WAC 44-06-030 Function--Organization--Administrative offices. The attorney general's office is charged by the constitution and statutes with the general obligation of advising and legally representing the state of Washington, its officials, departments, boards, commissions and agencies but not the local units of government. In response to requests from state officers, legislators and prosecuting attorneys, the attorney general's office issues attorney general opinions. The attorney general's office also issues office opinions which are not published, which are numbered as AGLO (year of issue and number; i.e., AGLO 1974 No. 1).

The organization of the office of the attorney general necessarily mirrors the organization of state government itself and a number of the assistant attorneys general are physically housed with the agency which they represent. Inquiries and correspondence should be directed to specifically named assistant attorneys general, if known; or the appropriate section of the office, if known.

Consumer protection complaints should be directed to the Consumer and Business Fair Practices Division, Dexter-Horton Building, Seattle, Washington or to local division offices located in Tacoma, Olympia, or Spokane. [Statutory Authority: RCW 42.17.250 through 42.17.320. 84-10-031 (Order 103), § 44-06-030, filed 4/30/84; Order 102, § 44-06-030, filed 2/20/74.]

WAC 44-06-050 Index. The attorney general's office biennial reports have indexed by subject matter the published opinions of the attorney general. A card index is maintained in the central office, Temple of Justice, Olympia, Washington, indexing all attorney general opinions (published and unpublished) by subject matter and by statute. Appellate briefs filed by the office of the attorney general are card indexed by subject and case name in the same office.

A card index is maintained in the central office, Temple of Justice, Olympia, Washington, for cases which have been filed involving the state, giving the name, the county and the cause number. For cases involving the department of labor and industries a comparable card index file is maintained in the Attorney General's Office, Dexter-Horton Building, Seattle, Washington.

The volume of correspondence received by the attorney general's office is such that it would be unduly burdensome to formulate and maintain an index for all such correspondence. In lieu of an index the following filing system is utilized.

(1) Consumer protection complaints received by the consumer and business fair practices division are filed by firm name of the subject of the complaint, or by the subject matter of the complaint if no specific firm is named.

(2) Letters from the public and the responses thereto are filed in the central office, Temple of Justice, Olympia, Washington, by alphabetical batching for specific time periods.

(3) Letters to and from agencies are filed in the central office, Temple of Justice, Olympia, Washington, by the name of the agency in a chronological sequence. [Statutory Authority: RCW 42.17.250 through 42.17.320. 84-10-031 (Order 103), § 44-06-050, filed 4/30/84; Order 102, § 44-06-050, filed 2/20/74.]

WAC 44-06-060 Public records officer. The public records officer for the attorney general's office shall be the administrative assistant to the attorney general for all records maintained in the central office, Temple of Justice, Olympia, Washington. For those records maintained at other locations, the assistant attorney general in charge of the legal division having custody of the records or any staff member designated by the assistant attorney general shall be the public records officer.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 42.17.250 through 42.17.320. 84-10-031 (Order 103), § 44-06-060, filed 4/30/84; Order 102, § 44-06-060, filed 2/20/74.]

WAC 44-06-120 Review of denials of public records requests. (1) Any person who objects to the denial of a request for a public record may petition for prompt review of such decision by tendering a written request for review. The written request shall specifically refer to the written statement by the public records officer or other staff member which constituted or accompanied the denial.

(2) Immediately after receiving a written request for review of a decision denying a public record, the public records officer or other staff member denying the request shall refer it to the attorney general or his designated deputy attorney general. The attorney general or his designee shall immediately consider the matter and either affirm or reverse such denial within two business days following the original denial.

(3) Administrative remedies shall not be considered exhausted until the attorney general or the designated deputy attorney general has returned the petition with a decision or until the close of the second business day following denial of inspection, whichever occurs first. [Statutory Authority: RCW 42.17.250 through 42.17.320. 84-10-031 (Order 103), § 44-06-120, filed 4/30/84; Order 102, § 44-06-120, filed 2/20/74.]
