such instances, the decision of the president shall be final.

Proposed name change of student publication: If the editor or staff of a college-sponsored publication wishes to change the name of the publication, he/she shall request a hearing from the publications committee. After the hearing is held, the committee shall vote to approve or deny the name change request. If approval is granted, the staff or editor will inform the associated student council and publicize the proposed titles in the college newspaper. One full week after publicizing, the associated student council shall hold a referendum election to make or deny the necessary bylaw change. The referendum may include more than one proposed name. A referendum for a name change for the literary magazine must be held in the fall quarter of the year the magazine is published.

Meetings: The committee shall elect a faculty or administrative representative to chair the committee and another to serve as secretary. The committee shall meet at least once during each quarter and additionally as deemed necessary by the chair.

Minutes: All minutes of publications committee sessions shall be provided to publications committee members, faculty advisors, and the college president, and shall be open to public inspection.

Grievance procedures: When a student feels that his/her rights relating to student publications have been violated, he/she shall provide the advisor with a written copy of his/her complaint. If there is no resolution to the student's satisfaction, the student may file a grievance with the publications committee in writing through the chairperson. The committee will meet within five school days and recommend a course of action. If there is no resolution to the student's satisfaction, the student may file his/her complaint with the president for a hearing. The complaint shall be filed within five days of the committee's decision. If there is still no resolution to the student's satisfaction, the student may appeal to the board of trustees at its next regularly scheduled meeting. The decision of the board is final.
