Reviser's note: Chapter 15, Laws of 1983 re-creates the marine employees' commission, Title 316 WAC, and transfers the authority for the administration of chapter 47.64 RCW to that agency. Title 391 WAC will reflect some of the changes resulting from this statutory revision.

WAC 391-25-001 Scope—Contents—Other rules. This chapter governs proceedings before the public employment relations commission on petitions for investigation of questions concerning representation of employees. The provisions of this chapter should be read in conjunction with the provisions of:

1. Chapter 391-08 WAC, which contains rules of practice and procedure applicable to all types of proceedings before the public employment relations commission.
2. Chapter 391-35 WAC, which contains rules relating to proceedings on petitions for clarification of an existing bargaining unit.
3. Chapter 391-45 WAC, which contains rules relating to proceedings on complaints charging unfair labor practices.
4. Chapter 391-55 WAC, which contains rules relating to resolution of impasses occurring in collective bargaining.
5. Chapter 391-65 WAC, which contains rules relating to arbitration of grievance disputes arising out of the interpretation or application of a collective bargaining agreement.
6. Chapter 391-95 WAC, which contains rules relating to determination of union security disputes arising between employees and employee organizations certified or recognized as their bargaining representative.

WAC 391-25-002 Sequence and numbering of rules—Special provisions. This chapter of the Washington Administrative Code is designed to regulate proceedings under a number of different chapters of the Revised Code of Washington. General rules are set forth in sections with numbers divisible by ten. Where a deviation from the general rule is required for conformity with a particular statute, that special provision is set forth in a separate rule numbered as follows:

1. Special provisions relating to chapter 41.56 RCW (Public Employees' Collective Bargaining Act) and to chapter 53.18 RCW (port employees) are set forth in WAC sections numbered one digit greater than the general rule on that subject matter.
2. Special provisions relating to chapter 41.59 RCW (Educational Employment Relations Act) are set forth in WAC sections numbered two digits greater than the general rule on that subject matter.
3. Special provisions relating to chapter 28B.52 RCW (professional negotiations—academic faculties of community college districts) are set forth in WAC sections numbered three digits greater than the general rule on that subject matter.
4. Special provisions relating to chapter 49.08 RCW (private sector employees) are set forth in WAC sections numbered nine digits greater than the general rule on that subject matter.

WAC 391-25-130 List of employees. The employer shall submit to the commission a list containing the names and last known addresses of all of the employees in the bargaining unit described in the petition. Following administrative determination that the petition is supported by a sufficient showing of interest, the employer shall, upon request, provide a copy of the list of names and addresses to the petitioner. Following granting of a motion for intervention, the employer shall, upon request, provide a copy of the list of names and addresses to the intervenor.

WAC 391-25-140 Notice to employees. The employer shall post a notice to employees, in the form specified by the commission, advising of the existence of proceedings under this chapter. The agency shall furnish the employer with copies of such notice, and the employer shall post them in conspicuous places on its premises where notices to affected employees are usually posted.

WAC 391-25-150 Amendment and withdrawal. Any petition may be amended or withdrawn by the petitioner under such conditions as the executive director or the commission may impose.

WAC 391-25-170 Intervention—By incumbent representative. An organization which demonstrates that it has been the exclusive representative of all or any part of the bargaining unit involved in proceedings under this chapter during the year preceding the filing of the petition may, by motion, intervene in the proceedings and, upon granting of its motion for intervention, shall be entitled to participate in the proceedings and to have its name listed as a choice on the ballot in any election. No motion for intervention shall be considered if made after the close of the hearing on the petition or more than seven days after the filing and posting of an election agreement or cross-check agreement.

WAC 391-25-190 Intervention—By organization other than incumbent. An organization not covered by WAC 391-25-170 may, by motion, intervene in proceedings under this chapter and, upon granting of its motion for intervention, shall be entitled to participate in the proceedings and have its name listed as a choice on the ballot in any election. The motion for intervention shall be supported by a showing of interest indicating that the intervenor has the support of not less than ten percent of the employees in the bargaining unit which the petitioner claims to be appropriate or of not less than thirty percent of the employees in whatever different bargaining unit the intervenor claims to be appropriate. The showing of interest must consist of individual authorization cards or letters signed and dated by employees in the bargaining unit claimed appropriate. Such authorization cards shall not be valid unless signed and dated during the ninety-day period preceding the filing of the motion for intervention or the filing of such evidence with the agency, whichever is later. The showing of interest shall be made confidentially to the agency at or before the time the motion for intervention is made: Provided, however, That a motion for intervention may be granted conditionally subject to the subsequent furnishing of a showing of interest under such conditions as the agency may impose to avoid undue delay of the proceedings. No motion for intervention shall be considered if made after the close of the hearing on the petition or more than seven days after the filing and posting of an election agreement or cross-check agreement.

