WAC 192-12-005 Adequate notice and opportunity to be heard defined. For the purposes of chapter 50 RCW and chapter 192 WAC the following definitions apply:

1. "Adequate notice" means a written notice to a claimant explaining:
   (a) That his-her eligibility for benefits is in question.
   (b) The issue(s) raised.
   (c) That the claimant has the right to report in person for a fact-finding interview regarding his or her eligibility for benefits and that he or she has the right to bring an attorney or other representative, witnesses and other documentary evidence, and the right to cross-examine witnesses or parties present.
   (d) That the claimant is entitled to access to records or documents possessed by the department relevant to the issue raised.
   (e) The date before which the claimant must respond as directed and an explanation that failure to respond may result in a denial and overpayment of benefits. The date must be no earlier than reasonable mailing time plus five working days.

2. "Opportunity to be heard" means an offer to hold a fact-finding interview to resolve the department's questions regarding the claimant's eligibility for benefits. At the fact-finding interview, prior to asking the claimant to respond, the department shall make available all information of which it is aware that could result in a denial of benefits. Upon request, the material will be provided to the claimant prior to the interview.
