In making application, sponsors will provide a brief written description of the proposed activity, including the name, address and telephone number of a person who may be contacted for further information and a declaration of the nonprofit nature of both the sponsor and the activity. In reviewing proposed projects, the chairman may call upon the assistance of a statewide advisory committee, who will determine whether or not a given project meets criteria of suitability, value, consistency with the commission's goals, and nonprofit and/or noncommercial status. The list of recognized centennial activities will be published from time to time by the commission in its newsletter or other convenient form. [Statutory Authority: Chapter 27.60 RCW. 85-09-027 (Resolution No. 85-1), § 100-100-075, filed 4/12/85.]