WAC 391-25-210 Showing of interest confidential. The question of whether a showing of interest requirement for a petition or for intervention has been satisfied is a matter for administrative determination by the agency and may not be litigated at any hearing. The agency shall not disclose the identities of employees whose authorization cards or letters are filed in support of a petition or motion for intervention. In order to preserve the confidentiality of the showing of interest and the right of employees freely to express their views on the selection of a bargaining representative, the agency shall not honor any attempt to withdraw or diminish a showing of interest.

WAC 391-25-230 Election agreements. Where an employer and all other parties agree on a representation election, they may file an election agreement with the executive director. Such election agreement shall contain:

(1) The name and address of the employer and the name, address and telephone number of its principal representative.

(2) The names and addresses of all other parties participating in the election agreement and the names, addresses and telephone numbers of their principal representatives.

(3) A description of the bargaining unit agreed to be appropriate, specifying inclusions and exclusions, and the number of employees in such unit.

(4) A statement by all parties that: (a) No organization is known which is or may be entitled to intervene as an incumbent representative, or (b) the incumbent representative is a party to the election agreement, or (c) the incumbent representative has abandoned the unit as evidenced by documentation attached to the election agreement.

(5) A statement by all parties that no other organization is known which claims to represent any of the employees in the bargaining unit; that all parties agree that a question concerning representation exists; that a hearing is waived; and that the agency is requested to proceed to conduct an election and certify the results.

(6) A list, attached to the election agreement as an appendix, containing the names of the employees eligible to vote in the election and the eligibility cut off date for the election. If the parties request that the election be conducted by mail ballot, the list shall include the last known address of each of the employees eligible to vote. If no eligibility cut off date is specified by the parties, the eligibility cut off date shall be the date on which the election agreement is filed.

(7) The suggestions of the parties as to the location, the day or days of the week and the time or times of day for the conduct of the election, or that the election be conducted by mail ballot.

(8) The signatures and, if any, the titles of all parties or their representatives.

The original and one copy of the election agreement shall be filed with the agency at its Olympia office, and copies shall be posted by the employer in conspicuous places on the employer's premises where notices to affected employees are usually posted. The election agreement shall remain posted for at least seven days after it is filed with the agency (ten days after it is deposited in the United States mail addressed to the agency).

Upon the filing of an election agreement conforming to the foregoing requirements and seeking an election in an appropriate bargaining unit, the executive director shall proceed to conduct an election. Objections to the election by a party to the election agreement shall be limited to matters relating to specific conduct affecting the results of the election.

WAC 391-25-250 Cross-check agreements. Where only one organization is seeking certification as the representative of unrepresented employees, the employer and the organization may file a cross-check agreement with the executive director. Such cross-check agreement shall contain:

(1) The name and address of the employer and the name, address and telephone number of its principal representative.

(2) The name and address of the organization and the name, address and telephone number of its principal representative.

(3) The description of the bargaining unit agreed to be appropriate, specifying inclusions and exclusions and the number of employees in such unit.

(4) A statement by the parties that no other organization is known which claims to represent any of the employees in the bargaining unit; that the parties agree that a question concerning representation exists; that a hearing is waived; and that the agency is requested to conduct and certify the results of a cross-check of individually signed and dated authorization cards or membership records submitted by the organization against the employment records of the employer.

(5) A list, attached to the cross-check agreement as an appendix, containing the names of the employees in the bargaining unit.

(6) The suggestions of the parties as to the time and place where the records to be cross-checked can be made available to the agency.

(7) The agreement of the parties to be bound by the results of the cross-check.

(8) The signatures and, if any, the titles of the representatives of the parties.

The original and one copy of the cross-check agreement shall be filed with the agency at its Olympia office, and copies thereof shall be posted by the employer in conspicuous places on the employer's premises where notices to affected employees are usually posted. The cross-check agreement shall remain posted for at least seven days after it is filed with the agency (ten days after it is deposited in the United States mail addressed to the agency).

Upon the filing of a cross-check agreement conforming to the foregoing requirements and seeking a cross-check in an appropriate bargaining unit, the executive director shall proceed with the cross-check of records. The cross-check may be conducted at any time following the execution of a cross-check agreement; but no certification shall be issued until seven days have elapsed following the filing and posting of the cross-check agreement. Where a motion for intervention is timely filed and granted, no certification shall be issued on the basis of the cross-check.

