All charges, unless dismissed by the board as unfounded or trivial, shall be heard by the board within three months after the date on which they have been preferred. If service is made by a person other than an officer of the board and such service has not been acknowledged by the witness, such person shall make an affidavit of service. Failure to make proof of service does not affect the validity of the service.

WAC 196-08-200 Subpoenas—Quashing. Upon motion made promptly, and in any event at or before the time specified in the subpoena for compliance, by the person to whom the subpoena is directed (and upon notice to the party to whom the subpoena was issued) the board or its authorized member or officer may (1) quash or modify the subpoena if it is unreasonable or requires evidence not relevant to any matter in issue, or (2) condition denial of the motion upon just and reasonable conditions.

WAC 196-08-260 Depositions and interrogatories in contested cases—Authorization. A party desiring to take the deposition of any person upon oral examination shall give reasonable notice of not less than three days in writing to the board and all parties. The notice shall state the time and place for taking the deposition, the name and address of each person to be examined, if known, and if the name is not known, a general description sufficient to identify him or the particular class or group to which he belongs. On motion of a party upon whom the notice is served, the hearing officer may for cause shown, enlarge or shorten the time. If the parties so stipulate in writing, depositions may be taken before any person, at any time or place, upon any notice, and in any manner and when so taken may be used as other depositions.

[Rule .08.260, filed 7/6/60.]

WAC 196-08-270 Depositions and interrogatories in contested cases—Protection of parties and deponents. After notice is served for taking a deposition, upon its own motion or upon motion reasonably made by any party or by the person to be examined and upon notice and for good cause shown, the board or any designated member may make an order that the deposition shall not be taken, or that it may be taken only at some designated place other than that stated in the notice, or that it may be taken only on written interrogatories, or that certain matters shall not be inquired into, or that the scope of the examination shall be limited to certain matters, or that the examination shall be limited to certain matters, or that the examination shall be held with no one present except the parties to the action and their officers or counsel, or that after being sealed, the deposition shall be opened only by order of the board, or that business secrets or secret processes, developments, or research need not be disclosed, or that the parties shall simultaneously file specified documents or information enclosed in sealed envelopes to be opened as directed by the board or the board may make any order which justice requires to protect the party or witness from annoyance, embarrassment, or oppression. At any time during the taking of the deposition, on motion of any party or of the deponent and upon a showing that the examination is being conducted in bad faith or in such manner as unreasonably to annoy, embarrass, or oppress the deponent or party, the board or its designated agent may order the officer conducting the examination to cease forthwith from taking the deposition, or may limit the scope and manner of the taking of the deposition as above provided. If the order made terminates the examination, it shall be resumed thereafter only upon the order of the agency. Upon demand of the objecting party or deponent, the taking of the deposition shall be suspended for the time necessary to make a motion for an order.

[Rule .08.270, filed 7/6/60.]

WAC 196-08-280 Depositions and interrogatories in contested cases—Oral examination and cross-examination. Examination and cross-examination shall proceed as at an oral hearing. In lieu of participating in the oral examination, any party served with notice of taking a deposition may transmit written cross interrogatories to the officer who, without first disclosing them to any person, and after the direct testimony is complete, shall propound them seriatim to the deponent and record or cause the answers to be recorded verbatim.

[Rule .08.280, filed 7/6/60.]

WAC 196-08-290 Depositions and interrogatories in contested cases—Recordation. The officer before whom the deposition is to be taken shall put the witness on oath and shall personally or by someone acting under his direction and in his presence, record the testimony by typewriter directly or by transcription from stenographic notes, wire or record recorders, which record shall separately and consecutively number each interrogatory. Objections to the notice, qualifications of the officer taking the deposition, or to the manner of taking it, or to the evidence presented or to the conduct of the officer, or of any party, shall be noted by the officer upon the deposition. All objections by any party not so made are waived.

[Rule .08.290, filed 7/6/60.]

(1) When the testimony is fully transcribed the deposition shall be submitted to the witness for examination and shall be read to or by him, unless such examination and reading are waived by the witness and by the parties. Any changes in form or substance which the witness desires to make shall be entered upon the deposition by the officer with a statement of the reasons given by the witness for making them. The deposition shall then be signed by the witness, unless the parties by stipulation waive the signing or the witness is ill or cannot be found or refuses to sign. If the deposition is not signed by the witness, the officer shall sign it and state on the record the fact of the waiver or of the illness or absence of the witness or the fact of the refusal to sign together with the reason, if any, given therefor; and the deposition may then be used as fully as though signed, unless on a motion to suppress the board holds that the reasons given for the refusal to sign require rejection of the deposition in whole or in part.

