-20-190, filed 7/1/80.]

WAC 446-20-200 Disclosure to assist victim. A criminal justice agency may, but need not, disclose investigative information to "persons who have suffered physical loss, property damage, or injury compensable through civil action" as contemplated by RCW 10.97.070. Disclosure may be made to the apparent victim; an attorney, parent or guardian acting for the victim or an executor or administrator of an estate of a decedent victim; an authorized agent of the victim; another law enforcement or criminal justice agency making inquiry on behalf of the victim; and/or, upon an appropriate showing, an indemnitor, assignee, insurer, or subrogee of the victim. Written capacity to act on behalf of the victim may be required by the agency. Investigative information which "... may be of assistance to the victim in obtaining civil redress" may include but is not limited to:

(1) The name, address, and other location information about a suspect, witness, and in the event of a juvenile, the suspect's parent or guardian;

(2) Copies of the incident report; and in person review of documents, photographs, statements, and other materials collected in the course of an investigation;

(3) The location of, and identity of receivers and custodians of stolen property and of property recovered as lost and found property;

(4) The progress of proceedings arising from the incident and the disposition of any prosecution or other action.

An agency making a disclosure is not expected to evaluate the merits of a victim's claim for civil relief. Disclosure merely indicates the information has been received and the agency reasonably believes the information may be useful to the recipient in seeking civil redress. Disclosure does not constitute an opinion or comment upon the existence or merits of a claim and it does not vouch for the accuracy or completeness of the information.

Disclosures made to victims under the authority of RCW 10.97.070 shall be considered in conjunction with RCW 42.17.310, The Public Disclosure Act (exemptions), chapter 46.52 RCW (Confidentiality of Accident Reports and Statements), civil and criminal court rules governing discovery and other state and federal laws.

Criminal justice agencies are advised to consult with their own legal counsel in implementing the dissemination authorization of RCW 10.97.070. [Statutory Authority: RCW 10.97.080 and 10.97.090. 80-08-057 (Order 80-2), § 446-20-200, filed 7/1/80.]

WAC 446-20-210 Protection from accidental loss or injury. Criminal justice agencies (hereinafter, agency(s)) and noncriminal justice contractors, (hereinafter, contractor(s)) which collect, retrieve, and/or store and disseminate criminal history record information in manual and automated systems, shall institute procedures for the protection of criminal history record information from environmental hazards, including fire, flood, power failure, or other natural or man-made disasters, or in accordance with local fire, safety, and building codes. [Statutory Authority: RCW 10.97.080 and 10.97.090. 80-08-057 (Order 80-2), § 446-20-210, filed 7/1/80.]

WAC 446-20-220 Protection against unauthorized access. Criminal history record systems, whether dedicated to criminal justice purposes, or shared, will be designed and operated in accordance with procedures which will assure that:

(1) Access to criminal history record information facilities and system operating areas (whether for computerized or manual systems) and the content of data files and systems documentation, will be restricted to authorized personnel. These procedures may include use of guards, keys, badges, passwords, sign-in logs, or similar safeguards.

(2) All facilities which house criminal history record information shall be designed and constructed so as to reduce the possibility of physical damage to the information resulting from unauthorized access.

(3) Criminal history record information is stored in such a manner that will prevent modification, destruction, access, change, purging, or overlay of criminal history record information by unauthorized personnel.

(4) Operational programs are used in computerized systems that will prohibit inquiry, record updates, or destruction of records from any terminal other than those authorized to perform criminal history record information functions.

(5) The purging or destruction of records is limited to personnel authorized by the criminal justice agency or through contract with the noncriminal justice agency as required under WAC 446-20-180, and consistent with WAC 446-20-230.

(6) Refuse from the criminal history record information system installations is transferred and destroyed under such reasonably secure conditions as will effectively guard against unauthorized availability.

(7) Operational procedures are used in computerized systems to detect and store unauthorized attempts to penetrate any criminal history record information system, program or file, and that such information is made available only to criminal justice agency employees with responsibility for system security, or as authorized by WAC 446-20-180.

(8) The procedures developed to meet standards of subsections (4) and (7) of this section, are known only to authorized employees responsible for criminal history records information system control. [Statutory Authority: RCW 10.97.080 and 10.97.090. 80-08-057 (Order 80-2), § 446-20-220, filed 7/1/80.]