WAC 391-25-270 Supplemental agreements. Where the parties are able to agree generally on the matters to be set forth in an election agreement under WAC 391-25-250 or a cross-check agreement under WAC 391-25-250, but are unable to agree on limited issues concerning the definition of the bargaining unit or employee eligibility, they may expedite the determination of the question concerning representation while reserving their disagreement for subsequent determination by filing a supplemental agreement under this rule together with an agreement under WAC 391-25-230 or 391-25-250. Such supplemental agreement shall contain:

(1) The names of all parties to the election agreement or cross-check agreement and the case number of the proceedings.

(2) Identification of the employees or classifications as to which a dispute exists, together with the identification of the position taken by each party on the dispute.

(3) A statement by all parties requesting that employees affected by the supplemental agreement be permitted to vote by challenged ballot or be challenged for purposes of a cross-check, subject to a subsequent determination of the dispute; and that the certification of the results of the election or cross-check not be withheld pending the determination of the dispute unless the challenges are sufficient in number to affect the outcome.

(4) The signatures and, if any, the titles, of the representatives of the parties.

The original and one copy of the supplemental agreement shall be filed with the agency together with the agreement filed under WAC 391-25-230 or 391-25-250, and shall be posted with such agreement.

Upon the filing of a supplemental agreement, the executive director shall proceed with the determination of the question concerning representation. If the challenges are sufficient in number to affect the outcome, they shall be determined prior to the issuance of a certification. Otherwise, a conditional certification shall be issued which shall be amended upon final disposition of the issues framed in the supplemental agreement.

WAC 391-25-290 Notice of hearing. After a petition has been filed, if it appears to the executive director that there is reasonable cause to believe that a question concerning representation exists, there shall be issued and served on the employer and on all organizations listed in the petition and on any organization having theretofore intervened, a notice of hearing before a hearing officer at a time and place fixed therein. Any such notice of hearing may be amended or withdrawn before the close of the hearing.

WAC 391-25-299 Special provision—Private sector employees. The commission lacks authority to proceed in representation disputes under chapter 49.08 RCW absent the agreement of all parties. The executive director shall not proceed in such matters unless an agreement is filed under WAC 391-25-230 or 391-25-250. WAC 391-25-290 through 391-25-390 shall not be applicable to proceedings under chapter 49.08 RCW except for hearings and issues submitted under WAC 391-25-270.

WAC 391-25-310 Hearings—Who shall conduct. Hearings may be conducted by the commission, by the executive director, by a member of the agency staff or by any other individual designated by the commission or executive director as a hearing officer. At any time, a hearing officer may be substituted for the hearing officer previously presiding.

WAC 391-25-350 Hearings—Nature and scope. Hearings shall be public and shall be limited to matters concerning the determination of the existence of a question concerning representation, the appropriate bargaining unit and questions of eligibility. It shall be the duty of the hearing officer to inquire fully into all matters in issue and to obtain a clear and complete factual record upon which the commission and the executive director may discharge their duties under the pertinent statutes and these rules.

WAC 391-25-370 Blocking charges—Suspension of proceedings—Request to proceed. (1) Where representation proceedings have been commenced under this chapter and:

(a) A complaint charging unfair labor practices is filed under the provisions of chapter 391-45 WAC; and

(b) It appears that the facts as alleged may constitute an unfair labor practice; and

(c) Such unfair labor practice could improperly affect the outcome of a representation election; the executive director may suspend the representation proceedings under this chapter pending the resolution of the unfair labor practice case.
(2) The complainant(s) in the unfair labor practice case may file a request to proceed, in writing, with the executive director. Such request to proceed shall identify, by case number, the representation proceedings for which it is made, shall request that those representation proceedings be continued notwithstanding the pending unfair labor practice case, and shall acknowledge that the commission will not entertain objections based on conduct alleged in the unfair labor practice case. Upon the filing of a request to proceed conforming to the foregoing requirements the executive director shall issue the processing of the representation petition and shall summarily dismiss any objections filed in conflict with the request to proceed.

(3) Where a complaint charging unfair labor practices is filed after the filing of an election agreement or issuance of a direction of election, the executive director shall proceed with the determination of the question concerning representation, subject to the right of any party to file objections as provided in WAC 391-25-590.

WAC 391-25-390 Proceedings before the executive director. The executive director may proceed forthwith upon the record, after submission of briefs or after hearing, as may be appropriate. The executive director shall determine whether a question concerning representation exists, and shall issue a direction of election, dismiss the petition or make other disposition of the matter. Unless otherwise provided in a direction of election, the cut-off date for eligibility to vote in an election shall be the date of issuance of the direction of election. Where the executive director determines that employee eligibility issues exist, the executive director may delegate authority to the hearing officer to decide those issues. Such actions shall be subject to review by the commission only as follows:

(1) Except for rulings as to whether the employer is subject to the jurisdiction of the commission, a direction of election and any accompanying rulings shall not be subject to review by the commission except upon objections timely filed under WAC 391-25-590.