(2) The officer shall certify on the deposition that the witness was duly sworn by him and that the deposition is a true record of the testimony given by the witness. He shall then securely seal the deposition in an envelope indorsed with the title of proceeding and marked "Deposition of (here insert name of witness)" and shall promptly send it by registered or certified mail to the board, or its agent, for filing. The party taking the deposition shall give prompt notice of its filing to all other parties. Upon payment of reasonable charges therefor, the officer shall furnish a copy of the deposition to any party or to the deponent.

[Rule .08.300, filed 7/6/60.]

WAC 196-08-310 Depositions and interrogatories in contested cases—Use and effect. Subject to rulings by the board upon objections a deposition taken and filed as provided in this rule will not become a part of the record in the proceeding until received in evidence by the board upon its own motion or the motion of any party. Except by agreement of the parties or ruling of the board, a deposition will be received only in its entirety. A party does not make a party, or the privy of a party, or any hostile witness his witness by taking his deposition. Any party may rebut any relevant evidence contained in a deposition whether introduced by him or any other party.

[Rule .08.320, filed 7/6/60.]

WAC 196-08-330 Depositions and interrogatories in contested cases—Submission of interrogatories. Within 10 days thereafter a party so served may serve cross-interrogatories upon the party proposing to take the deposition. No one except the deponent, the officer and the court reporter or stenographer recording and transcribing it shall be present during the interrogation.

[Rule .08.340, filed 7/6/60.]

WAC 196-08-350 Depositions and interrogatories in contested cases—Attestation and return. The officer before whom interrogatories are verified or answered shall (1) certify under his official signature and seal that the deponent was duly sworn by him, that the interrogatories and answers are a true record of the deponent's testimony, that no one except deponent, the officer and the stenographer were present during the taking, and that neither he nor the stenographer, to his knowledge, is a party, privy to a party, or interested in the event of the proceedings, and (2) promptly send by registered or certified mail the original copy of the deposition and exhibits with his attestation to the board, one copy to the counsel who submitted the interrogatories and another copy to the deponent.

An entire application is not required where an applicant has taken the examination and failed or who has filed and failed to appear for the previous examination. However, a new application is required every five years, after board approval of the initial application, to reactivate an application or maintain examination eligibility.

Those who have previously taken the examination and failed or those who qualified and did not appear for the examination are required to notify the board office in writing three months before the examination which they intend to take. A new application is not required where an applicant has taken the previous examination and failed or has filed and failed to appear for the previous examination. However, a new complete application is required every five years after approval by the board until registration in Washington state is obtained.

[WAC 196-16-010 Experience records. The first requirement of the law for registration as a professional land surveyor is a minimum of six years of approved professional experience in land surveying. One year of the required experience must be in responsible charge of boundary surveying in the field and one year must be in a supervisory capacity in the office, which includes but is not limited to preparation of legal descriptions and record documents, survey and description research, computations and client/public contact. The provisions of the law are that:

(1) Graduation in a recognized land surveying curriculum of four years or more from a college recognized by the board is equivalent to four years of the required experience.

(2) Satisfactory completion of each year of such recognized course is equivalent to one year of experience.

(3) Graduation in any curriculum not recognized in (1) or (2) above will be evaluated by the board. It is the responsibility of the applicant to see that the board is furnished an official transcript of his college record when education is claimed as experience.

(4) Teaching of a character satisfactory to the board may be recognized as surveying experience up to a maximum of one year.

(5) Construction staking shall not be applicable toward the required six years of experience.

(6) A registered professional engineer who applies to be examined to become registered as a land surveyor must meet the requirements stated within this section.

[WAC 196-16-020 Examinations. The examinations are given in two parts: (1) Fundamentals and (2) principles and practice, each of one day's duration. The fundamentals and principles and practice consist of two sessions, one in the morning and one in the afternoon. All examinations will be open book unless otherwise specified by the board.

A candidate may elect to sit for the examination in two consecutive days or may sit for one part of one examination and the other part at a subsequent examination.

A candidate failing either the fundamentals or principles and practice and passing the other has only to repeat the part failed.

WAC 196-16-031 Reciprocity. Applicants for registration as a land surveyor by reciprocity, who have been qualified by a written sixteen-hour examination, in a state that gives like consideration to Washington registrants, and are in good standing with the examining state, will be exempt from the Washington state sixteen-hour written examination. All candidates will be required to pass a written examination as prescribed by the board.

All added branches will be authorized by passing a regular examination, except applicants who may be granted registration without further examination provided they have successfully passed an examination equivalent to that given in the state of Washington, in a state, territory, possession, district, or country, which grants like reciprocity to the state of Washington registrants.
