

(ii) The hazardous materials advisory committee's subcommittee for contingency planning.

(iii) The hazardous materials advisory committee's subcommittee for emergency response.

(c) The above organizations shall review the plan and within ninety days submit their comments and recommendations, if any, to the state emergency response commission on whether the plan meets the requirements of Title III, the recommendations of the NRT-1 guidelines and the concepts of the Washington state comprehensive emergency management plan.

In the event that there are significant differences in the recommendations of the committees, the full state hazardous materials advisory committee will be asked to resolve the differences and make its recommendation to the emergency response commission within forty-five days of the date of referral to the state hazardous materials advisory committee.

(d) Within forty-five days of the receipt of the recommendations, the state emergency response commission will review the recommendations. Upon completion of this review the commission shall, as appropriate, send a letter to the submitting local committee stating one of the following alternative evaluations of the local committee's plan:

(i) The plan has been reviewed and is considered to meet the requirements of Title III, the standards of the NRT-1 guidelines, and the concepts of the state comprehensive emergency management plan as it is written.

(ii) The plan has been reviewed and is considered to meet the standards of the NRT-1 guidelines, Title III requirements and the comprehensive emergency management plan concept, but suggestions are included on how it may be improved at its next revision.

(iii) Serious omissions are apparent in the plan. Please note the following suggestions on the changes that are needed to meet the Title III requirements, the guidelines of the NRT-1 guidebook and the concept of the Washington state comprehensive emergency management plan.

(5) The local committees shall review and update their plans annually, and submit them to the commission for review under the procedures and guidelines prescribed in this section.

WAC 118-40-190 Emergency response training. (1) The department of community development, division of fire protection services, shall provide training as authorized by Section 305, Title III, for emergency first responders, including firefighters, law enforcement, and emergency medical personnel. Other constituencies to be trained may include federal, state, and local governmental employees who may directly or indirectly involve themselves in a hazardous materials incident. Such personnel may include health officials, public works personnel, elected officials, emergency and city managers, and personnel employed by private industry.

(2) Emergency training programs shall be designed to improve emergency planning, preparedness, mitigation, response, and recovery capabilities. Such programs shall provide special emphasis with respect to emergencies and responsibilities associated with hazardous materials and Title III.

(3) The division of fire protection services may officially schedule, conduct, and/or contract for courses throughout the state, and may also provide training sessions upon written or verbal request from public or private organizations, agencies, or departments.