(2) An order of dismissal shall be subject to review by the commission on its own motion or at the request of any party made within twenty days following the date of the order. Briefs or written arguments shall be submitted as provided in WAC 391-25-650. Unless the matter is transferred to the commission for review, an order of dismissal issued by the executive director shall have the same force and effect as if issued by the commission.

WAC 391-25-391 Special provision—Public employees. Where only one organization is seeking certification as the representative of unrepresented employees, and the showing of interest submitted in support of the petition indicates that such organization has been authorized by a substantial majority of the employees to act as their representative for the purposes of collective bargaining, and the executive director finds that the conduct of an election would unnecessarily and unduly delay the determination of the question concerning representation with little likelihood of altering the outcome, the executive director may issue a direction of cross-check. The direction of cross-check and any accompanying rulings shall not be subject to review by the commission except upon objections timely filed under WAC 391-25-590.

WAC 391-25-410 Cross-check of records. Where a cross-check of records is to be conducted to determine a question concerning representation, the organization shall submit to the agency original individual cards or letters signed and dated by employees in the bargaining unit not more than ninety days prior to the filing of the petition and indicating that such employees authorize the named organization to represent them for the purposes of collective bargaining, or shall submit to the agency membership records maintained by the organization as a part of its business records containing the names of employees and indicating those employees currently members in good standing. The employer shall make available to the agency original employment records maintained as a part of its business records containing the names and signatures of the employees in the bargaining unit. Prior to the commencement of the cross-check, the organization may file a request that the question concerning representation be determined by a representation election and such requests shall be honored. Where the organization files a disclaimer or a request for election after the commencement of the cross-check, the cross-check shall be terminated and the organization shall not seek to be certified in the bargaining unit for a period of at least one year thereafter. All cross-checks shall be by actual comparison of records submitted by the parties. The agency shall not disclose the names of employees giving representation authorization in favor of or appearing on the membership rolls of the organization. Upon the conclusion of the comparison of records, the agency officer conducting the cross-check shall prepare and furnish to the parties a tally sheet containing the number of employees in the bargaining unit, the number of employee records examined and the number of employee records counted as valid evidence of representation.

WAC 391-25-430 Notice of election. When an election is to be conducted, the agency shall furnish the employer with appropriate notices, and the employer shall post them in conspicuous places on its premises where notices to affected employees are usually posted. The notice shall contain:

1. The description of the bargaining unit or voting group(s) in which the election is to be conducted.
2. The date(s), hours and polling place(s) for the election.
3. The cut-off date, if any, or other criteria to be applied in establishing eligibility to vote in the election.
4. A statement of the purpose of the election and the question to be voted upon or a sample ballot.

Notices of the election shall be posted for at least seven days prior to the opening of the polls. In computing such period, the day of posting shall be counted, but the day on which the polls are opened shall not be counted. The reproduction of any document purporting to suggest, either directly or indirectly, that the agency endorses a particular choice may constitute grounds for setting aside an election upon objections properly filed.

WAC 391-25-450 Disclaimers. An organization may file a disclaimer and have its name removed from the ballot: Provided, however, That if such a disclaimer is filed after the issuance of a notice of election, the organization filing the disclaimer shall not seek to be certified in that bargaining unit for a period of at least one year thereafter.

WAC 391-25-470 Electioneering. (1) Employers and organizations are prohibited from making election speeches on the employer's time to massed assemblies of employees:

(a) Within twenty-four hours before the scheduled time for the opening of the polls for an election conducted under "in person" voting procedures; or
(b) Within the period beginning with the issuance of ballots to employees for an election conducted under "mail ballot" voting procedures and the tally of ballots.

(2) There shall be no electioneering at or about the polling place during the hours of voting.

Violations of this rule shall be grounds for setting aside an election upon objections properly filed.

WAC 391-25-490 Election procedures—Balloting. All elections shall be by secret ballot. Multiple questions, including unit determination elections, may be submitted to employees at the same time on separate ballots. Absentee balloting shall not be allowed. The agency may conduct elections by mail ballot when it appears that an election by "in person" procedures would result in undue delay, or would effectively deprive some eligible employees of their opportunity to vote. If mail balloting is used, the notice required by these rules shall be mailed to each eligible voter and no less than ten days shall be provided between the date on which ballot materials are mailed to eligible employees and the deadline for return of the ballots. Each party may be represented by observers of its own choosing, subject to such limitations as the executive director may prescribe: Provided, however, That no management official having authority over bargaining unit employees nor any officer or paid employee of an organization shall serve as observer.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.52.080, 41.56.040, 41.58.050, 41.59-.110 and 47.64.040. 80-14-046 (Order 80-5), § 391-25-490, filed 9/30/80, effective 11/1/80.]