WAC 446-20-230 Personnel security. (1) Agencies and contractors which collect and retrieve, or are authorized to maintain or modify, criminal history record information shall: Identify those positions which are of such a sensitive nature that fingerprints of employees will be required and used to conduct a criminal record background investigation. 446-30-010	Purpose.
446-30-020	Definitions.
446-30-030	Hearing officer.
446-30-040	Procedure.
446-30-050	Burden of proof.
446-30-060	Record.
446-30-070	Appeal.

WAC 446-30-010 Purpose. The purpose of this regulation is to provide administrative rules and standards for hearings conducted pursuant to chapter 124, Laws of 1974, 1st ex. sess. (RCW 9.54.030(3)) relating to the disposition of motor vehicles, motorcycles, motor-driven cycles, trailers, vessels, motorboats, or component parts thereof impounded by the Washington State Patrol. [Order II, § 446-30-010, filed 11/22/74.]

WAC 446-30-020 Definitions. (1) The term "aggregate value" of an article or articles whose ownership is in question shall be the current market value of the article as determined by procedures set out in WAC 446-30-040(2) as of the time of the proposed disposition.

(2) The term "interested party" or "party in interest" is defined as a party claiming ownership or a right to possession of the article involved.

(3) The term "article" shall encompass the plural "articles" and includes motor vehicles, motorcycles, motor-driven cycles, trailers, vessels, motorboats, or component parts thereof. [Order II, § 446-30-020, filed 11/22/74.]

WAC 446-30-030 Hearing officer. The hearing shall be conducted by a person appointed by the Chief of the Washington State Patrol. The hearing shall be conducted at a place within the state designated by the hearing officer who shall consider the convenience of the witnesses involved in the hearing, and the convenience of the parties in interest. The hearing officer, after having heard evidence submitted to him and having conducted a hearing in accordance with this chapter and chapter 446-08 WAC, shall decide whether a party in interest has presented a claim of ownership or right to possession of the article involved sufficient to award possession of the article to the party. If so, he shall order the article released to such party. [Order II, § 446-30-030, filed 11/22/74.]

WAC 446-30-040 Procedure. Insofar as it is applicable, (1) Chapter 446-08 WAC, shall govern hearing procedure, and the service of notice of the hearing upon the person who held possession or custody of the article when it was impounded, and upon any other person who, prior to final disposition, notifies Headquarters, Washington State Patrol, in writing of a claim of ownership or lawful right to possession thereof.

(2) In accordance with chapter 124, Laws of 1974, 1st ex. sess. (RCW 9.54.30(3)), any person claiming ownership or right of possession hereunder may remove the matter to a court of competent jurisdiction if the aggregate value of the article involved is one hundred dollars ($100) or more. If the article involved is a component part or parts of a vehicle, then the right to remove the matter to a court of competent jurisdiction shall be conditioned on the component part or parts having an aggregate value of one hundred dollars ($100) or more. An officer of the Washington State Patrol assigned to the Motor Vehicle Theft Section shall determine the current market value of the article based on such factors as the condition of the vehicle, the year, and the make of the vehicle, etc. The value finally arrived at by the officer should reflect the value of the vehicle on the open market. If the value of the article cannot be agreed upon by the officer and the interested party, a dealer who specializes in the type article shall be contacted to determine the current market value.

(3) The hearing officer, after having heard all pertinent evidence submitted to him, shall make written findings of fact based on the evidence and written conclusions based on his findings and applicable law in accordance with WAC 446-08-410. The findings and conclusions of the hearing officer shall be served on all parties to the hearing within fifteen (15) days of the close of the hearing. If a decision adverse to an interested party is made, no disposition shall be made of the property until after thirty (30) days following service of the hearing officer's decision, or until expiration of any stay of disposition granted by the hearing officer or court of competent jurisdiction, whichever date comes last.

(4) Upon application to the hearing officer by any interested party aggrieved by the decision for a stay of disposition in any matter in which an appeal has been filed, the hearing officer shall stay his order of disposition pending the outcome of the appeal to a court of competent jurisdiction. [Order II, § 446-30-040, filed 11/22/74.]

WAC 446-30-050 Burden of proof. The person or party in interest claiming to be the lawful owner or to have the lawful right to possession shall have the burden of establishing his claim of ownership. [Order II, § 446-30-050, filed 11/22/74.]