WAC 391-25-510 Challenged ballots. Any observer or the election officer may challenge, for good cause, the eligibility of any person seeking to cast a ballot in the election. No person shall be denied the right to cast a challenged ballot. The election officer shall not have authority to resolve challenges at the polls, and the ballot of the challenged voter shall be placed in a sealed envelope identifying the voter and the observer or election officer challenging the eligibility of the voter. The ballot shall not be opened until the challenge is resolved. Any party may withdraw a challenge previously made and, unless the eligibility of the voter is challenged by another party or by the election officer, the challenge shall thereby be resolved. If the challenged ballots are insufficient in number to affect the results of the election, they shall be impounded and no ruling shall be made thereon. If the challenged ballots are sufficient in number to affect the results of the election, the election officer shall, after the close of the polls, ascertain the position of each party as to each challenged ballot and shall include such information in his report. If challenges raise material questions of fact which cannot be resolved without a hearing, there shall be issued and served on each of the parties a notice of hearing before a hearing officer. The rules relating to the conduct of hearings on petitions shall govern hearings on challenges, except that the scope of the hearing shall be limited to matters relevant to the disposition of the challenged ballots. The executive director shall have authority to rule on all challenges except those made by a party to preserve an objection to a ruling previously made by the executive director as to the eligibility of the challenged voter. If challenges of a type excepted from the authority of the executive director are sufficient in number to affect the results of the election, the matter shall be transferred to the commission for its determination under the provisions of WAC 391-25-670.

WAC 391-25-530 Votes needed to determine election. (1) Unit determination elections shall be decided by a majority of those eligible to vote in the election.

(2) Representation elections shall be decided by a majority of those voting. Where there are only two choices on the ballot, a tie vote shall result in a certification of no representative.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.52.080, 41.56.040, 41.58.050, 41.59-.110 and 47.64.040. 80-14-046 (Order 80-5), § 391-25-530, filed 9/30/80, effective 11/1/80.]

WAC 391-25-550 Tally sheet. Upon closing the polls, the election officer shall prepare and furnish to each of the parties a tally of the votes cast on unchallenged ballots and the number of challenged ballots. After the subsequent resolution of challenged ballots affecting the results of the election, a revised tally shall be issued and furnished to the parties. The tally shall indicate whether the results of the election were conclusive or inconclusive.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.52.080, 41.56.040, 41.58.050, 41.59-.110 and 47.64.040. 80-14-046 (Order 80-5), § 391-25-550, filed 9/30/80, effective 11/1/80.]

WAC 391-25-570 Procedure following inconclusive election. In any election in which there are more than two choices on the ballot, if none of the choices receives the number of votes necessary to determine the election, a run-off election shall be held providing for selection between the two choices receiving the largest numbers of valid ballots cast in the inconclusive election. Any organization to be excluded from a run-off election may file objections to specific conduct affecting the results of the inconclusive election. Where the choice of "no representative" is to be excluded from a run-off election, the employer or decertification petitioner may file objections to specific conduct affecting the results of the inconclusive election. Such objections shall be resolved prior to the conduct of a run-off election. All run-off elections shall be determined as provided in WAC 391-25-530.

WAC 391-25-590 Filing and service of objections. Within seven days after the tally has been served under WAC 391-25-410 or under WAC 391-25-550, any party may file objections with the commission. Objections may consist of:

(1) Designation of specific conduct improperly affecting the results of the election, by violation of these rules, by the use of deceptive campaign practices improperly involving the commission and its processes, by the use of forged documents, or by coercion or intimidation of or threat of reprisal or promise of reward to eligible voters, and/or

(2) Designation of one or more previous rulings or directions in the matter which the objecting party desires to have reviewed by the commission.

Objections shall contain, in separate numbered paragraphs, statements of the specific conduct, if any, alleged to have improperly affected the results of the election and, in separate numbered paragraphs, the specific rulings or directions, if any, which the party filing the objections desires to have reviewed. The original and three copies of the objections shall be filed with the commission at its Olympia office, and the party filing the objections shall serve a copy on each of the other parties to the proceedings. Objections must be timely filed, whether or not challenged ballots are sufficient in number to affect the results of the election.

[WAC 391-35-190 Proceedings before the executive director. The executive director may proceed forthwith upon the record, after submission of briefs or after hearing, as may be appropriate. The executive director shall determine the status of each position, classification or group of employees over which there is a disagreement and issue an order clarifying bargaining unit, dismiss the petition or make other disposition of the matter. Where the executive director determines that employee eligibility issues exist, the executive director may delegate authority to the hearing officer to decide those issues.

[WAC 391-35-210 Proceedings before the commission—Petition for review. If a party presents an issue which requires study of a statute, rule, regulation, or finding of fact, the party should set out the material portions of the text verbatim or include them by facsimile copy in the text or in an appendix to the brief.

[WAC 391-35-230 Filing and service of cross-petition for review. Where a petition for review has been timely filed under WAC 391-35-210, any party who has not previously filed a petition for review may, within seven days after the last date on which a petition for review may be filed, file a cross-petition for review. Such cross- petition for review shall be filed and served in the same manner as a petition for review. Upon the filing of a cross-petition for review, the deadline for the submission of briefs or written arguments shall be extended by seven days.

The complainant shall prosecute its own complaint and shall have the burden of proof. It shall be the duty of the examiner to inquire fully into the facts as to whether the respondent has engaged in or is engaging in an unfair labor practice so as to obtain a clear and complete factual record on which the examiner and commission may discharge their duties under these rules: Provided, however, That such duty of the examiner shall not be construed as authorizing or requiring the examiner to undertake the responsibilities of the complainant with respect to the prosecution of its complaint or of the respondent with respect to the presentation of its defense.

WAC 391-45-330 Withdrawal or modification of examiner decision. On the examiner's own motion or on the motion of any party, the examiner may set aside, modify, change or reverse any findings of fact, conclusions of law or order at any time within twenty days following the issuance thereof, if any mistake is discovered therein or upon grounds of newly discovered evidence which could not with reasonable diligence have been discovered and produced at the hearing: Provided, however, That this section shall be inoperative after the filing of a petition for review with the commission.

WAC 391-45-350 Petition for review of examiner decision. The examiner's findings of fact, conclusions of law and order shall be subject to review by the commission on its own motion, or at the request of any party made within twenty days following the date of the order issued by the examiner. The original and three copies of the petition for review shall be filed with the commission at its Olympia office and the party filing the petition shall serve a copy on each of the other parties to the proceeding. Such petition for review shall contain, in separate numbered paragraphs, statements of the specific findings, conclusions, orders or rulings on which the party filing the petition seeks review by the commission. A petition for review shall have attached to it any appeal brief or written argument which the party filing the petition for review desires to have considered by the commission. Other parties to the proceeding shall have fourteen days following the date on which they are served with a copy of such petition for review and accompanying brief or written argument to file a responsive brief or written argument. The commission, the executive director or his designee may, for good cause, grant any party an extension of the time for filing of its brief or written argument. If a party presents an issue which requires study of a statute, rule, regulation, or the hearing record no timely petition for review is filed, and no action is taken by the commission on its own motion within thirty days following the examiner's final order, the findings of fact, conclusions of law and order of the examiner shall automatically become the findings of fact, conclusions of law and order of the commission and shall have the same force and effect as if issued by the commission.

WAC 391-45-370 Filing and service of cross-petition for review. Where a petition for review has been timely filed under WAC 391-45-350, any party who has not previously filed a petition for review may, within seven days after the last date on which a petition for review may be filed, file a cross-petition for review. Such cross-petition shall be filed and served in the same manner as a petition for review. Upon the filing of a cross-petition for review, the deadlines for the submission of briefs or written arguments shall be extended by seven days.

WAC 391-45-390 Commission action. On its own motion, or on the filing of a petition for review, the entire record in the proceeding shall be transferred to the commission, and thereafter all motions and arguments shall be directed to the commission. The commission may request the parties to appear before it to make oral arguments as to certain of the issues or all of the issues in the matter. The commission shall, on the basis of the record and any briefs or arguments submitted to it on review, determine the matter.

WAC 391-45-410 Unfair labor practice remedies. If an unfair labor practice is found to have been committed, the commission or its examiner shall issue a remedial order. In calculating back pay orders, the following shall apply:

1. Individuals reinstated to employment with back pay shall have deducted from any amount due an amount equal to any earnings such employee may have received during the period of the violation in substitution for the terminated employment, calculated on a quarterly basis.

2. Individuals reinstated to employment with back pay shall have deducted from any amount due an amount equal to any unemployment compensation benefits such employee may have received during the period of the violation, and the employer shall provide evidence to the commission that such amount has been repaid to the Washington state department of employment security as a credit to the benefit record of the employee.

3. Money amounts due shall be subject to interest at the rate which would accrue on a civil judgment of the Washington state courts, from the date of the violation to the date of payment.

WAC 391-45-430 Motion for temporary relief. In addition to the remedies available under WAC 391-45-410, any complainant in an unfair labor practice proceeding may file a motion requesting that the commission seek appropriate temporary relief through the superior court, and all such motions shall be processed as provided in this section.

1. The complainant shall, at the time its complaint is filed or as soon thereafter as facts giving rise to the request for temporary relief become known, provide written notice to the executive director of its intent to make a motion for temporary relief and shall, at the same time, serve a copy of such notice on each of the other parties to the proceedings.

2. Upon the filing of a notice of intent to make a motion for temporary relief, the executive director shall expedite the processing of the matter under WAC 391-45-110.

(3) After the determination of the executive director that the complaint states a cause of action, any complainant desiring temporary relief may file with the executive director a motion for temporary relief together with affidavits as to the risk of irreparable harm and the adequacy of legal remedies, and shall serve a copy of such motion and affidavits on all other parties to the proceedings. The other parties shall have seven calendar days thereafter to file and serve counter-affidavits.

(4) The executive director shall forward all such motions and affidavits to the commission, which shall determine whether an injunction pendente lite should be sought. In making such determination, the commission shall adhere to the following policy:

"The name and authority of the public employment relations commission shall not be invoked in connection with a request for temporary relief prior to the completion of administrative proceedings under WAC 391-45-010, et seq., unless it appears that one or more of the allegations in the complaint of unfair labor practices is of such a nature that, if sustained, the complainant would have no fair or adequate remedy and the complainant would suffer irreparable harm unless the status quo be preserved pending the completion of administrative proceedings."

(a) If the commission concludes that temporary relief should be sought, the executive director, acting in the name and on behalf of the commission and with the assistance of the attorney general, shall petition the superior court of the county in which the main office of the employer is located or wherein the person who is alleged to be engaging in unfair labor practices resides or transacts business for an injunction pendente lite.

(b) Whenever temporary relief has been procured, the complaint which has been the basis for such temporary relief shall be heard expeditiously and the case shall be determined whether an injunction pendente lite.

(c) If the commission concludes that temporary relief should not be sought prior to the conclusion of administrative proceedings in the matter, such determination shall not bar renewal of the request for temporary relief following the completion of administrative proceedings in which unfair labor practice violations have been found to exist.

WAC 391-45-550 Collective bargaining—Policy. It is the policy of the commission to promote bilateral collective bargaining negotiations between employers and the exclusive representatives of their employees. Such parties are encouraged to engage in free and open exchange of proposals and positions on all matters coming into the dispute between them. The commission deems the determination as to whether a particular subject is mandatory or nonmandatory to be a question of law and fact to be determined by the commission, and which is not subject to waiver by the parties by their action or inaction. It is the policy of the commission that a party which engages in collective bargaining with respect to any particular issue does not and cannot thereby confer the status of a mandatory subject on a nonmandatory subject.

WAC 391-45-552 Special provision—Educational employees. The obligation to bargain in good faith imposed upon an employer and the exclusive representative of its employees, respectively, by RCW 41.59.020(2) and 41.59.140 (1)(e) or (2)(c) includes:

(1) The obligation to submit, as to each subject for bargaining advanced by the party, a written statement of the language proposed for incorporation in or deletion from the collective bargaining agreement between the parties, together with a written or oral explanation or justification of such proposals.

(2) The obligation to submit, as to each subject for bargaining advanced by the other party, at least one written response thereto, together with a written or oral explanation of such response: Provided, however, That a party which asserts in a written response that a subject for bargaining advanced by the other party is not a mandatory subject for collective bargaining may thereafter refuse to make further proposals as to such subject or subjects for bargaining.

(3) The obligation to receive proposals from the other party as to all subjects for bargaining in dispute between the parties, and, until a legal impasse has been reached, to refrain from demanding the removal of any such subject from the bargaining table on the basis that it is not a mandatory subject for collective bargaining.

(4) The obligation to exhaust the mediation and fact finding procedure established pursuant to RCW 41.59-.120 before implementing all or any part of a final offer in negotiations, except as provided in RCW 41.59.930.

(6) Chapter 391-95 WAC, which contains rules relating to determination of union security disputes arising between employees and employee organizations certified or recognized as their bargaining representative.

391-55-002 Sequence and numbering of rules—Special provisions. This chapter of the Washington Administrative Code is designed to regulate proceedings under a number of different chapters of the Revised Code of Washington. Special provisions required for conformity with a particular statute are set forth in separate rules numbered as follows:

(1) Special provisions relating to chapter 41.56 RCW (Public Employees' Collective Bargaining Act) and to chapter 53.18 RCW, port employees (Employment relations—Collective bargaining and arbitration), are set forth in WAC sections numbered one digit greater than the general rule on that subject matter and in subchapters of rules as follows:

(a) Special provisions relating to interest arbitration for uniformed personnel within the meaning of RCW 41.56.030(7) are set forth beginning with WAC 391-55-200; and

(b) Special provisions relating to fact finding for state patrol personnel within the meaning of RCW 41.56.020 are set forth beginning with WAC 391-55-400.

WAC 391-55-030 Impasse resolution—Assignment of mediator. Upon filing of a request for mediation, the executive director shall appoint a mediator from the list of qualified persons maintained by the commission for that purpose. If the parties have stipulated the names of one or more persons who are acceptable to both parties as mediator, then the executive director shall consider their desires.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 28B.52.080, 41.56.040, 41.58.050, 41.59.110 and 47.64.040. 80-14-049 (Order 80-8), § 391-55-010, filed 9/30/80, effective 11/1/80.]

WAC 391-55-032 Special provision—Educational employees. Upon filing of a unilateral request for mediation, the executive director shall determine the position of the party other than the party making the request, and shall determine whether the assistance of the agency is needed. In making such determination the executive director shall determine whether the parties have exchanged and considered the proposals of one another and whether the intervention of the agency will have a beneficial impact on the negotiating process. Prior to making such determination, the executive director or a member of the agency staff may make an on-site investigation and may engage in conciliation under the general authority of the commission under RCW 41.58.020(1). If it appears that the assistance of the agency is needed, the executive director shall appoint a mediator from the list of qualified persons maintained by the commission for that purpose. If the parties have stipulated the names of one or more persons who are acceptable to both parties as mediator, then the executive director shall consider their desires.

(1) Applicants for membership on the dispute resolution panel must demonstrate minimum background and experience equal to the minimum qualifications for the working level positions on the professional staff of the commission: A master's degree in labor relations, personnel management or industrial relations or closely allied field, and experience equivalent to two years of full-time work with major assignments in collective bargaining, contract administration or related work as a union, management or government official, mediator, arbitrator or educator in the above areas. A law degree may be substituted for the master's degree. Additional qualifying experience may be substituted, year for year, for education.

(2) Applicants for membership on the dispute resolution panel must furnish letters of recommendation from:

(a) At least one attorney, consultant or labor relations director representing management; (b) at least one attorney, union officer or business agent representing labor; and (c) at least one impartial arbitrator, mediator or labor relations administrative agency official. Such letters of recommendation must support the acceptability of the applicant as an impartial in the resolution of labor disputes.

(3) Applicants for membership on the dispute resolution panel must file, in the form specified by the executive director, information on their background, qualifications, professional certifications and affiliations. All information submitted shall be subject to administrative verification.

(4) Applications of persons appearing to be qualified for membership on the panel shall be forwarded to the commission for consideration and action. The commission shall review each application submitted to it, together with the supporting letters of recommendation, and shall notify the applicant of the determination made. Upon initial application or at any subsequent time as it may appear to the commission that the applicant or member of the dispute resolution panel has failed or refused to comply with applicable statutes, rules and ethical standards, the application shall be rejected or the member shall be removed from the dispute resolution panel. A member shall also be removed from the panel if he or she has ceased accepting appointments as an impartial in the resolution of labor disputes.

(5) Persons referred from the dispute resolution panel must be impartial. No active member of the dispute resolution panel may serve in any capacity as an advocate or representative for either labor or management in labor relations matters. Any member of the panel who intends to engage in advocacy work shall so notify the executive director and shall be placed on inactive status on the panel while such advocacy work continues.

(6) Upon request of the parties, the executive director shall make a list of members of the dispute resolution panel available to parties for their use in selecting a neutral chairman for an interest arbitration panel.

In the absence of agreement on any other method, they shall alternately strike names from the list, with the order of striking determined by lot.

(7) Upon appointment to the dispute resolution panel by the commission, the panel member may be placed under contract pursuant to RCW 39.29.010. Only persons listed on the panel will be compensated by the agency under personal service contract for services.

Employment of the person or any member of his or her immediate family by any party shall be disqualifying. Each party to the proceeding shall immediately notify the executive director and the appointee or selectee whether it is willing to waive disqualification. If the appointed members are unable to agree within seven days following their first meeting as to which agency is to supply the list of arbitrators, either of them may apply to the executive director for a list of five available neutral chairmen other than agency staff members and the neutral chairman shall be selected from the commission’s dispute resolution panel. All requests for panels under this subsection shall specify: "For interest arbitration proceedings under RCW 41.56.450." Any party to the proceeding may, within fourteen days after the initiation of review, file briefs or written arguments for consideration by the commission. The original and three copies of any brief or written argument shall be filed with the commission at its Olympia office and a copy shall be served upon the other party. The commission, the executive director or the designee of the executive director may, for good cause, grant any party an extension of the time for filing of its brief or written argument where a request for additional time is made prior to the deadline previously established. The commission may request the parties to appear before it to make oral argument as to certain of the issues or all of the issues in the matter. If a party presents an issue which requires study of a statute, rule, regulation, or finding of fact, the party should set out the material portions of the text verbatim or include them by facsimile copy in the text or in an appendix to the brief.
